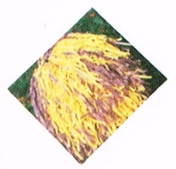
THE GOLDEN WILDCAT

1984

Hello, Memphis,

This is Melrose
The Golden Wildcat



Melrose High School
Memphis, Tennessee

HISTORY OF MELROSE

Melrose's history started when District 18 School of Shelby County, Tennessee was established in 1890, at the location now known as Spottswood and Boston. Later the school's name was changed to Melrose, in honor of Dr. Melrose, a philanthropist and humanitarian who gave much of his service to school, civic and community activities. Mrs. Fannie M. Kneeland was appointed principal and teacher.

Melrose grew from a one-teacher-principal school to a three teacher school with Mr. J.A. Foster, principal, Miss Mary Fortson and Mrs. Mary Braford teachers. In 1894, the school graduated its first class, composed of five girls. From 1894 to 1918, Mrs. Mary Bradford, Mrs. Jennie Graham and Mr. Fleming each served periods as a principal.

In 1918, Melrose became a city school and an eleven classroom stucco building was built. Mr. J.T. Franklin was appointed principal. He was followed in this term of office by Mr. W.A. Lynk.

Melrose and Park Avenue Schools were merged and R.H. Neville became principal in 1938. From 1941 to 1948, Mr. J.D. Springer and Mr. Harry T. Cash served as principals.

Mr. Floyd M. Campbell was appointed principal of Melrose High School in September, 1949. He emphasized the "family" idea. A close relationship developed between teachers and students. The pupils grew rapidly in the development of character, scholarship, leadership and service.

In 1969, Mr. Melvin Conley took the helm of Melrose High School. The people of the community referred to his appointment as the "return of the native son," because he had formerly served as biology teacher and coach at Melrose High School.

Our present principal, Mr. LaVaughn Bridges, a former Melrose teacher, also, emphasized the triple A + I (AAA +I) concept: Academics, Attendance, Attitude, and Athletics.

Melrose High School continues to move forward and upward. Many accomplishments are being made, and in 1972, we moved to the present site at 2870 Deadrick Avenue. The physical plant is a beautiful edifice with a competent principal, positive assistant principals, excellent supportive staff, and a corp of efficient teachers.

MIGHTY

WILDCATS

ALMA MATER

Dear Melrose High, we love and cherish thee
For e're and e're you'll hold our loyalty
Oh, Melrose Dear, your banners high are waving
A symbol of our faith in thee
Oh, Melrose Dear, re-echo all your flame
Your sons will keep your mem'ry a-flame.

Melrose will always linger in our hearts,
It grieves us so from you we have to part;
Although we're far away in distant lands,
We pray to God to help you understand,
Be brave, be true, in everything you do;
Melrose, Melrose, we'll always love you.

MELROSE GOLDEN WILDCATS FOOTBALL TEAM

MISS FOOTBALL
Rosalyn Yancy

The 1983-84 Golden Wildcats football team finished the season in great fashion with wins over Central and a homecoming victory over Craigmont.

Behind the fine coaching of Carlos Etheredge, the wildcats proved a lot of critics wrong who felt this was going to be a rebuilding year.

With fine senior leadership and coach Etheredge's superb motivation, the Wildcats should be even better next year.

GOOD LUCK!!

COACH DORSEY SIMS, JR

The 1983-84 Melrose Golden Wildcats basketball season began this year with memories of last years championship still in the back of most fans' minds. The defending state champs got the season underway in great fasion with wins over Hamilton and Northside. The team this year is led by Memphis State signee, Sidney Adkins, Fred Jones, and Michael Bailey.

The 1983 Lady Golden Wildcats certainly proved their point by defeating all their competitors on their way to a State Championship. This years team is coached by Mike Webb, and has four returning seniors: Rochelle Stevens, Charlotte Jett, Sandy Chambers, and Ara Black. With these returning seniors and some key underclassmen, they will try to repeat as state champions.

CO-EDITOR'S MESSAGE

Being on the annual staff is one of the most important experiences a student could ever have. The main objective is to exhibit through pictures as many aspects of Melrose as possible.

One of the most demanding projects has been that of Co-Editor-in-Chief of this annual. Many times, when the job seemed to be too big, it was the energy of the staff that kept us going.

I would like to thank each member of The Golden Wildcat Staff for their time and effort. My utmost appreciation to Mrs. Martha Galloway, Advisor; Cheryl Fisher, Editor and all dedicated members of the annual staff.

I shall always remember the staff for the times we have had together and the tremendous work we have done. I hope that as I leave Melrose, the bonds we have made will not be broken by time or distance.

Paula M. Houston

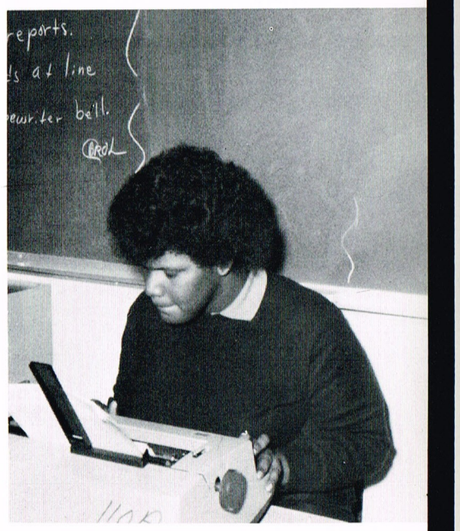
EDITOR'S MESSAGE



Working on the annual has been challenging for us all. As editor, I would like to thank Paula Houston, my co-editor, the media class, the administration, and my fellow classmates, for supporting the staff and helping this years annual to become a success.

Great appreciation goes to Mrs. Martha Galloway, advisor, for making us work when we did not want to. If it were not for her, the annual would not express the true meaning of the theme: "Hello Memphis, This Is Melrose".

To the '84-85' staff, good luck. You have a tough book to follow. I will always remember this year fondly.

WORDS OF WISDOM

What sculpture is to a block of marble, education is to a human soul.
One pound of learning requires ten pounds of common sense to apply it.
Learning is like rowing upstream; not to advance is to drop back.
The businessman is coming to realize that education is to business what fertilizer is to farming.
Education today, more than ever before, must see clearly the dual objectives: Educating for living and education for making a living.
The education of a man is never completed until he dies.
It is what we learn after we think we know it all, that counts.
It is one thing to itch for something and another to scratch for it.
Never stand begging for that which you have the power to earn.
Doing little things well as a step toward doing big things better.
Difficult — that which can be done immediately. Impossible — That which takes a little longer.
Act the way you'd like to be and soon you'll be the way you act.
So live that you wouldn't be ashamed to sell the family parrot to the town gossip.
Competition — "The world," Dwight Morrow once wrote to his son, "is divided into people who do things and people who get the credit. Try, if you can, to belong to the first class. There's far less competition."

We expected much and got much more.
A man who keeps his soulder to the wheel is rarely seen giving others trouble. He's like a mule in the respect that when he'll pulling, he can't kick, and when he's kicking, he can't pull.
One on God's side is a majority.
They can conquer who believe they can.
Be slow in choosing a friend, slower in changing.
It takes a great man to make a good listener.
No one can make you feel inferior without your consent.
When you're getting kicked from the rear, it means you're in front.
Wisdom is knowing what to do next. Skill is knowing how to do it, and virture is doing it.
