GOLDEN WILDCAT

FOREWORD

This pictorial review of our activities during the year was compiled and published by the members of the Class of '49.

Our sincere thanks go to all of the students for their cooperation and help; to all the teachers who were so kind and considerate of our efforts; and to our principal for giving us the privilege of compiling this Annual.

We want to take this method to thank our parents for making it possible for us to reach this point. We realize, Mothers and Fathers, that without you, without your support, your encouragement, your backing, and sometimes your scolding, the goal for which we have been striving would not be within our grasp.

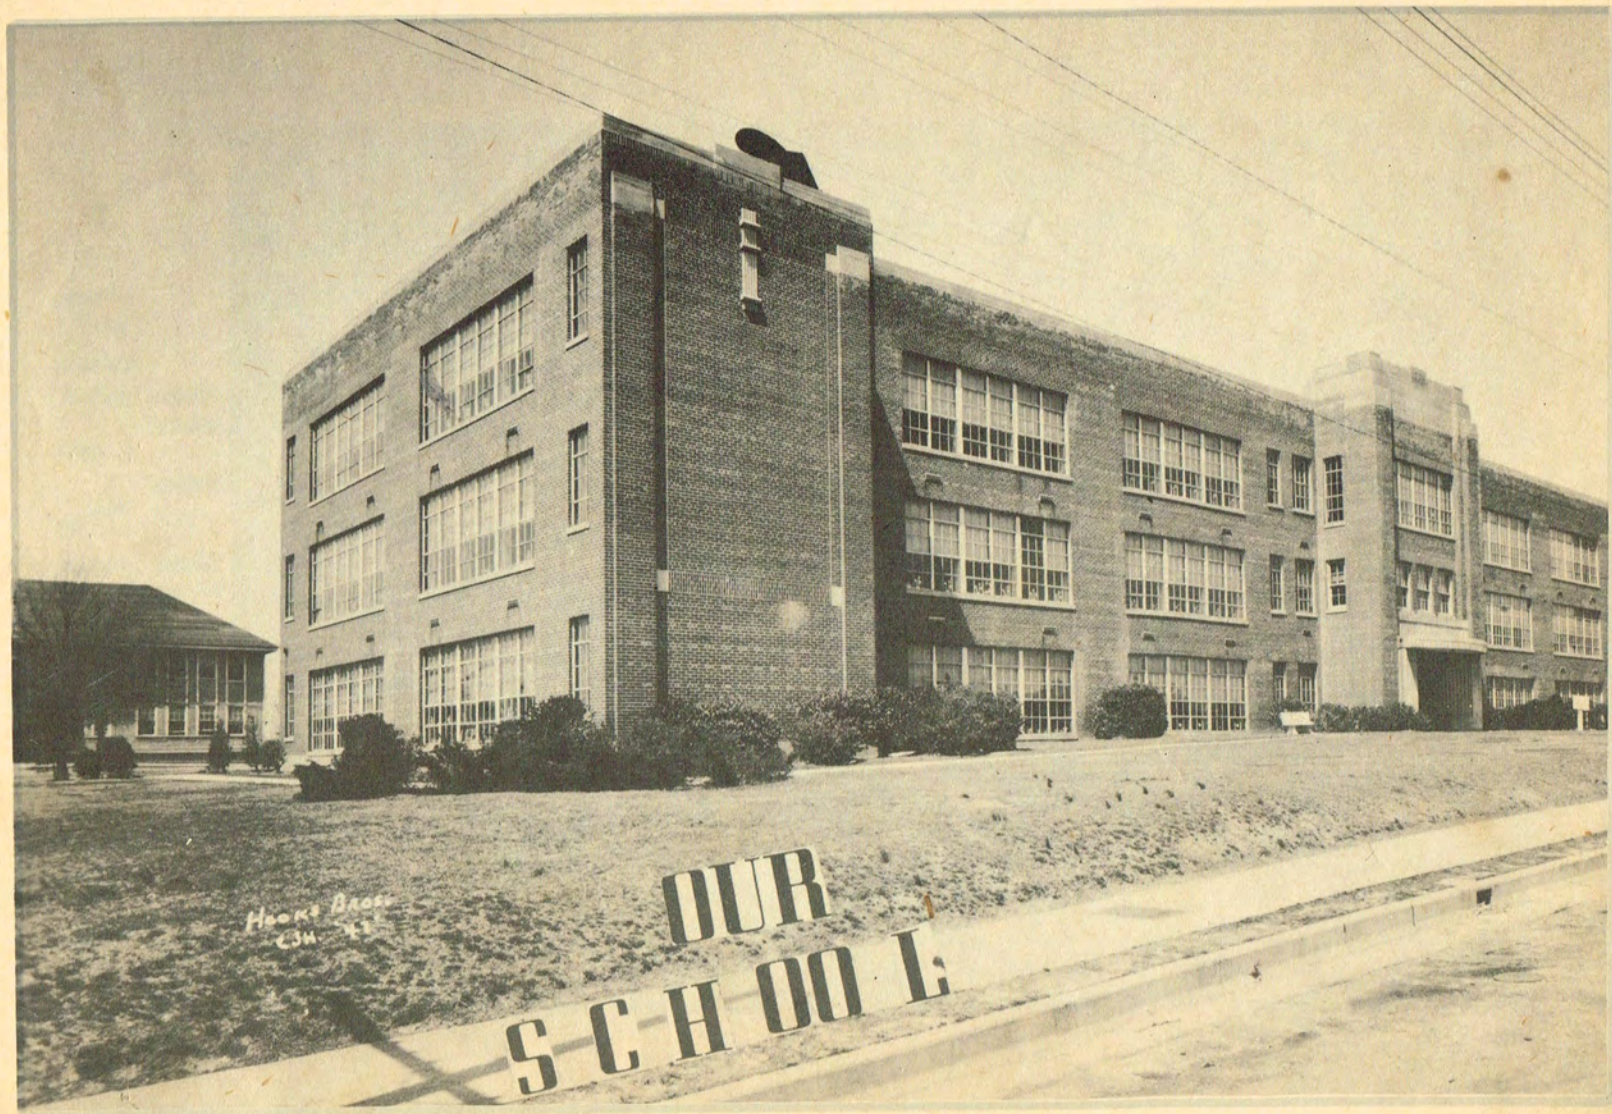

Because of these things, we dedicate our Annual to you, the Mothers and Fathers of the Seniors of 1949.

While we are expressing our appreciation, may we say thanks to our class advisers, Miss Vera T. Cummings and Mr. Joseph W. Westbrook. Your advice, and your guidance have enabled us to reach the end of the trail with hope and spirits soaring.

We go out from Melrose well grounded in the fundamentals of good citizenship and will reward our parents and teachers for their efforts by becoming assets to the community in which we live.

Young people, as you go from Melrose High School to college or out in the world you have my sincerest and deepest hope for your success. Of course you are to shoulder your responsibilities as well as claim your rights and privileges. If you make good, loyal, substantial citizens, those of us who have labored with you toward that end will feel amply rewarded.

If you are tempted to do otherwise, remember, your parents, teachers, City Board of Education, Memphis in general and Orange Mound in particular, hold your I. O. U's which you can redeem only when you meet the full requirements of good citizenship.

Good luck and God bless you!

Your principal,
Jesse D. Springer

CLASS HISTORY

In September 1945 we, one hundred three students, entered Melrose High School with wildly beating hearts and a feeling that much of our ambition had been accomplished. We thought we knew many things about high school life; yet there were so many angles we had to learn. It made us feel - just as the upper classmen said - "green as the grass on Melrose lawn". However, as the years passed on, we soon began to understand and love high school life.

The second year of our attendance was filled with more self-assurance because we were truly Sophomores. To establish ourselves as an important part of the whole; we joined all organizations of the school open to us, and tried to excel in other activities.

At last we reached our Junior year. Our hearts were glowing as we thought of the coming year. Our spirits soared as we thought of taking the places of the Seniors. None were wiser nor any more active than we. Every organization had a Junior on its roster. Under competent advisers, Mrs. G. V. Sharp and Mr. J. W. Westbrook, we organized. John W. Arnett, Jr., was elected president; William Johnson, vice-president; Robbie Mae Holmes, secretary; Zorine Duckett, corresponding secretary; and John Ed Chandler, treasurer. Our most outstanding honor of the year was the selection of a classmate, Thelma Wilson as "Miss Melrose."

Now we are Seniors and the time has come when we must say goodbye to the things we have learned to love so well. We are completing a successful year with the guidance of our efficient class advisers, Miss V. T. Cummings and Mr. J. W. Westbrook. Such untiring class officers as John Arnet, president; George Kirby, vice-president; Robbie Mae Holmes, secretary; Perinne Cox, assistant secretary; and Lucille Randolph, treasurer, made our last year on Melrose campus unforgettable. We are glad in mind but sad in heart to leave the things and persons that are most dear to us; but in the words of William Shakespeare, "parting is such sweet sorrow."

CLASS PROPHECY

As we sat gazing into the deep blue sky, a mist-like veil covered everything and the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred Forty-Nine could be seen taking its place with the millions of Americans who desire to achieve.

Boarding a Chicago and Southern Air Lines plane, we set out for Dallas, Texas. On our arrival there the Seaboard Sales Company attracted our attention. We recognized one of the salesladies, Marion Wooldridge. Opening the door of a beautiful office across the block, we saw Leola Glover, one of the south's best lawyers, conferring with Pearl M. Woods, her secretary.

A super-deluxe futurmobile glided cautiously through the streets of St. Louis and we found ourselves standing before Homer Phillips Hospital. Vera Mae Bledsoe, the head nurse, introduced us to her assistants, Marie West, Henrietta Simmons, Mary Terry, Lucille Randolph and Louise Easley, the dietician.

Imagine our surprise when we stopped at the Cozy Tea Room for lunch and discovered Cora Lee Clower was proprietor and also a teacher at Missouri State College. In the same building is the office of Cenner Pointer and William Johnson who are dentists. Their secretaries are Robbie Mae Holmes and Ophelia Dillard. We admire the beautiful architecture of the building and are agreeably surprised to learn it was designed by Alonza Johnson.

Leroy Wilson, a psychiatrist, has among his patients George Kirby, the scientist who won the Nobel prize for discovering a new element. In talking with them we learned of the success of Bernice Washington who is an instructor at Chicago University.

Prophecy - contd...

In Cleveland, Ohio, we discovered the No-Name Club whose members included Oliver Jackson, a civil engineer; Etherline Wright, stenographer; Iza Applewhite, a beautician; David Gentry, head clerk in Cleveland's largest postoffice; Evelyn Sanders, a nurse; and others too numerous to mention. The Fifth Avenue Night Club is owned by Dorothy Shipp and Martha Rhodes. Robert Williams and his orchestra are finishing up a long engagement at the club.

Pauline Roberts is in Detroit working as an interior decorator. York Martin is getting his Master's degree at Wayne University.

Verla Mae Kountz is now a graduate of Henderson Business College in Memphis; she is employed as confidential secretary to President Truman. Mildred Thompson is now director of music at Carnegie Hall and has just scored the biggest triumph of her career; she presented the great Catherine Grayner in a record breaking performance. A lifelong friend of the singer served as her accompanist in the person of Celia Ann Davis.

Cortrell Jones, author of the best-seller, "High Flies the Eagle" was interviewed on Station W. A. D. A. by Mavis Patten, who is program director for the well-known Santa Fe station. Thelma Dillard is the head librarian at the college adjoining the station. Thelma Wilson is having much success in her beauty salon.

A blue super-deluxe brought us back to Memphis to see what our friend Clifton Holmes was doing. He owns the Holmes Building on Holmes Avenue. In this building is a suite of offices occupied by lawyers. Elizabeth Bryant makes an attractive receptionist for them.

It's great to be back at the old Alma Mater. Just look what sprang up during our absence! Melrose has received its new high school building at last. Charles Rivers was the architect, and the faculty is literally overflowing with Forty-Niners! Phillip Smith is industrial arts teacher; Laurine Hollowell teaches English, and Delores Bradley got her wish - she now has the position of teacher of mathematics. Zorine Duckett, Perrine Cox and Lillian Grant are the eighth grade teachers, and Lorece Gatewood is secretary of the school. Melrose has a department of cosmetology now. It's a very artistic, very modern place, and it's presided over by three outstanding Forty-Niners, Annie Bell Allen, Olga Dilworth and Minnie Mae Nelson. The decorating was done by Alvin Smith and his assistant Gertrude Echols.

Lillian Davis has carved out for herself a most interesting career. She is a sergeant in charge of a group of policewomen, the first group of its kind in the south.

LeMoyne College has grown to a full-fledged university. The professor of humanities is C.L. Wright, whom we all remember as captain of the Golden Wildcats. His classroom is attractive, especially those two large paintings on the east wall. We scan them to find the name of the artists. Imagine! Robert Irving and Alphonza Nickens! David Boyce is head of the school of philosophy. He always did look like a philosopher, didn't he? Calvin Grant holds the newly created position of commissioner of athletics in the state department of education. He is, however, considering taking the position of head coach at Melrose which was left vacant by the retirement of Coach Westbrook.

John Arnett is on the staff of Kennedy Hospital. He's consulting psychiatrist. Bennie Bell is business manager of the hospital. Doris Williams and Mae Frances Bell have a beauty nook in South Memphis.

Well, the sun is sinking behind the horizon so we bring to a close this panorama of the careers of the most unforgettable class Melrose has ever known - the Senior Class of '49.

CLASS WILL

We, the fourth Senior Class of Melrose High School, being of sound mind and considering the brevity of our remaining interval here, do therefore make, publish, ordain and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

As a group we will and bequeath to the Freshman Class our co-operative spirit; to the Sophomore Class our inspiration to continue at Melrose during the next two years; and to the Juniors, our position as members of a most dignified and honorable group - the Senior Class of 1949. To a faculty capable and efficient in all ways, we will students of splendid scholastic merit and immortal loyalty.

These are personal properties that each legator wishes you to accept and handle with care. Use them to their fullest extent but preserve their moral value, if there be any. In many instances the heir will be able to make better use of them than the original owner; however, if such be impossible, preserve said property until such a time as it may be disposed of to someone as an heirloom.

All the rest and residue of our property not herein disposed of, whatsoever its nature, kind and quality and wheresover it may be, we give and bequeath to our beloved principal for his use and benefit absolutely. This is to be disposed of to the coming classes as he may see fit.

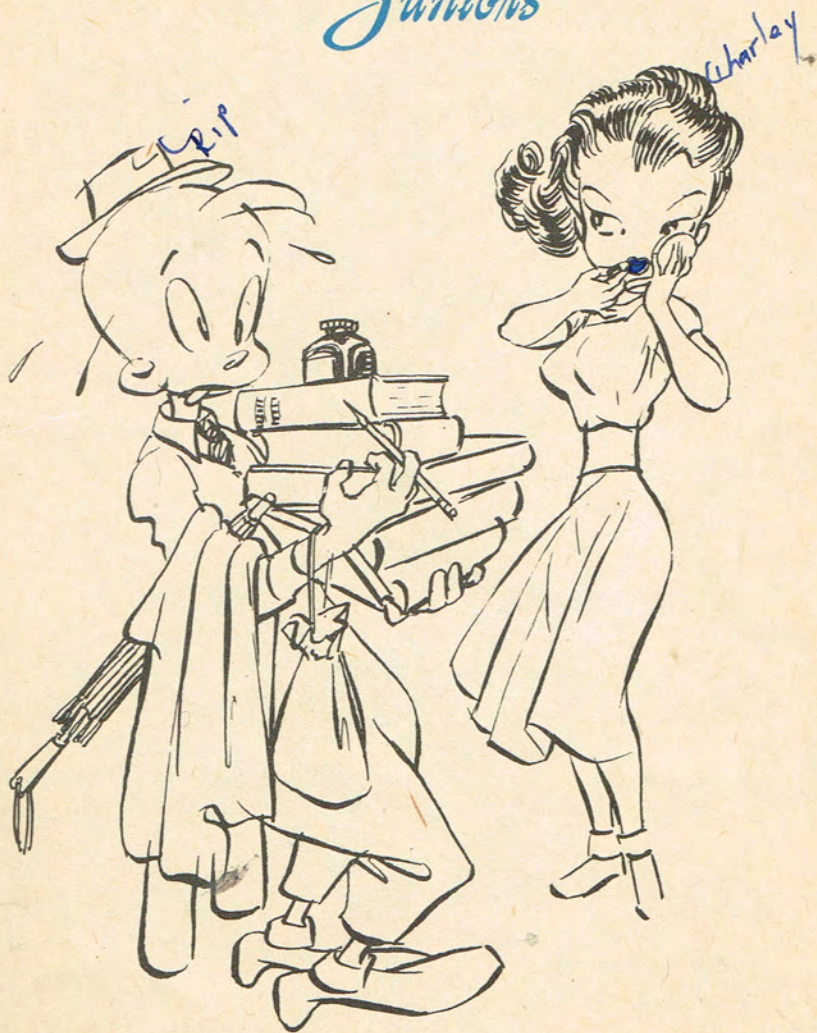

We do hereby constitute and appoint said principal as sole executor of this our last will and testament, on this Third day of June, in the Year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Forty-Nine.

Signed and sealed,

11-A CLASS

Citizenship teaches us that for every privilege there is a duty. We believe that we have been good citizens of Melrose as we have willingly and joyfully accepted both the work and the fun of school life.

All drives and efforts for charity have found us there, pitching in. We supported wholeheartedly the annual school financial drive.

In the recent student "Who's Who" contest, our class had more winners than any other group. They are: Most Studious, Alcine Kountz; Best Dancer, Cleo Harris; Best Physique (girl) Mary Webb; Best Physique (boy), Elton Grandberry; Most Talented, Gloria Brannon; Biggest Pest, Marie Pernell; Friendliest, Earlie Grey.

Earlie Grey was an attendant to the football queen. In our midst we have the only student who has the distinction of appearing on the Honor Roll throughout her entire high school career. She is Alcine Kountz, president of the Melrose Literary Club. Other students appearing on the Honor Roll at various times are: Gloria Brannon, Geraldine Anderson, Ulillah Elmore, Southern Campbell, Mary Griffin, Charles Hurt, Caretha Holt, Barbara Tinnon, Ernestine Ransom, and James Wallace.

Credit for our success is cheerfully given to our instructor, Miss Vera Cummings.

11-2 CLASS

Under the leadership of Miss Lytia Yarbrough, the class is looking forward to the completion of our Junior year and our glorious entrance into the Senior class. Knowing that we are getting nearer to the end of our high school days, we hope to carry on in a way that will bring credit to us and to our community.

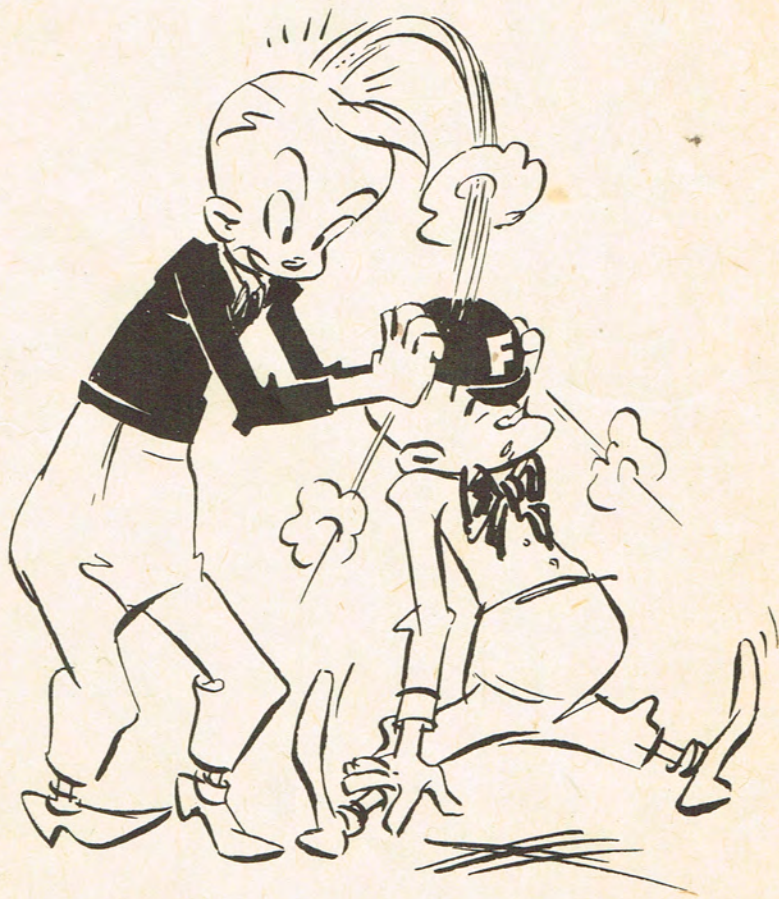

Our members are active in most of the organizations of the school, such as the Hi-Y, Y-Teens, Girl Scouts, Jr. Choral Group, Boys' Glee Club, football and basketball teams, Camera Club, Spanish Club, Literary Club, Track Team, Student Government, Band, Pep Squad, and Honor Roll.

The class is fortunate to have elected from its group the Captain and Co-captain of the Melrose Golden Wildcats for the 1949-50 season. They are: Leander Spight, Captain and William Pernell, Co-Captain. Leander Spight also had the honor of being elected to the All-Memphis Football Team of '48. Stars on the Melrose team were Spight, Pernell, Young, Williams, and Murcherson.

Representatives on the Honor Roll are: Shirley Harden and Emma Jean Taylor. In the Student Government we have Pernell and Taylor. The Choral Group is made up largely of students from our class. The class officers are: President, Emma Jean Taylor; Vice-President, John Williams; Secretary, Shirley Harden; Assistant Secretary, Thelma Hilson; Treasurer, William Pernell.

11-3 CLASS

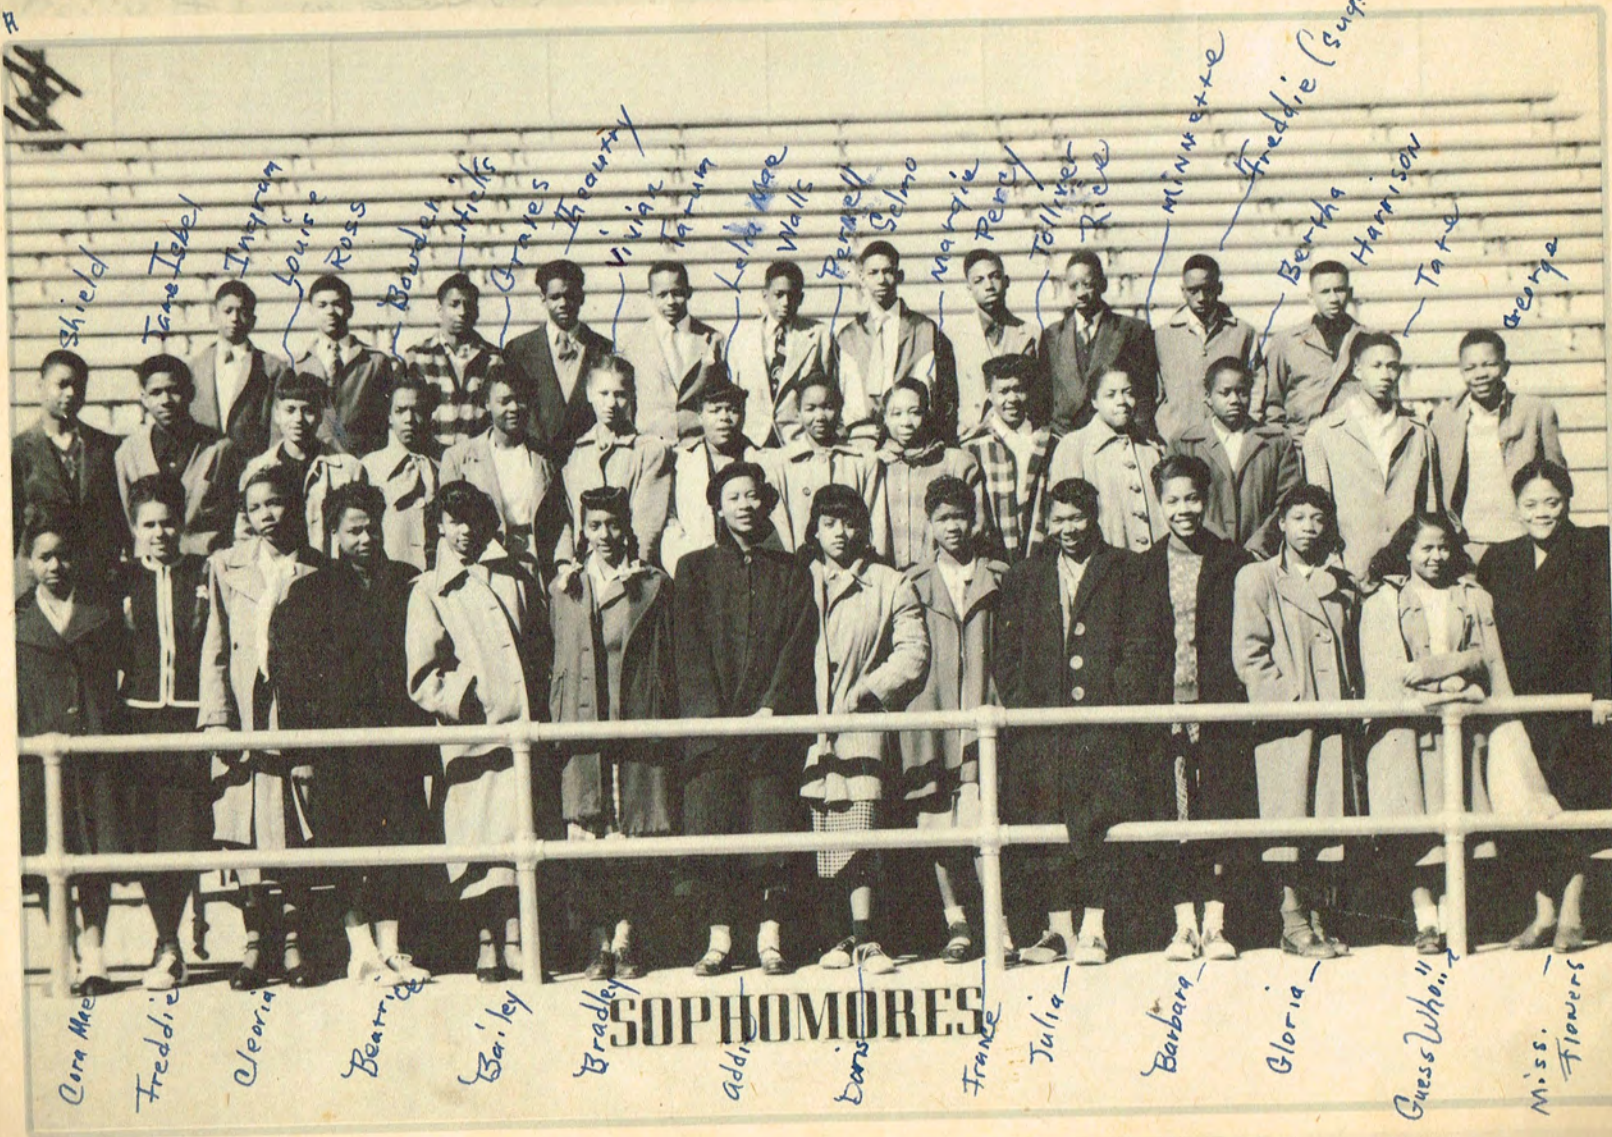

The third division of the Junior Class of Melrose has been in full swing since school began. We are proud to have as our adviser Mr. Cecil D. Goodlow. Officers of the class who have remained in school are: President, Corinne Johnson; Secretary, Doris B. Thomas; Treasurer, Mr. Goodlow; Chaplain, Jonnie Mann. We boast of having two students from this division to win the student "Who's Who" contest. They are Marcell Meacham and James Wilson. Honor students throughout the year are: Mary Katherine Fowler and Corinne Johnson.

10-A CLASS

We, the members of the 10-A Class, are greatly pleased with our accomplishments this year. Because of the cooperation of the members and the sponsorship of our very able adviser, Miss Viola P. Flowers, we have been 100% in all school activities. The football queen for '48 hails from this class. She is Charley Mae Parker.

Heading the list of talented students we have Theatry Randolph, director of the "Solid Senders"; Leonard Shields, pianist; and James Isabel, trumpet player. Dorothy Bailey plays the role of "Doris Harwood" in the high school play.

Emmett Rice has been on the Honor Roll throughout the year, and was voted the second most studious boy in the recent "Who's Who" contest. Band majorettes are Rosia Faulkner, Charley Parker and Margie Sharp. On the track team are Barbara Taylor, Gloria Grant, Cleoria Cathey, Louise Allen and Freddie Warren. Football boys are Otha Shaw, James Hicks, Selmo Jones, Leonard Ross and Charles Tatum. Cheering Squad members are Barbara Taylor, Gloria Grant and Dorothy Bailey. Percy Washington won third prize in the City Beautiful poster contest.

The officers of the class are: President, Percy Washington; Secretary, Barbara Taylor; Treasurer, Beatrice Cox. We live up to our motto, "Once Tops, Always Tops."

10-3 CLASS

We felt very fortunate when the new Spanish teacher Mrs. Mildred Poston McCleave, was assigned to this class as adviser. Whatever success we have achieved is due to her leadership.

The class officers are: President, Willie Williams; Vice-President, Percy Saulsberry; Secretary, Mary Newton; Assistant Secretary, Ernestine Rivers; Treasurer, Catherine Jordan; Reporters, Fannie Banks and Florine Ransom. Band members are: Aaron James, Lorine Evans, and Mary Newton. T. W. Williams tied for 2nd place in the high jump in the State Track Meet. Girl Scouts are Mary Newton, Fannie Banks, Lorine Evans. Y-Teens are Lola Dotson, Ernestine Rivers, Cleo Maxwell. Honor Roll students are Florine Ransom, Cecil Sanderson and Mary Newton.

10-2 CLASS

We have enjoyed being under the supervision of Mrs. Frances M. Richardson. We wish to thank her for her patience and kindness toward us.

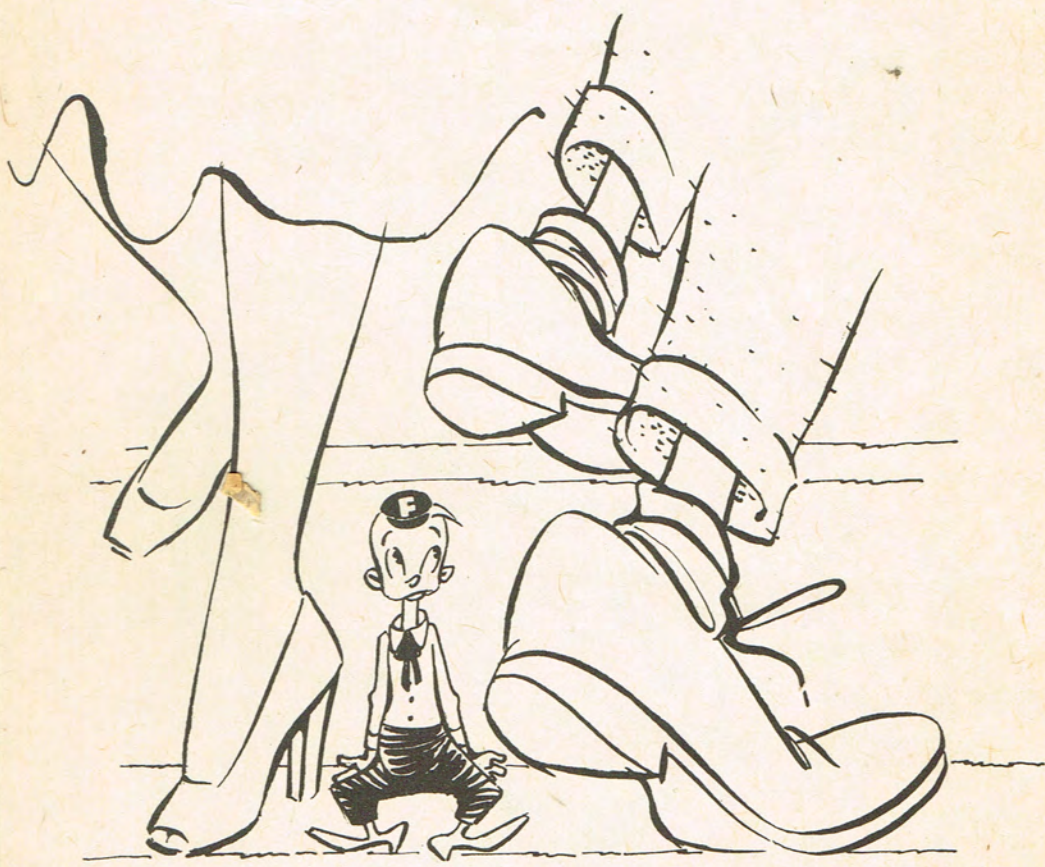

The class though small, has carved for itself a niche in the Melrose hall of fame. We have been leaders in every worthwhile movement on our campus. We chose as our president a very capable young man, a veteran of World War II, Alexander Turner, who has made a most excellent leader for the class. To assist him we selected the following students: Vice-President Lillian Hayes; Secretary, Tarledo Hines; Assistant Secretary, Gwendolyn Crawford; Treasurer, Samuel Thomas; Reporter, Bertha Douglas.

We raised the second largest amount of money in the annual financial drive of the school. Gwendolyn Crawford is secretary of the Student Council. Our Track star, Willie Ware, won second place in the 100 yard dash at the State Track Meet in Nashville. Girl Scouts are: Bertha Douglas, Florence Washington and Mildred Jones. Y-Teens are Helen Murphy, Fannie Rice, Tarledo Hines, Susie Nickens, Gwendolyn Crawford, Lillian Hayes. Junior Chorus Group members are Fannie Rice and Gwendolyn Crawford. Honor Roll students during the year were Lillian Hayes, Tarledo Hines, Alexander Turner and Gwendolyn Crawford.

Unique in the history of the school is our banking system, under the supervision of the cashier, Willie Ware, who is also a veteran of World War II. Members of the class deposit money at any time during the study hall or recess periods. Careful records are kept and bank books accurately marked, and the money is deposited by the cashier in the presence of the adviser. Students may withdraw money for any school activity and in this way we can be ready to do our part in whatever effort the school launches.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

9-A CLASS

The 9-A Class has come into the Melrose limelight under the able leadership of our teacher, Mrs. Dorothy Graham. Our class officers are: Acting President, Helen Martin; Secretary, Sarah Martin; Assistant Secretary, LaVerne Harris; Treasurer, Doris Hughes; Chaplain, Aleta Gatewood; Class Reporters, Lillian Jean Smith and Samuel Martin. The class colors are royal blue and white.

Among the many activities of the class the Poetry Club stands out. The purpose of the club is to learn and appreciate more poems in our leisure time. Officers of the Poetry Club are: President, Ernestine Taylor; Vice-President, Oscar Davis; Secretary, Sarah Ann Martin; Assistant Secretary, Doris Hughes; Treasurer, Aleta Gatewood. The colors are green and white, and our motto is "Let the Best Be Done Better." Flower of the club is the white carnation.

The 9-A students have given the 10-A Class a close run for first place in the activities of the school. I'm sure they must admit that even if we are Freshmen, we try to do our share in everything. Other school activities and their participants are: Hi-Y, Oscar Davis, Beuford Terry, Norvell Wallace; Y-Teens, Helen Martin, LaVerne Williams; Girl Scouts, Florence Bryant, Jean Smith; Track Team, Tommie Merriweather, Sarah Martin. We are proud of our track star, Tommie Merriweather, who won the 100 yard dash at the Melrose Track Meet.

Helen Martin is the assistant secretary of the Melrose Student Council. She has also served efficiently as the president of the class since the president, David Brown, transferred to another school.

9-3 CLASS

We, the members of the 9-3 class believe that every minute should help to make a worthwhile hour. Our Freshman year is here and almost gone, and we can say with pride that we have played our part in helping to make this a better Melrose.

We have members of our class in almost every organization on our campus. On the track team we have Earl Jackson and James Wallace. Y-Teens are Doris Hudson, Melva Washington, Lillie Douglas and Doris Glover. Football stars are James Wallace, Earl Jackson, and John Langston. In the band are G. B. Holman and Jeff Grayer.

We knew at the beginning of the term we couldn't go wrong under the supervision of our home room teacher Mrs. Florence Bolden and this fine corps of officers: President, James Partee; Vice-President, William Smith; Secretary, Doris Jean Glover; Assistant Secretary, Doris Elizabeth Hudson; Treasurer, Melva Lee Washington. We are looking forward to next school year when we shall be dignified Sophomores.

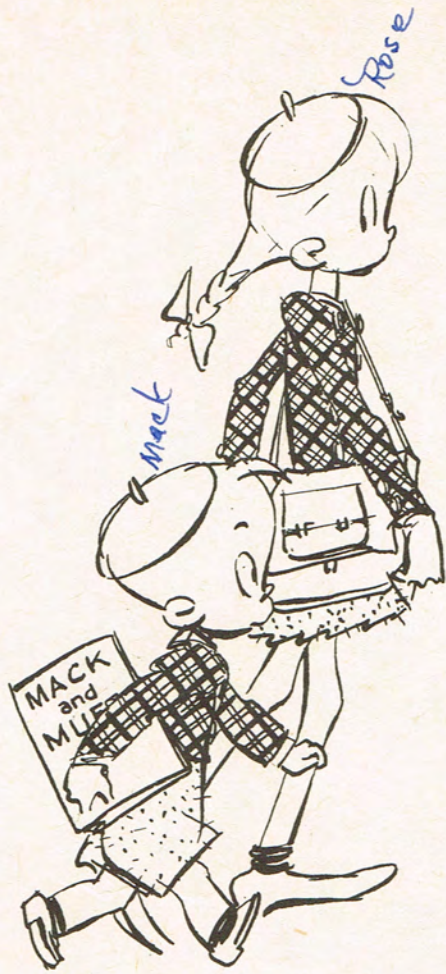

9-2 CLASS

Education, to paraphrase, is not a destination we reach, but a road on which we are constant travelers. Our journey along the road here at Melrose has been very pleasant. We appreciate the help of our very fine home room teacher, Mrs. Minnie C. Woods.

8th GRADE CLASSES

School days are the happiest and most carefree days of a person's life. We feel that we are leaders in the grade school just as the senior high school students are leaders of the whole school.

We are working very hard to graduate in May, 100%. We hope that on that day all members of the class will feel rewarded for the time and study which they have put into the first eight grades of school.

Our class tried to cooperate in every class and school effort. The 8-3 Class furnished the football attendant, Leslie Mae Hooker, to the football queen. Representatives in the band are Pearline Wright, Clara Goodall and Yvonne Young from 8-2; Frank Hurt, 8-A. Our most brilliant students are Irma Tate, George Cox, Mary Bates, Cloyd Scales, Floyd Scales and Lila Smith.

Representing Melrose at the annual Press-Scimitar Spelling Bee at Washington High School was Irma Tate of 8-2. James Christopher of 8-A was her alternate.

Class officers are: 8-A, President, Rose Alexander; Secretary, Lila B. Smith; Treasurer, Betty J. Walker; 8-2, President, Robert Baldwin; Secretary, Mary Bates; Treasurer, Pearline Wright; 8-3, President, Cora Owens; Secretary, Lois Hicks; Treasurer, Floyd Scales.

7th GRADE CLASSES

The 7th grade classes are happy to have as teachers Mrs. L. King, 7-A; Mrs. M. Rawlings, 7-2; Miss E. Clanton, 7-3; and Mrs. D. Haynes 7-4.

Officers for 7-A are: President, James Goodson; Secretary, Dorothy Truitt; Treasurer, Wilma Mosley. The class motto is, "We lead and others follow." Officers for 7-2 are: President, Allison Morris; Secretary, Monice Williams; Treasurer, Samuel Graham. 7-3 class officers are: President, James Polk; Secretary, Annette Thomas; Treasurer, Christine Currin. And the 7-4 class chose as its leaders these students: President, Geraldine Campbell; Secretary, Lois Guest; Treasurer, Ruthie Mae Williams. The class motto is "Once and Always."

Our "Democracy in Action" program was unique in the history of our activities. It was a joint presentation of the 7th and 8th grades. Representing the 7th grades on the program were: 7-2, Samuel Graham and Doristine Thompson; 7-3, Bessie Sharp and Katty Williams; 7-4, Geraldine Campbell and Leroy Norton.

Art students are Van Harden and Alfred Dotson, of 7-2; Robert Crawford, 7-3; Gerald Holmes and Charles Young, Warren Patten and James Polk.

Our boys have sponsored softball games and the class members have encouraged them to play to win, but never do we forget the proverb "It matters not whether you win, or lose, but how you play the game."

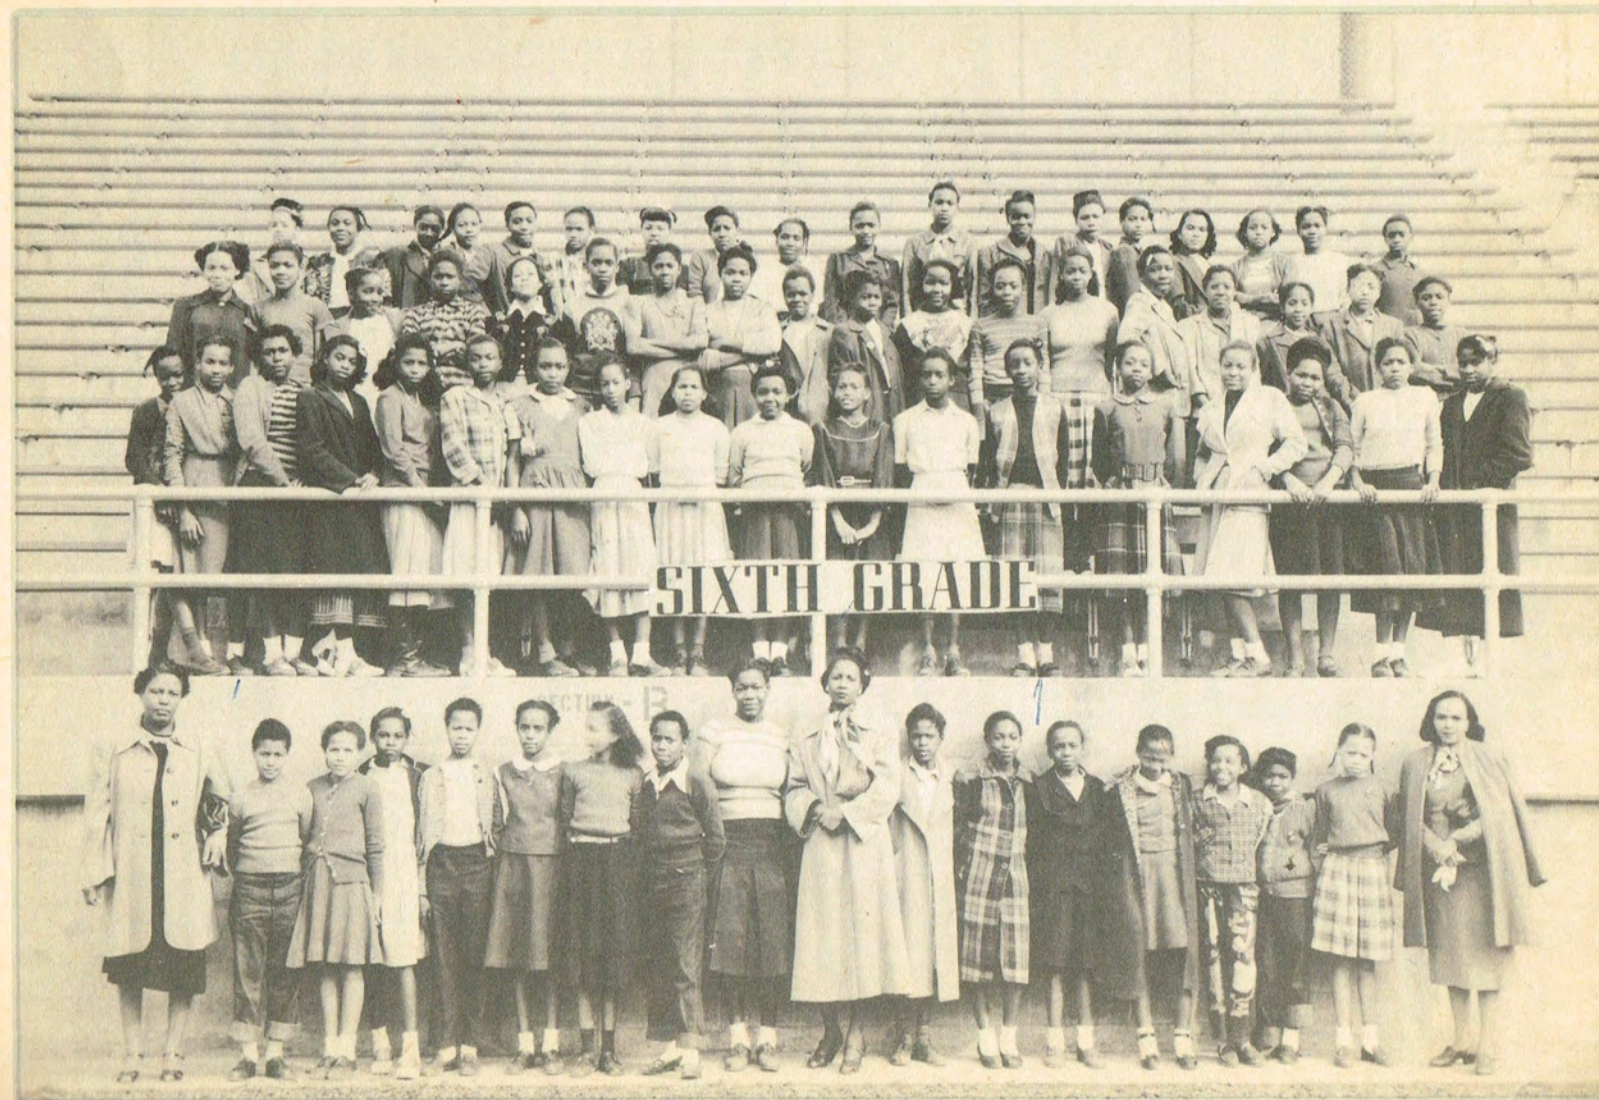

Band members are Samuel Graham, 7-2; John London and Gerald Holmes, 7-3; Rubin Johnson and Roy Norton, 7-4. Girl Scouts are Wilma Mosley and Barbara Smith, 7-A; Monice Williams, 7-2; Lucille Ryan, 7-3; Ruthie Williams and Amanda Battle, 7-4. Bessie Sharp won third prize in the Melrose spelling contest. This was an elimination for the Press-Scimitar spelling bee. She is in 7-3 grade. The J - O - Y Club of 7-2 class is popular among the other campus clubs..

It is with a great deal of pride and happy anticipation that we go into the eighth year of school life.

6th GRADE CLASSES

The 6-A, 6-2, and 6-3 classes, with Mrs. Lundie Campbell, Mrs. Mildred Thomas and Mrs. Inez Morris, respectively as instructors, have tried hard to comply with the old adage, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." And as the time for closing draws near, we are striving even more to reach the goal for which we set out at the beginning of the school year.

The 6-A Class is proud of Agnes Jones who represented them in the spelling bee at school. Members of the Junior Red Cross from this section are Leo Anderson, Cleveland DeWitt, Yvonne Jackson and Agnes Jones. Honor Roll students are Gladys Dortch, Cleveland DeWitt, Laferre Harris, Otis Higgs and Agnes Jones. Our new comers are Katherine Alexander from Mississippi and Chester Irvin from LaRose School.

"For when the one great Scorer comes to write against our name, He writes not that we won or lost, but how well we played the game." The 6-2 Class has played hard, worked hard, and served well in order to be good citizens of Orange Mound Community. New students in the class are O. B. McCaskill, T. J. Garrison, Dorothy Bowman and McKinley Nesbitt. They hail from various places in Mississippi and Alabama. Although the class is proud of all its members, we are especially proud of Juanita Johnson, Hildred Seats and J. D. Williams who graced the spotlight at the Handy Theater as main characters in the operetta, "Patty Sue's Birthday Party."

The 6-3 Class boasts of quite a few new additions to Melrose. They are Emily J. Flemings, Bonnie J. Moore, Betty Jean Hamilton, Mattie Tunstall, Gladys Dillard, Juanita Fay Webb, Peggy Hawkins, Clarence Williams and George Rivers.

Willie Ed Allen and Cerita Johnson are the students who made the Honor Roll and who also represented the class in the spelling bee.

Now after almost nine months of continued study, the three divisions are dreaming of entering the 7th grade next school year, with a bigger determination to do the kind of work expected of a Melrose student.

5th GRADE CLASSES

We are learning by doing every day. The 5-3 and 5-4 classes are doing good work under the leadership of Mrs. A. Williams and Miss C. Humphrey. Our motto is "To Strive - To Seek - To Find."

We elected class officers. For 5-3 we have: President, Eugene Brown; Secretary, Frankie Mae Brownlee; Treasurer, Jannie Franklin. The officers of 5-4 are: President, Mary McGowan; Secretary, Charles Lloyd; Treasurer, Frank Lyles.

Students who have had excellent attendance this year are, from 5-3, Frankie Brownlee, Josephine Griffin; and from 5-4, Charles Lloyd, Fannie Carpenter, and Jimmy Taylor. Our Honor Roll students are Jannie Franklin, Alice Woods, Ruthie Sawyer, Robert Prince, and Eugene Brown from 5-3; and Eddie Parker, Frank Lyles, Clarence Holmes, Freddie Green, Oreler Dillard, from 5-4. The band marches on, and marching with it are Charles Lloyd and Estella Cursey.

We hope to be one of the best classes in scholarship, conduct, and in everything that will make Melrose School the best school in the United States.

J.O.Y. C L U B

I suppose you wonder what the initials stand for. Well, they stand for "joy". The club got its name by its doings, making others happy at all times. When any of our members or relatives pass away we try to give them comfort by sending flowers, and when our members are sick we give them a lovely box of fruit and fruit juices. We also cooperate financially in all school activities by attending 100% the shows, plays, games and other occasions. Our club has a membership of 34 and is composed of students of 7-2 class. Officers are: President, Allison Morris; Vice-President, Van Harden; Secretary, Monice Williams; Assistant Secretary, Shirley Duckett; Treasurer, Samuel Graham; Sick Treasurer, James Barksdale, Business Manager, Leon Acey; Assistant Business Manager, John Polk.

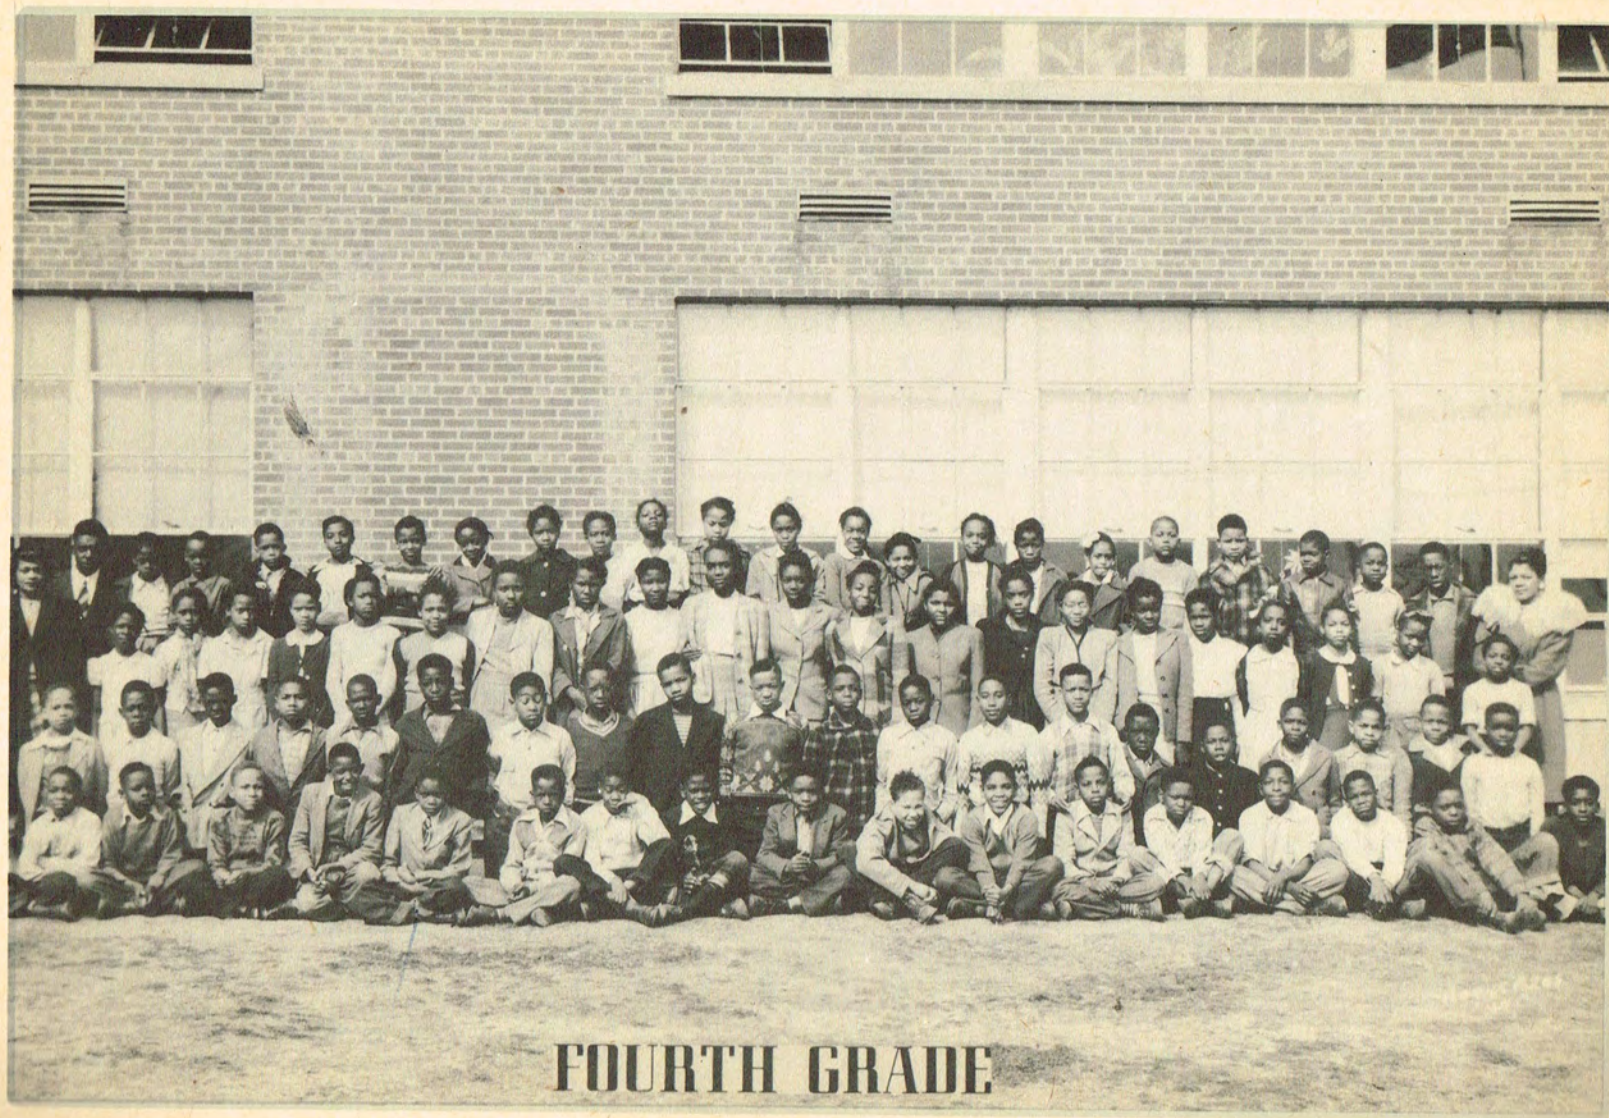

Last, but not least, I would like to give credit where credit is due - to none other than our own home room teacher and club mother, Mrs. Marie Rawlings. She has and is still doing a fine job in training us in club management.

PRIMARY GRADES

We have five divisions of the First grade with an enrollment of nearly 250 pupils. The 1-A class, under the supervision of Mrs. Maggie Jordan, is enjoying a very full school year with various activities including a trip to a pupil's home to see rabbits. A very pretty egg shell window garden is one of the attractions of the classroom.

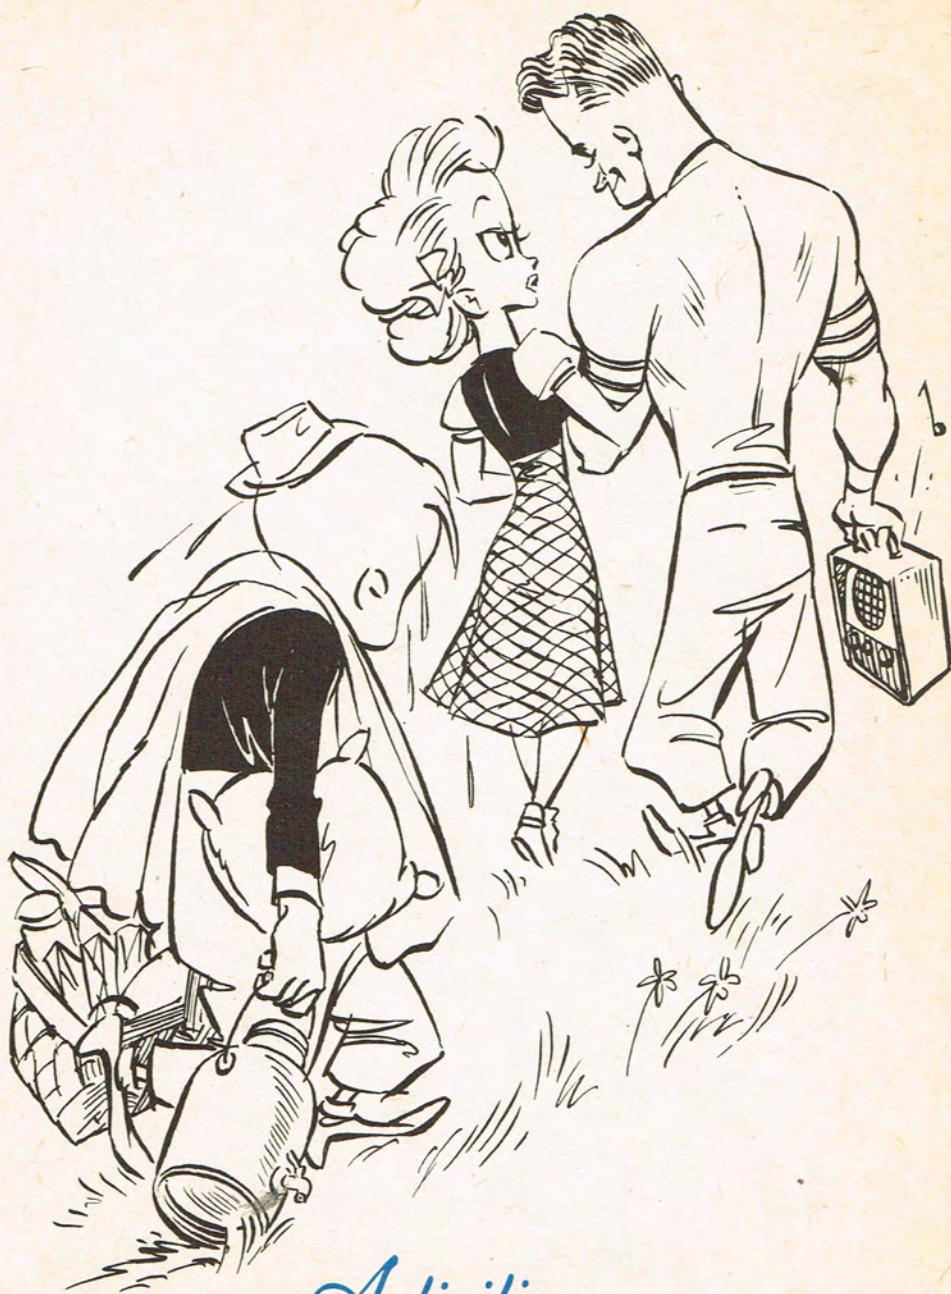

The 1-2 class has also had an enjoyable time this year. Our teacher is Mrs. T. J. Johnson. 1-3 class has as its teacher Mrs. E. D. Stiles. The Shrine Circus was one of the main events of the year, and the annual trip to the Overton Park Zoo on May 5th was an outing to be long and pleasantly remembered.

The 2-A and 2-2 grades have an enrollment of 97 pupils. The boys outnumber the girls. Again man is seeking knowledge.

These children are encouraged to work out many activities under the guidance of their teachers, Misses Christine Gardner and Georgia B. Carvin. These activities will help strengthen the understanding and knowledge they have acquired. Beside their regular class work they have painting, drawing, dramatics, collecting pictures and news for the bulletin boards. Trips are planned in order that more information can be obtained first hand. Some of the pupils are members of the Cubs, Brownies, Junior Twirlers, and majors of the Junior Twirlers.

The 2-3 and 2-4 grades make up a large percent of the primary group. These children, under the guidance of their teachers, Mrs. Goodlow and Mrs. Gibson, are taught to live and play in harmony with one another. They are also taught the rudiments of the three R's. Junior majorettes for the band are selected from this group. There are also several members of the Brownie troop of the Girl Scouts in these divisions.

Our Home Economics Department was expanded this year with the addition of one domestic science teacher, Mrs. Minnie C. Woods, who returns to Melrose after having taught an interval at Manassas.

The course is arranged so that we are assigned to one semester of cooking and one semester of sewing. These courses are taught interchangeably by Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Florence E. Bolden.

The department is proud of the boys who are enrolled. They too, have come to realize what the girls have always known - that home economics is a subject which is vital to the very life of the nation and that it is as much the duty of the man as it is of the woman to do his part in making a successful home.

In addition to its regular class work, the department is ready at all times to assist in the activities of the school. During the football season we prepare meals for the teams, sell food at the games, and prepare the banquet to end the season.

Costumes for the plays, operettas, and programs are sewn in the department. Faculty members assist the two home economics teachers whenever necessary.

JUNIOR CHORAL GROUP

The Junior Choral Group was organized in the year of 1946. The officers for this school year are: President, Hattie Brittenum; Vice-President, Raymond Hurt; Secretary, Geraldine Anderson; Miss Flowers, Director and Adviser.

We made a number of appearances in assemblies at school. On December 10, 1948, we went to Booker T. Washington High School to sing on the "Live At Home" program of the Agriculture Department. On December 15th, we appeared on the Yuletide Revue at the W. C. Handy Theater.

As we leave for our vacation we shall look forward to coming back next school year for bigger and better appearances.

THE CAFETERIA

Nutrition and physical fitness go hand in hand and the old saying "we are what we eat" is basically true. In addition to this, it has been proved that mental well being is directly related to the physical health of an individual.

It is the work of the Melrose cafeteria to provide, at all times, well-balanced, carefully prepared, economical meals for the faculty and students. The cafeteria is operated by the Board of Education and trained nutritionists plan the daily menus.

The cost of the food is far below the prices elsewhere in the city and care is taken to see that every day the seven basic foods or approved substitutes are served. Welcome substitutes are ice cream, hamburgers, pies and cakes. But before these come the vegetables, meal and milk so necessary to good nutrition.

The members of the cafeteria staff make the building attractive by placing pictures and displays on the walls, planting flowers in window boxes, and keeping the building clean. Students and teachers assist in the cafeteria in any way they are needed. The work of the Student Council in the cafeteria has been very effective in maintaining that atmosphere necessary to good digestion. They have kept a very orderly line passing along the serving counter.

LITERARY CLUB

MELROSE LITERARY CLUB

"Knowledge is power", said the great Francis Bacon, centuries ago, and truly it is, even more so, in this age of the atom and jet propulsion.

The members of the Literary Club have pledged themselves to be always seekers of knowledge. Since books are one medium through which knowledge comes to us, we are all avid readers. In addition to our reading, however, we find time to be campus leaders. Our activities have been numerous, varied and enjoyable. To recall a few: the story-telling project in which we told stories to the children of the elementary school; the Teacher Popularity Contest; the survey of choice books at Melrose; the joint literary program with Manassas High School; and the most unforgettable of all, the Student Who's Who Contest.

Funds raised from the Who's Who Contest have enabled us to purchase a bulletin board for the library, pictures of Booker T. Washington, George Washington Carver, and our own principal, J. D. Springer. The club plans to purchase a few reproductions of the masters with its remaining funds.

We do not lose sight of our main reason for being at Melrose. Scholarship comes first with us. Most of our members are Honor Roll students. The requirements for admission to the club include an A or B average in English, and a general high standard of deportment and scholarship. Membership is limited to Juniors and Seniors, although Freshmen and Sophomores may be associate members.

Officers of the club are: President, Alcine Kountz; Vice-President, Cora Clower; Secretary, Mary Griffin; Assistant Secretary, Mary Fowler; Treasurer, Hattie Brittenum.

The adviser of the club is the school librarian, Mrs. Frances McGuire Richardson, to whom we are deeply indebted for her ideas and inspiration.

GIRL SCOUTS

SENIOR SERVICE SCOUTS

The motto of the National Girl Scout organization "Be Prepared" is the watchword of the Senior Service Scouts at Melrose. We believe preparedness is essential in all walks of life. At the present our duty is to prepare ourselves educationally and socially to meet the challenge of a changing world.

The troop entertained visiting football teams with a spaghetti dance and we also entertained our own football boys with a dance. We participated in the annual Scouts Award program held at Mt. Nebo Baptist Church.

Our leaders for this year are Miss Vera Cummings, Mrs. Frances Richardson, Mrs. Mildred P. McCleave, and Miss Lytia Yarbrough. Mrs. McCleave and Miss Cummings are planning an out-of-town trip for us during the month of May. We are going to cook out, go boating, and spend part of the day in the woods.

Officers of the Senior Service Scouts for this year are: President, Gloria Brannon; Vice-President, Shirley Harden; Secretary, Dorothy Pernell; Assistant Secretary, Julia Harden; Treasurer, Cleo Harris.

INTERMEDIATE GIRL SCOUTS

First, I'd like to introduce to you the Scouts. They are Monice Williams, Wilma Moseby, Barbara Smith, Juanita Shields, Barbara Taylor, Jean Smith, Florence Bryant, Ruthie Williams, Lucille Ryan and Amanda Battles. The officers are: Troop Scribe, Ruthie Williams; Assistant Scribe, Florence Mae Bryant; Treasurer, Monice Williams; Troop Shoppers, Barbara Smith and Juanita Shields. Our teachers who help with the scouts are: Leader, Mrs. Dorothy T. Graham; Asst. Leader, Mrs. Eloise Ratliff; Mrs. Ophelia Hawkins, Mrs. Delora Thompson and Mrs. Winnie Hill.

We have participated in many of the various attractions of the Girl Scouts. During the year Barbara Taylor and Monice Williams took part in the Senior Scout colonial dance. Many of our scouts were in the Court of Awards. Nine Brownie Scouts flew up this year. Some scouts were fortunate enough to receive badges in Second Class Weaving, Child Care and Hostess. Our greatest ambition for the summer is to attend the Girl Scout Camp.

Juanita Shields sold more Girl Scout cookies than any other scout. She sold 83 boxes and won a free trip to camp.

BROWNIE SCOUTS

The Brownie Scouts are members of a national and world-wide organization. This group, composed of girls of ages 7-10, whose scholastic ratings are high, has been a part of our school for more than five years.

The purpose of Brownie scouting is to try to supplement the things the little girls learn at home, at school, and in church, so that they will be better members of all three.

We pledge ourselves to be good citizens and to help others. We have lots of fun and good times. We have received many honors and awards, as many as troops containing older girls.

The members of the faculty who share their interests and hobbies with us are Mrs. Goodlow, Mrs. Jordan, Miss Sylvers, Mrs. Bowden, Mrs. Reid, Miss Humphrey, and Miss Carvin.

SAFETY COUNCIL

The Safety Council of Melrose is always active in carrying out its motto, "Safety Comes First." The student body is indebted to this group and should regard their wishes by doing all they can to aid them in carrying out this slogan.

Each student should be on time and by doing so can have the protection of the Safety Council. The members are on duty at nearby street crossings each morning from 8:00 until 8:45 and in the afternoons from 3:00 until 3:45.

LAS ESPANOLES FLORES

As September of the school year 1948-49 got under way, the Melrose High School curriculum was made more complete by the addition of a Spanish course, a language whose popularity increases as the years roll by.

It was introduced to us under the keen and fluent instruction of Mrs. Mildred Poston McCleave who came to us from Leath School. We were indeed proud to usher her into the Melrose family.

As we went along our merry way, in February there was organized within the classes a Spanish Club, "Las Espanoles Flores".

Our motto is "La ciencia es para el pobre riqueza, para el rico primor y para el anciano contento." This means, "Learning is wealth for the poor, ornament for the rich, and comfort for the aged."

The club is composed of Juniors and Seniors who were hungry for the enrichment of mind that such an association would bring. Officers of the club are: President, Gertrude Davis; Vice-President, Emma Jean Taylor; Secretary, Ophelia Dillard; Assistant Secretary, Robbie Holmes; Treasurer, Mavis Patten. Other members are Annie B. Allen, Delores Bradley, Ophelia Dillard, Lorece Gatewood, Marie West, Evelyn Sanders, Gertrude Echols, Bernyce Washington, Emma Jean Taylor, Shirley Harden, Doris Thomas, Gertrude Davis, William Johnson, Brannon Murcherson, Lucille Randolph, Corinne Johnson, Helen Wright and Mattie Godwin.

Aside from our regular routine work, we have learned Spanish dances, songs, poems, and plays. The whole school thrilled to the sound of the old familiar Christmas carol, "Silent Night" which we learned and sang in Spanish.

It is altogether fitting and proper that we of the Spanish classes express our deep and sincere appreciation to those who were responsible for this course being added to our curriculum.

It might well be hoped, also, that a knowledge of this language and an appreciation for the lives and customs of the millions of people all over the world who speak it, will bring about desirable attitudes of racial understanding among all people.

Y-TEENS

The Y-Teens began their year's work in October with the election of the following officers: President, Helen Wright; Vice-President, Gertrude Davis; Secretary, Ophelia Dillard; Assistant Secretary, Lillie Douglass; Treasurer, Cathryne Grayer. Our advisers are Mrs. G. V. Sharp and a newcomer to the Melrose faculty, Mrs. Doris Haynes who has kindly consented to co-advise the group.

The Y-Teens have grown so large in number that the group had to be divided. One section is made up of Juniors and Seniors and the other is made up of Sophomores and Freshmen. They are called, appropriately, Senior Y-Teens and Junior Y-Teens.

We count as one of our successes of the year the increased membership of the group. A large program is being planned for the entertainment of the veterans of Kennedy General Hospital. This summer we plan to send at least two girls to the Y-Teen convention that will convene in Kentucky.

THE MELODY GIRLS

This group was organized January 17, 1949. It is composed of eight girls of the Junior Class. They are: First Soprano, Mary O. Arnett and Hattie Brittenum; Second Soprano, Cleo Harris and Gloria Brannon; First Alto, Mary Griffin and Virginia Flynn; Second Alto, Gertrude Davis and Willie Beatrice Johnson.

We have appeared on a number of outstanding programs. We had the pleasure of singing two selections for the broadcast of the Cotton Makers Jubilect.

Under the supervision of Miss Viola P. Flowers, we intend to make the organization a most successful one.

7-4 HONOR STUDENTS

Our class is proud to name five students who remain on the Honor Roll most of the time. Some have been honor students since 3rd grade. One, Harper Brewer, is a newcomer. Shown on the picture are: Doris Allen, Joseph Terry, Ammie Wadlington, Harper Brewer, and Geraldine Campbell.

SENIOR GLEE CLUB

The Senior Glee Club was organized in October, 1948. The members are Mavis Patten, Etherline Wright, Ophelia Dillard, Sopranos; Thelma Dillard, Evelyn Sanders, Helen Wright, Altos; Dolores Bradley, Robbie Holmes and Pauline Roberts, Tenors.

We have enjoyed working together very much. Our music has been the highlight on programs throughout the city. We sang for the Red Cross program at Manassas High School, and at a program given by the Union Protective Assurance Company. We have sung in churches all over the city, and at the high schools. A measure of cheer has been brought to the sick people of our community by the songs of this group, for we considered it a privilege to go into the various homes and sing for those who were bedridden.

We are indeed fortunate to have as our director Miss Viola P. Flowers.

THE MINUET

The Senior Service Scouts were very pleasantly surprised when their dance, "The Minuet" was selected the best out of more than fifteen other dances and skits that were given at the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority's annual Jabberwock at the Municipal Auditorium. We received a handsome prize of fifty dollars. Since then the dance has been given at the Handy Theater in the Yuletide Revue for the benefit of the needy citizens of Memphis, at the Esquire Theater and the Girl Scout office where prominent scout leaders were entertained.

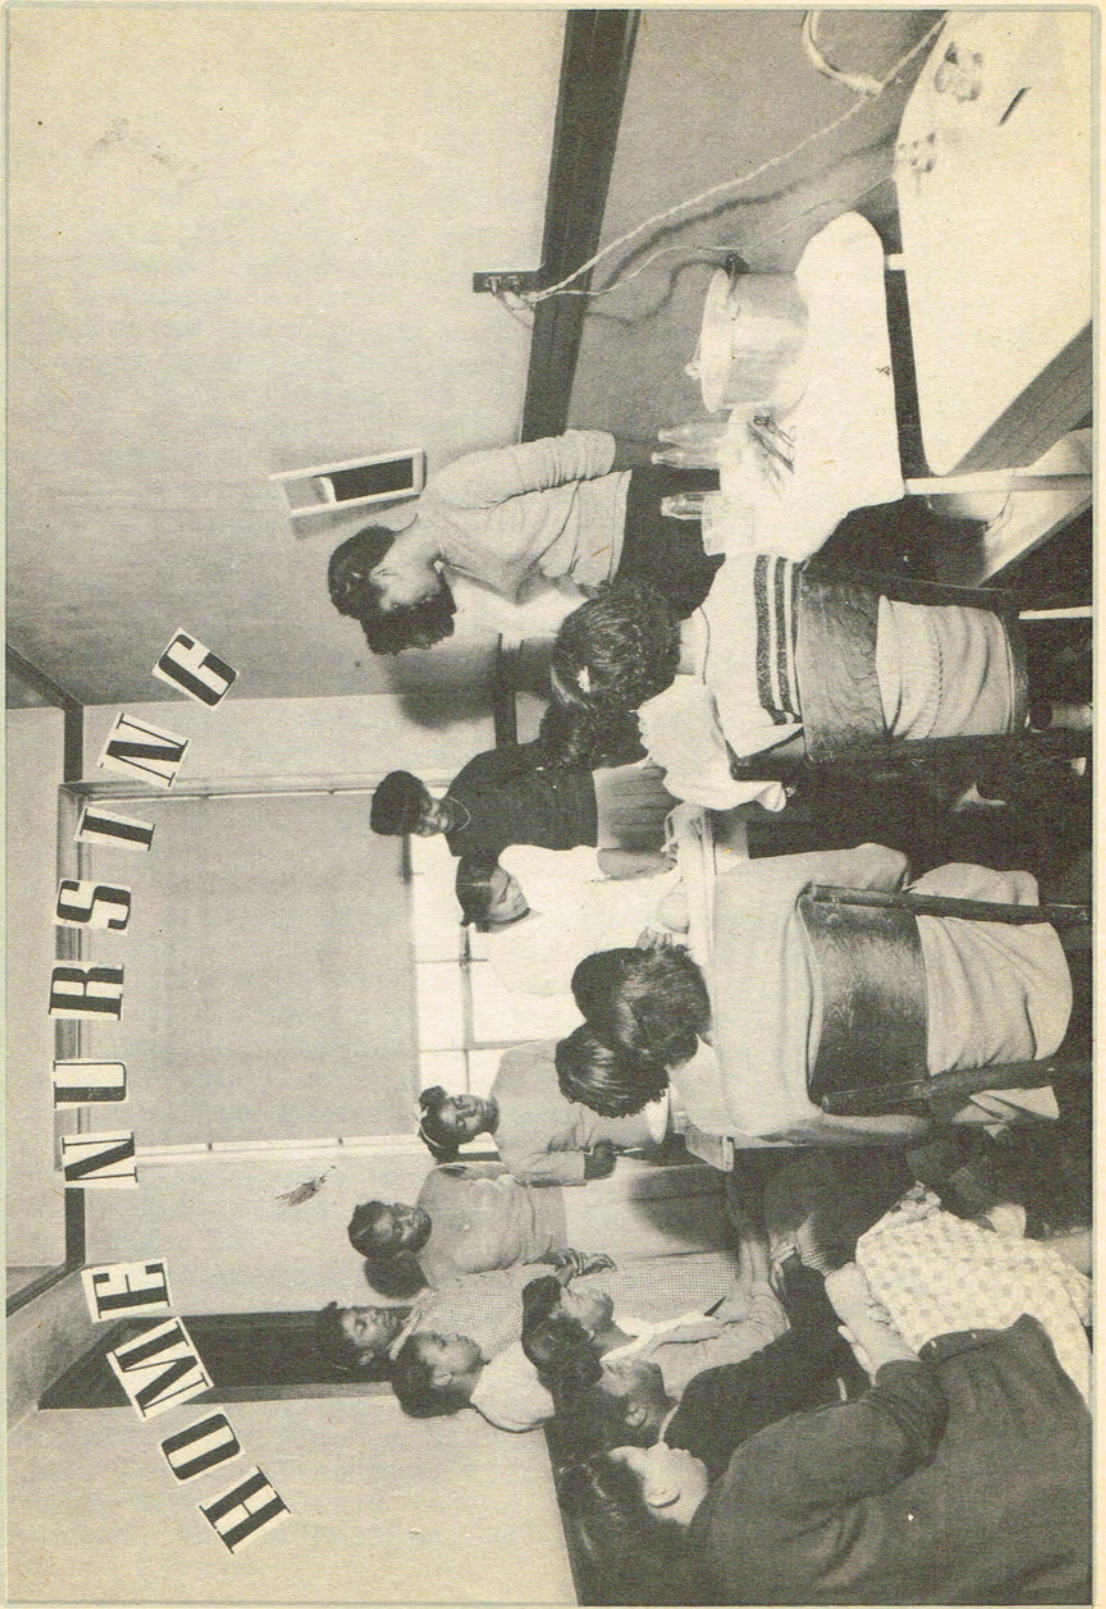

In our dance we carried out a sky blue and coral pink color scheme. Fourteen of the girls were dressed in colonial knee pants and frocktail coats. The remaining girls had on long full skirts with tight fitting bodices.

Mrs. Dorothy T. Graham, Mrs. M. P. McCleave, and Miss Georgie Rose Sylvers were kind enough to train and assist us through the dance.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL CHORUS

The Junior High School Chorus was organized February 10, 1949, by Mrs. Doris Haynes. Our first appearance was on the "Democracy in Action" program on February 31, 1949. We also appeared in the Open Air Vesper Service on Easter Sunday. The group liked singing over a microphone very much.

If we continue to practice and add to our repertoire we are certain that we shall develop into a worthwhile organization.

The culmination of the course was the Presentation ceremony at which the girls who had successfully completed the course were awarded pins and certificates.

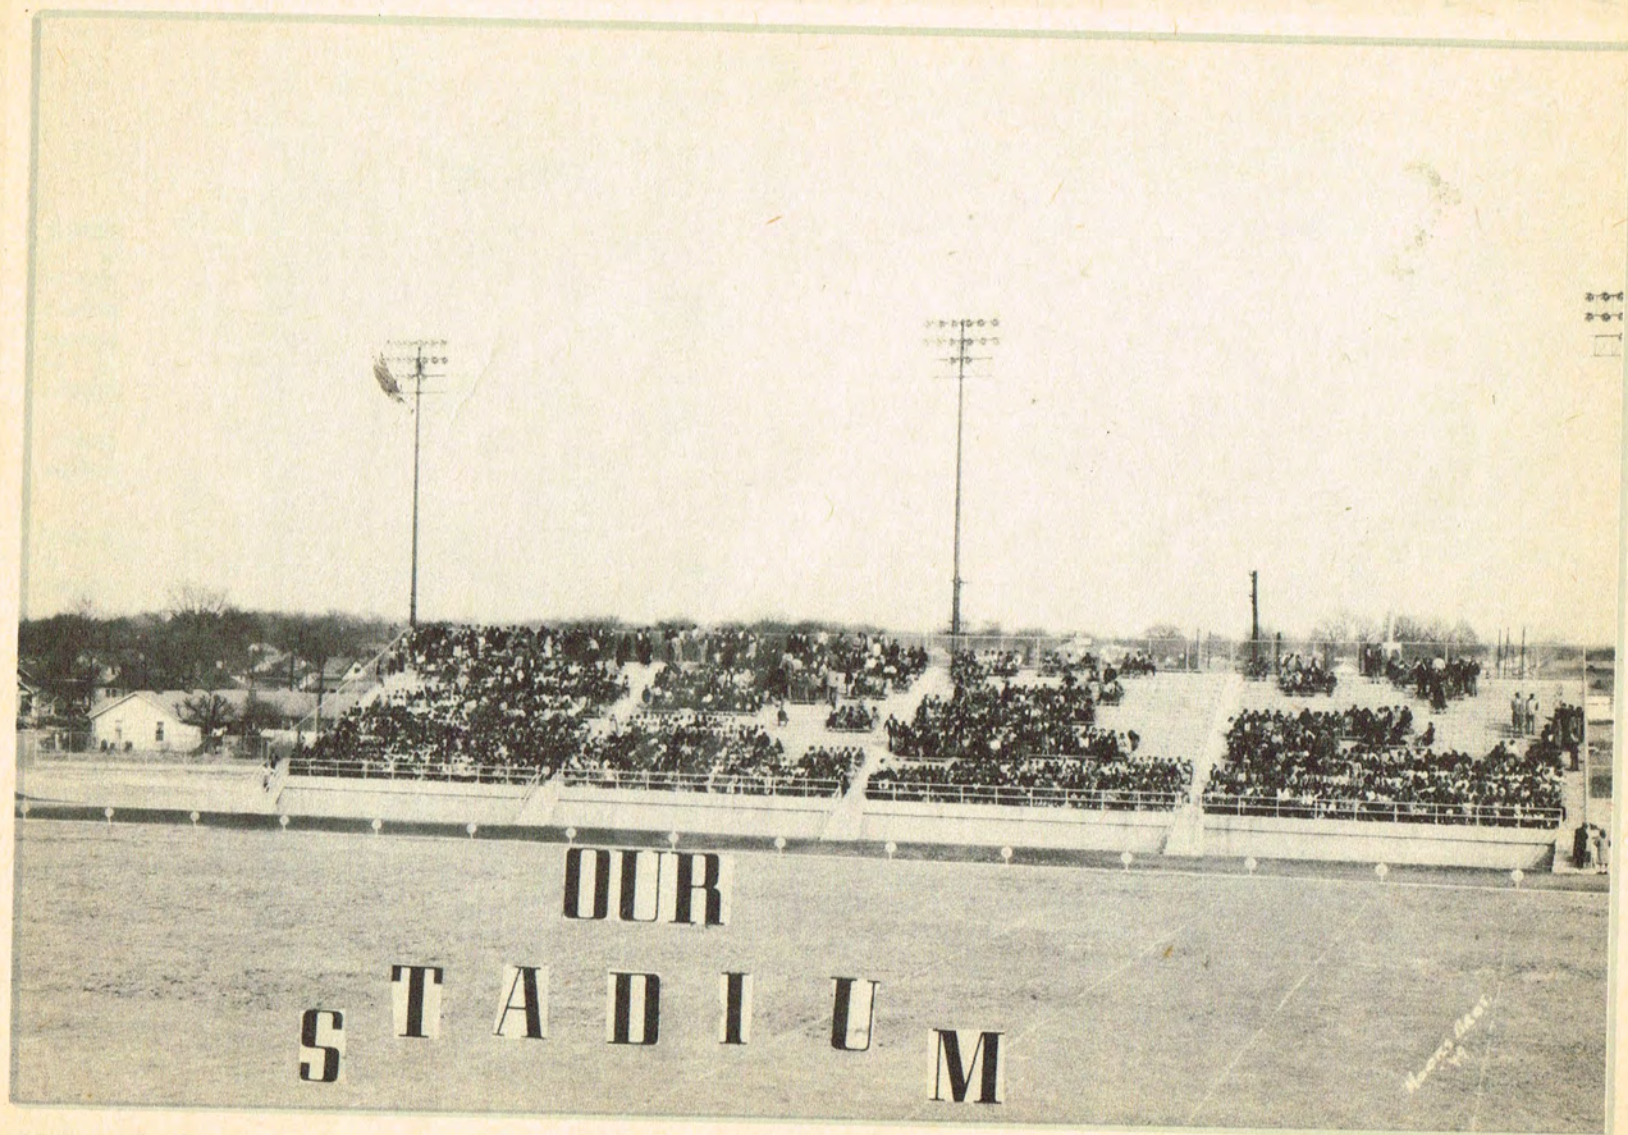

This program was held in the library on April 15th. Guests were Mrs. Royal A. Harrison and Mrs. George Rast. Mrs. Thompson acted as mistress of ceremonies.

SPORTS

Under the guidance of two of the leading coaches of the tri-state area, J. W. Westbrook and C. D. Goodlow, the Melrose Golden Wildcats looked forward to a victorious season.

On August 26, 1948, the team was organized for 1948-49. Fifty players were equipped for the season but after a few weeks of hard work this number began to decrease, thus at the end of the season there could be counted only 35 players. This season's football team was the heaviest in the history of the game at Melrose. The line averaged 175 pounds and the backfield 10 pounds less, which is heavy for high school gridirons.

Competition was overwhelming at the end of the season, thus the schedule read as follows:

Date	Opponent	Score
Sept. 26, 1948	Jonesboro, Arkansas	Postponed
Oct. 1	Jackson, Tennessee	13-9
Oct. 16	Vashon, St. Louis	27-31
Oct. 22	St. Augustine	0-12
Oct. 29	Douglas	26-0
Nov. 5	Hamilton	25-0
Nov. 12	Washington	12-14
Nov. 19	Manassas	0-12

December 10th marked the beginning of the Orange Mound Day Nursery bowl game, which is to be played every year for the benefit of the nursery. On this date Melrose was host to Corinth Yellow Jackets and defeated them by a score of 26 to 6.

The players for the year were: Ends; M. D. Young, Lawrence Bridgeforth, James A. Wallace, John Langston, Robert Harris and William Diltz; Tackles: Leander Spight (All-Memphis), William Johnson, James Wallace, Earnest Jackson, Kermia Beasley; Guards: Erskine Casey, Charles Bailey, John Williams, Maurice Miley, Joe T. Williams, Herbert Tate; Centers: Alvin Smith, Curtis Spillers, Leon Williams; Quarterbacks: Cortrell Jones, William Pernell, Selmo Jones, Calvin Grant; Halfbacks: Captain C. L. Wright, Co-Captain Edward Graves, Curtis Bridges, Lewis Hicks, George Cook, Leonard Ross; Fullbacks: Thomas Mills, Jeff Harvey, Charles Tatum.

BASKETBALL - Probably the best sport for developing mentally and physically fit men is this activity. To participate in this sport requires all of the vigorous characteristics that are needed in order to play other games. In all athletic endeavors played by students of Melrose, we appreciate the fact that each coach is more interested in developing clean-cut young men than in playing all winning games. For some optimistic reason we look forward to a better season next year. Here is the team: Centers: J. W. Wallace, Robert Harris, M. D. Young; Forwards: Ira Spillers, Selmo Jones, Cortrell Jones, T. W. Williams; Guards: Leander Spight, James Harris, Eldridge Mitchell, Roosevelt McKinney and Captain William V. Johnson.

TRACK - A new aim at Melrose has set a terrific pace in its beginning and encountered competitive results by winning second in the annual Tri-State Track Meet. This affair was held April 2, 1949 in the newly constructed Melrose Stadium.

On April 16, 1949, we journeyed to Nashville and took part in the state high school track meet. There we won third place. Each member of the track team has accomplished his position as follows:

William Ware (runner) 440 yds. relay, 880 yds. relay, 880 yds. medley, 100 yd. dash (10.3)

Melvin Churchville (runner) mile 5.2

Maurice Miley - shot put thrower

Earl Jackson - runner

James Wallace - runner
