Mr. James Duckworth

DEDICATION:

Mr. Duckworth

Teacher of English

A teacher affects eternity;
he can never tell
where his influence stops.
Henry Adams

The 2001-2002 school year marks the fifth year that Mr. James Duckworth has been an English teacher at Melrose High School. Although he has been a Golden Wildcat for a relatively short period of time, he has earned the respect and admiration of students and staff.

Mr. Duckworth received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Pittsburgh and a Master of Arts degree from the University of Memphis. In addition to being a talented writer and an avid reader of literature, Mr. Duckworth is a devoted father and a gifted musician.

The classroom, however, is not where Mr. Duckworth's influence begins and ends. He and Coach Horton are sponsors of the Melrose Chapter of International Males, Incorporated, a service-based organization .

When asked about his experiences at Melrose, Mr. Duckworth said, "The students, faculty, and staff have made these the absolute happiest years of my life. I am proud to be a part of the tradition that is Melrose High School."

In a kindred spirit of pride and humility, we dedicate the pages of the 2002 Golden Wildcat to an exemplary English teacher and mentor: Mr. James Duckworth.

From the Principal's Desk

Our Vision

In and out of the classrooms of Melrose High School, we envision a single basic outcome: Success for all students!

It is our vision that families and staff will– help one another; work together to enhance the student's education; nurture wholesome development; regularly exchange constructive input; collaborate to ensure that students are emotionally supported in their efforts; create and sustain partnerships that enhance student performance; and, establish connections that strengthen the involvement of families and community.

Principal LaVaughn Bridges

In addition to enhancing the home-school capacity, we also envision that students will– demonstrate a personal responsibility for their education; master effective reasoning and problem solving skills; accomplish high levels of learning; and, possess good communication/social skills.

The Melrose High School family is alive and well. As a school-home-community team, we will continue to hold high expectations for all of our students and prepare them for lifelong learning and civic/family responsibility.

LaVaughn Bridges

We should all be concerned about the future because we will have to spend the rest of our lives there.

From the Senior Class President:

In what seems a flash, the moments and experiences that we will cherish for a lifetime have passed before our very eyes. Throughout the journey of life, we will carry the tradition of Melrose with us: serving with pride and humility while striving to be the best amongst the best. With a determined mind and with God's blessings, we will "make you proud."

Should I Be Afraid?

As I watch the ways of this world,
I walk with my head to the sky.
In my hands lie strength; in my heart is pride;
and, in my soul is determination.

I have nothing to fear for my God is near to balance my life if I am weighed down, to catch my breath in case I may drown, to soak up the hurt and the drops of my tears - for my life is what He aims to steer.

Should I be afraid of what's coming to me?
All I have to do is drop to one knee and pray about the good and the bad;
pray about the happy and the sad;
pray about the many blessings I want to receive,
and pray about the blessings I know I need.

So, when you walk down a blank road,
don't be afraid for you've been told:
My life, your life, our lives are in God's plan;
they are in God's hold.
As you lift your eyes to the hills, every empty space shall be filled - for you have a friend right here in earth;
you should say AMEN for what He's worth.

The Time Has Come

The time has come to follow our dreams, to reach our goals, and face extremes - to trod the road of lifelong success, to go up against life's biggest tests.

The time has come to go out on our own, to face a world that is so well known - to overcome all obstacles in our way, and keep all advice to use another day.

The time has come to explore new things and endure the life the world may bring, to understand what was sacrificed for us and to always work hard and not to lust.

The time has come to work and not play because tomorrow is not promised - not even today.
Now is the time to make dreams come true - to remember that it is all up to you.

Now, we have the tools to be a success;
we need only remember to do our best.
. Never give up and always try.
Hold on to Christ who always draw nigh.

Food for Thought

All that we are is the result of what we have thought.
Buddha

Whatever one believes to be true either is true or becomes true in one's mind.
John C. Lilly

Because a thing seems difficult for you, do not think it is impossible for anyone to accomplish. But whatever is possible for another, believe that you, too, are capable of it.
Marcus Aurelius Antoninus

The difference between a successful person and others is not a lack of strength, not a lack of knowledge, but rather in a lack of will.

Pride is a personal commitment.
It is an attitude which separates excellence from mediocrity.
It is that ingredient which inspires us not go get ahead of others, but rather to get ahead of ourselves.

Every time you think you are not happy, say "I am happy."
Say it strongly to yourself, even if your feelings are contradictory.
Remember, it is your self-image and not you.
Just as fast as a fish can move in the water,
you can instantly change to a happy, balanced attitude.
Tarthang Tulku Tinpoche

Congratulations, Shinika Jenae Lanier!

January 20, 1984 was the happiest day of my life.
This was the day that my first child was born.
Your mother named you "Shinika Jenae."
It seemed like yesterday that I was buying you milk, pampers, clothes, and hard-bottom shoes.
Now that you are a high school graduate,
I pray to God that you go to college, finish,
and get the job of your choice.

I want you to know that I love you very much.
No matter where I am, you can always count on me.
I have helped support you since day one and I will continue to do so for the rest of my life, with the help of the good Lord.

Always remember, Shinika, that I love you very, very much.

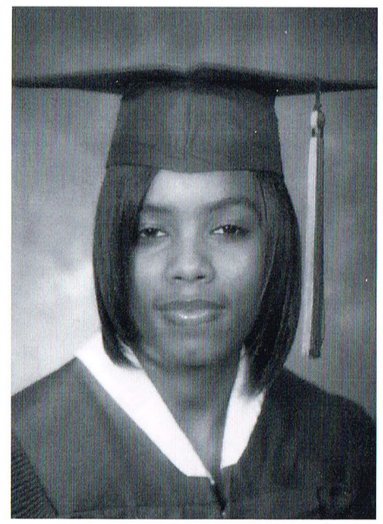
Your Father,
Calvin Earl Avant

Congratulations, LaWanda Fields!



We are so proud of you!

Today is the beginning of your future.
Continue to work hard and strive to achieve your goals.
We know that you have a great future ahead of you.

NEVER give up; and, don't forget:
Dreams must be accompanied by actions.

We love you.

Congratulations, Chunmeka Wayne!

We can proudly say that you have grown from a cute little girl into a beautiful young woman.

May you succeed in all of your endeavors and may God bless you forever and ever.

Love Always. . .

Congratulations, Shinika!

Shinika, I remember January 20, 1984 like it was yesterday. Your mother gave birth to a beautiful baby girl and we called her SHINIKA. A big, bright-eyed baby with a thick head of hair. Although you were a spoiled baby, you were still our sweet little Nika.

I hope and pray that you keep your head on straight and ask the Lord to lead you and guide in the right direction.

Shinika, you deserve nothing but the best. I want you to know that I love you and I'll always be willing to help you as long as I live.

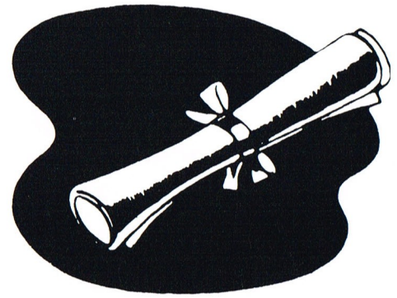
Congratulations, Jenae!



We met you when you were just three weeks old. I talked your mother into letting me keep you when she went back to work. We had the pleasure of being your babysitter from July of 1984 until September of 1989. My nickname for you was "Jenae;" and, to John your nickname was "Lil' Girl."

We love you so very much. Although we never had a child of our own, we thank God and your parents for letting us spend so much time with you. Well, here it is 2002 and you are still OUR SWEET BABY.

Remember, Jenae, that the Lord is your shepherd and He will supply all of your needs as long as you live. He will bless you abundantly if you love him as much as He loves you.

Shinika, continue to make the right decisions.

Pinky and JaJa,

Your Play Grandparents

Best of Luck, Shinika!

Shinika, you are my future physician. May God's glory continue to rest upon you.

I returned and saw under the sun that the race is not given to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

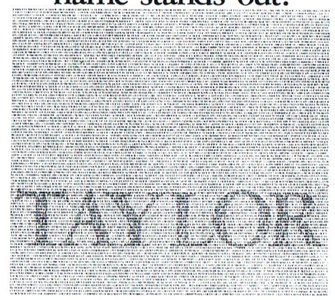
There are thousands of reasons our name stands out.



Our customers.

At Taylor, we didn't get to be the most important name in yearbooks by working alone.

We got there by listening to and learning from the people we serve. By sharing knowledge. Exchanging ideas. And by building on experience so that each yearbook we produce is better than the one that came before it.

For 50 years, we've built our reputation on this give and take. It's a way of doing business we think our customers deserve — and appreciate.

To be honest, we like it too. Because, through our customers, we've discovered a lot about ourselves — what we do well, how we can improve, and where the future of yearbooks is going.

So, although most people never notice our name printed on the back of their yearbooks, that's OK. There are more important ways to make a name for yourself.
