EVALUATING OUR SCHOOL

The Evaluating Committee met at Melrose High School on October 12th through 16th. This committee was sponsored by the Secondary Commission of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Their aim was, (1) To determine the characteristics of a good secondary school; (2) To find practical means and methods of evaluating the effectiveness of a school in terms of its philosophy and objectives; (3) To determine the means and processes by which a good school develops into a better one; (4) To devise ways by which a regional association can stimulate and assist schools in continuous growth. During the week, a very interesting chapel program was presented. We were highly commended on its unique presentation. We are deeply grateful to the committee for making this experience such a pleasant and informative one.

THE 1954 GOLDEN WILDCAT

MEMBERS OF THE VISITING COMMITTEE

MELROSE HIGH SCHOOL
Memphis, Tennessee

FOREWORD

The 1954 Golden Wildcat is designed to fill a two-fold purpose: Our first purpose is to present a panoramic picturesque sketch of our school activities during our senior year.

Our second purpose is to give a memento to those of us who are leaving our Alma Mater.

It is our sincere wish that this annual will be an exemplification of what may be attained through effective planning, diligence, cooperation and hard work.

Seated Left to Right

Miss Johnnye Black, Advisor of Spiritual Education; Mrs. Georgia Bumpus, Treasurer; Mrs. Mattie Suttles, Secretary; Mrs. Ona M. Hunt, President; Miss Odell M. Boswell, Ass't. Secretary; Mrs. Gladys Sharp, Parliamentarian; Miss Mavis Patten, Chairman of the Executive Committee; Mrs. Rozenia Pryor, Vice Pres. (Not Shown).

OBJECTIVE OF THE P.T.A.

To promote the welfare of children and youth in the home, school, church and community.

To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.
To raise the standards of home life.

To bring into closer relations, the home and school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child.

To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

The Melrose P.T.A. sponsors a yearly project which benefits the students. The Annual "Fair" in the spring is one of their outstanding features.

Parent - Teacher Prayer

Heavenly Father, Thou who art our Creator and our God, we thank Thee for all the blessings Thou hast bestowed upon us, and especially for the gifts of our children. We ask that Thou wilt endow us with wisdom and vision in nurturing our children. May we be Thine instrument to lead our children to a realization of thy power and Thy love.

Bless Thou our fellowship as we work for the children of our Lord. Lead us into steadfastness and faith toward the solution of the great problems that confront our world today. Consecrate us to Thy service and to the service of all children everywhere.

Amen

CLASS HISTORY

It was the school year 1950-51 on the first of September that a group of knowledge seekers started out in Melrose High School in search of that which would make for higher efficiency in life. This group consisted of 222 members of different interests; some looking forward to entering college; others, influenced by their wonderful skill, directed their efforts toward the industrial world. Side by side these amateurs, called green freshmen, labored.

During the freshmen year Doris Jackson and Margie Jones wrote essays that were edited in the National Prose Anthology of Secondary Schools; Frances Harris, Lillian Dandridge, Bertha Ford, Bobbie Holman, Jean Jones, John Folk, and Barbara Smith had poems published in the National Poetry Anthology Of High Schools; Monice Williams won second prize in the Courtesy and Better Conduct Essay Contest.

This freshmen class was under the supervision of Mesdames F. Bolden, M. Collier, D. Graham, M. Reid and D. Boddan.

The first year was very presumptuous but finally the members of class reached the spot when they were called Sophomores, the place of dignity and greater responsibilities. By this time the class learned they were intelligent, co-operative and had many students who were natural leaders. Doristine Thompson received third place in the Elks Oratorical Contest. They received sophomore guidance from Miss V. Flowers, Mrs. M. McCleave, Mr. M. Conley and Mr. T. Fletcher.

The junior class election was held under the supervision of Mrs. M. Reid, Miss V. Cummings and Mr. J. Westbrook. For leaders, the class chose James Ryans, president; Willie Jamerson, vice president; Bertha Ford, secretary; Rosetta Pernell, assistant secretary; Doris Jackson, treasurer.

Among the many honors bestowed upon members of this class were: membership into the National Honor Society; namely; Doris Jackson, Bertha Ford, Dorothy Truitt, Margie Jones, Lucille Ryan, Esker Harris, Bobby Mitchell Shirley Bolden, Monice Williams, Wilma Mosley and Harper Brewer. Monice Williams won the essay contest "What is Americanism?". Many students entered the Poetry Contest and those who won certificates were: Doris Jackson, Margie Jones, Lillian Mitchell, Dorothy Truitt and Shir-lene Allen.

To conclude the Junior year the class gave its Junior and Senior Prom, entitled "The Loveliest Night of the Year". The decorations were lovely as well as realistic.

Then at last the time had come when the class, 102 strong, adorned this golden institution of knowledge so highly esteemed in its lives, as Seniors. In its four years of trials, sorrows and successes, it has tried to accomplish and achieve things never accomplished by any other class and leave its name "Seniors of '53-54" as an undying memory of this institution.

Willie Jamerson, Bobbie Holman and Frances Pugh became members of the National Honor Society during the senior year. Bobbie Holman was the "Home-Coming-Queen" and Barbara Smith was one of her attendants. The class was very fortunate to have the 1953 State Championship Football Team with the following senior players: Roman Bates and Esker Harris, co-captains, William Ross, Norris Beasley, Jesse Wilburn, Robert Crawford, Warren Patten, Maurice Gardner, Joe L. Sharp, Bobbie Mitchell, Willie Jamerson and Sylvester Henry.

As the members of this group take their journey out into the world, they will meet with many obstacles, which will not discourage them. They will look back over the years and think of the unforgettable and excellent faculty. They can never forget three of the most considerate and affable members of our faculty staff who were chosen as our senior advisors, Mr. Cecil D. Goodlow, Mrs. G.V. Sharp and Miss V.T. Cummings. They can look from all points of view and truly say that this phase of education that they have just completed will serve as a guide to inspire them to go further in life.

CLASS PROPHECY

While walking down Lennox Avenue in Cleveland, Ohio, I passed Madam Tanto's office. I stopped in and saw the glorious outcome of our superior graduates by gazing into the crystal ball.

First, I visited the dream city of hollywood, California, where I met a dear friend, Joe Sharp, an owner of a large chain of restaurants. He carried me to an exclusive night club owned by Clarence Yarbrough and William Carter. Playing there nightly is Johnny London and his orchestra, featuring Shirley Bolden as vocalist. As I wandered over the great city, I met Gerald Holmes, a movie producer and Ulysses Truitt, the owner of a large radio station. They were producing a picture called "Blue Velvet", starring Bobbie Holman and co-starring Rosetta Pernell and Charles Young. The costumes were designed by Lucille Ryan, Martha Reeves and Christine Walker.

Arriving in Milwaukee I stopped by Roseman Cab Stand, owned by J.P. Roseman. He carried me to a medical institution founded by Dr. John Polk. He informed me that the city's leading newspaper is edited by James Moss. Some of his outstanding reporters are Hazel Wilks, Camille Brown and Gwendolyn McKissick. Robert Pugh and Charles Keel owns one of Milwaukee's largest banks, with Essie Brooks, Willie Ferguson and Morton Taylor as tellers.

Leaving Milwaukee and arriving in Chicago, I saw the world's most prominent dietician, Ora Bland. Cruising down the boulevard, I saw Carter's Dress Shop owned by Henry Carter. Some of his models were Mary Nelson, Thelma Doxey and Nedra Holmes. Across the street was Harper Brewer's suite of architectural offices. The talk of the town is about the All American football team, coached by Roman Bates, Robert Crawford and Jesse Wilburn.

My next stop was New York. I went to Mercy Hospital where Amy Wadlington is the head nurse. Some of the internes were Sammie Hathaway, Jimmy Scales and Manuel Jamerson. Shirley Douglass and Shirley King are pediatricians. Later I met Charles Langston and Sylvester Henry on their police beat. They directed me to Universal Hotel owned by Norris Beasley and Willie Jamerson. At the hotel I decided to watch television. I saw a very intellectual program that featured Frances Pugh, Doris Allen and Earl Stewart. Leaving the hotel I met Dorothy Truitt, an interior decorator, conversing with her lawyer, John Rucker.

Reaching Philadelphia, I stopped by the dancing school of Emma Brown. Some of her graceful dancing students were Jeanette Flemmings, Lillian Dandridge and Frances Harris. Armidia Todd and Cora Phinnessee are opera singers, their booking agent was Dorothy Harvey. Ernest Parker and Elree Saines, great boxers, were being interviewed by Dimple Burkins and Johnella Timberlake, who are well-known journalists. At William Ross' Museum I saw the beautiful picture of the Cowan Sisters, Mildred and Earline, painted by Doris Jackson.

In Pennsylvania I stopped by Bobby Mitchell's real estate office. His secretaries were Lucy Cursey and Bertha Ford. Wilma Mosley and Joan Bolton are having their houses designed by the wealthy architect, Maurice Gardner. Pennsylvania's largest drive-in movie is owned by Samuel Allen. His managers are Morton Webb and Chester Hawkins. Bessie Sharp is a cosmologist with all the modern equipment manufactured by Sylvester Rogers.

Going to Detroit I stopped by one of the largest churches, pastored by Rev. Joe Fields. Some of his dutiful deacons are James Grace and Charlie McKinney. Mary Morgan Shirlene Allen and Ercell Faulkner are the world's most exquisite hat designers. Bobbie Carpenter has just won the Nobel Prize for Literature. I went to Moore's Skating Rink owned by Clara Moore, booked there for a week's engagement were Magnolia Griffin and Lillian Mitchell, the world's skating champs.

Just as I reached Maryland, I saw a large crowd rushing into Amanda Battles Style Shop. I was informed that two of the world's most prominent scientists, Samuel Walker and Lula Murphy, had produced a runless stocking that is guaranteed to last fourteen months. They are manufactured by the Brown and Smith Manufacturing Company, owned by Lillian Brown and Barbara Smith. Working my way through the crowd, I saw the great social worker, Ruthie Martin, raising funds for a school for Crippled Children erected by Marie Rogers and Esker Harris.

When I boarded the plane I met the pilot, Warren Patten and the co-pilot, James Ryan. The charming stewardess was Jean Jones. After reaching my destination in the plane, Margie Jones, Monice Williams and Doristine Thompson, owners of American Airlines and thus owners of the plane in which I was riding, met me at their airport.

Well, the old crystal ball has become too dim and has concluded another journey of the Oriental Vagabond's preconception of the Senior Class of 1954.

CLASS WILL

We, the ninth senior class, being in perfect mental and physical health do hereby bequeath to the freshmen the endurance, fortitude and tenacity needed to struggle through four years of high school; to the sophomores the glory and honor of becoming true upperclassmen; to the school we leave our sincere thanks for the twelve years happily and profitably spent here. We bequeath our wishes for her steady growth that she may forever continue to guide the youth of our race to a fuller life. To the faculty we leave our gratitude for your patience, understanding and guidance. To the juniors we leave our most cherished possessions in the hope that they will use them wisely or if they cannot be used, we beg that they be passed on.

SPORT HISTORY

The 1953-54 Senior Class will always be proud to say, "We were the Champions." The Melrose Golden Wildcats had a firm determination to keep their last year's winning streak going and to win the city championship.

Coach Westbrook and his coaching staff, had a group of boys with football ability and stamina whom they taught the fundamentals of football and the importance of fair play.

The first game started with a boom! DYERSBURG ran right into the WILDCATS and was stopped 59-0. More drilling and hard work was done for the next game with TUPELO, as the challenger, who had the reputation of being one of the best teams in the midsouth. This game moved at a smooth pace with the WILDCATS coming out as the victor, 26-12.

The WILDCATS went berserk on HAMILTON and trounced them 40-0. Five days later they took DOUGLAS like a storm, trampling them 50-0.

After demolishing these teams, losing wasn't, in the least, on the WILDCATS' mind, they had their future opponents watching them with hatred.

Then came the former city champions of 1952, the MANASSAS TIGERS, whom we were awaiting and defeated 33-12.

The game with LANGSTON High of Hot Springs Arkansas, will long be remembered for they strongly convinced us that we were on the road to success. The Langston High team was undefeated and champions of ARKANSAS. The Game was on an even keel when the trojans pulled even with the extra point, 13-13, our winning touchdown was made in the last minute of play 19-13. This was a thriller.

Later came the THUNDERBOLTS of St. Augustine, who surprised the fans, by getting an early score, but the aggressive WILDCATS opened up and sent them home with a 45-6 loss.

The next game was our greatest victory and B. T. WASHINGTON'S biggest defeat in the history of Prep League Football, for this was the game which decided the CITY CHAMPIONSHIP for the GOLDEN WILDCATS. The team practiced with all they could give, listened attentively to their coaching staff and with skill and fair play, walked off the field with an easy 33-0 victory. This was the GAME we had been waiting for.

At the HOMECOMING GAME, a grand parade was witnessed by the citizens of Orange Mound, led by the magnificent Melrose High School Band. The Homecoming Queen, Miss Bobbie Holman, a senior, whose alternates, Miss Rose Keel, a junior, and Miss Barbara Smith, a senior, sparked the halftime activities. The Queen was crowned by co-captain of our football team, Roman Bates, while the band serenaded the occasion. With a half time score of 20-20, our opponents, VASHON High from St. Louis fought with everything they had, but the MIGHTY WILDCATS, determined to finish the season without a defeat, fought back and upended them by a 47-28 score.

Then come our big chance, MELROSE could win the district championship by defeating MERRY HIGH of Jackson Tenn., and go to Nashville to compete for the Tennessee State Championship. The WILDCATS' took MERRY High with a 32-12 score. This game also gave Melrose its FIFTH annual NURSERY BOWL VICTORY.

Two weeks later, after training strenuously, the Golden Wildcats journeyed to Nashville and played one of the toughest games of the season, defeating PEARL HIGH 19-7.

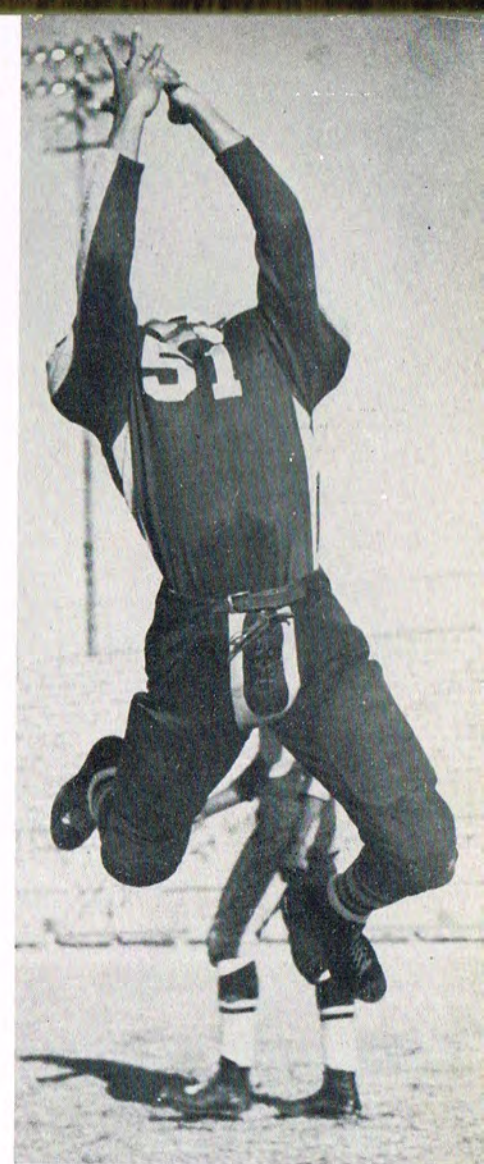

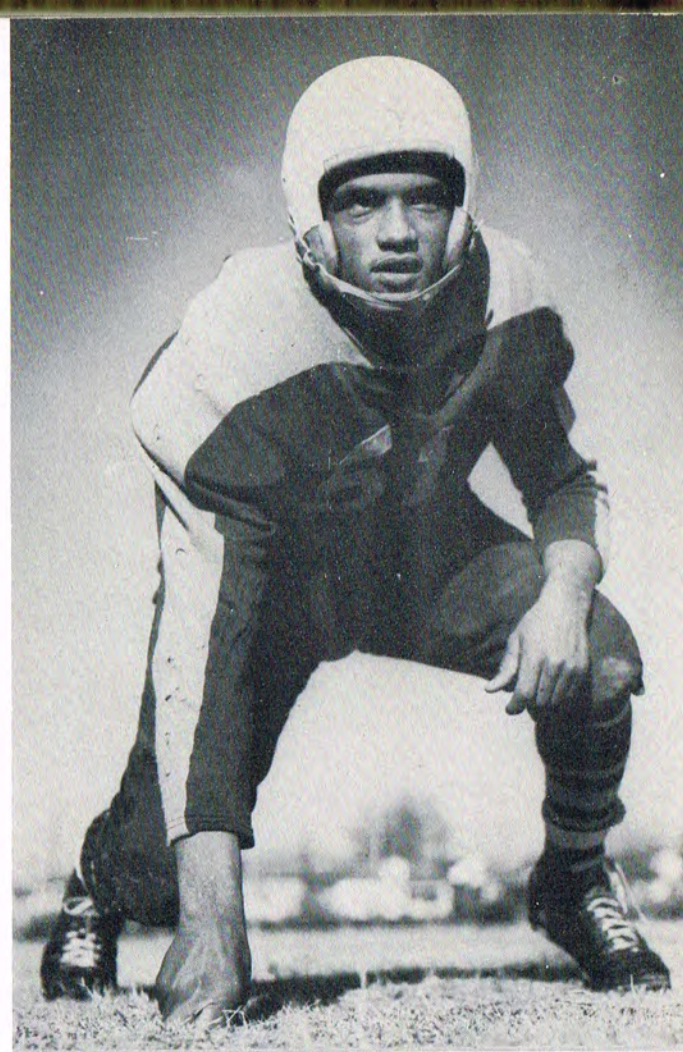

This meant that the GOLDEN WILDCATS had won the FIRST TENNESSEE SECONDARY ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION CHAMPIONSHIP. The boys and coaching staff were proud of each other to say nothing of the student body and faculty.
