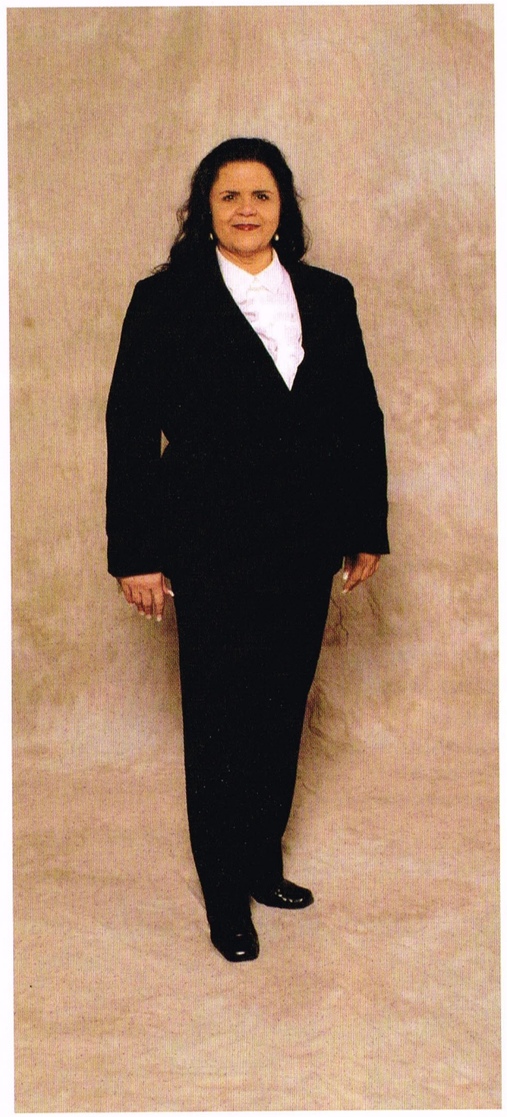
YEARBOOK DEDICATION

Mrs. Linda Kay Love



Mrs. Linda Kay Love

A Committed Teacher & Academic Coach

Mrs. Linda Kay Love "loves" teaching! She is very happy to be at Melrose and in the Orange Mound Community.

As a mathematics teacher, Mrs. Love has two major goals: 1) to help all of her students achieve a higher level of understanding; and, 2) to help her students discover the greatness that is within each of them.

Mrs. Love's positive spirit reinforces her expressed sentiments that the world would be a better place if there was no prejudice or hatred. She makes every effort to treat all students equally and with respect.

Originally from Louisiana, Mrs. Love has been teaching for 20 years. Prior assignments include private school, Fairley High, East High, and Raleigh-Egypt. In addition to her extensive mathematics credentials, she also has a Master's degree in African-American History. As a life-longer learner, she is currently pursuing a PhD.

Mrs. Love is the proud mother of three wonderful children -Brooklyn (26), Sydny (24), and Elijah (14). She also has three adorable grandchildren -Chyenne (8), Asia (7), and Tyler (4).

In the words of Mrs. Love, "God brought me to Melrose and I am thankful." With pride and humility, we dedicate the pages of the 2007 Golden Wildcat yearbook to Mrs. Linda Kay Love, a committed teacher and academic coach.

FROM THE CHIEF'S DESK

Principal LaVaughn Bridges

Zane Grey was once offered suggestions for success. I strongly encourage you to follow his lead.

Recipe for Greatness

To smile when tears are close;
To hate hate and to love love;
To fight the bitterness of defeat
and the weakness of grief;
To bear up under loss;
To be victor over anger;
To go on when it would seem good to die;
To resist disease and evil men
and base instincts; and,
To keep hope alive.
That is what any person can do,
and be great.

On behalf of the Melrose High School faculty and staff, we wish the Class of 2007 much success and greatness as they follow their dreams.

ALMA MATER

Dear Melrose High,
We love and cherish thee.
For e'er and e're, you'll hold our loyalty.
Oh, Melrose Dear,
your banners high are waving,
a symbol of our faith in thee.
Oh, Melrose Dear,
re-echo all your fame.
Your sons will keep your mem'ry a-flame.

MR. GOLDEN WILDCAT Parz Boyce, Jr.

MY CREED is to live as gently as I can;
To be, no matter where, a man;
To take what comes of good or ill
And cling to faith and honor still;
To do my best, and let that stand
The record of my brain and hand;
And then, should failure come to me,
Still work and hope for victory.

MISS GOLDEN WILDCAT Ashley Tolbert

MY CREED is to have no secret place wherein
I stoop unseen to shame or sin;
To be the same when I'm alone
As when my every deed is known;
To live undaunted, unafraid
Of any step that I have made;
To be without pretense or sham
Exactly what people think I am.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

by Karen Taylor

A Look Back

As the time comes to an end
I look back on the years
When I first walked into school
With my ninth grade freshman fears.

Being known as "fresh meat"
I started through the halls
Entering my classes
Listening to roll call.

Seeing all the seniors
Wishing that was me
Waiting for my year to come -
Where could '07 be?

Another year had come
And I was finally a sophomore
Two more years of entering
And exiting that Golden Wildcat door.

Meeting more and more teachers
Getting all the work
Learning more foreign language
Knowing words like dog and dirt.

Junior! Junior!
Was the next approaching name
Knowing I was too mature
To play those freshman and sophomore games.

One more year to go - I kept thinking in my head
We will run the show!
My fellow classmates said.

SENIOR! SENIOR! is what I am today
Walking down the halls, as underclassmen look in my face.

We're finally some seniors
It's almost like heaven.

Senior, Seniors... We made it!

Karen Taylor, Poet
Class of 2007

Each year, seniors are invited to submit entries for the Senior Class Poem Contest.

While all of this year's entries were noteworthy, Karen's poem more vividly articulated the "senioritis" that is routinely observed on a day-today basis.

We congratulate Karen and those -whose names are listed below- for their contributions. WRITE ON!

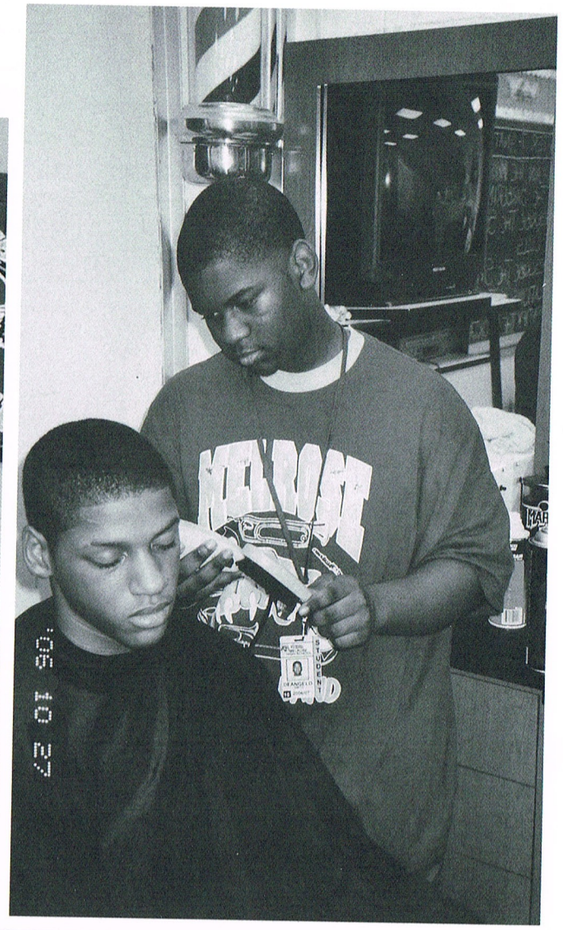
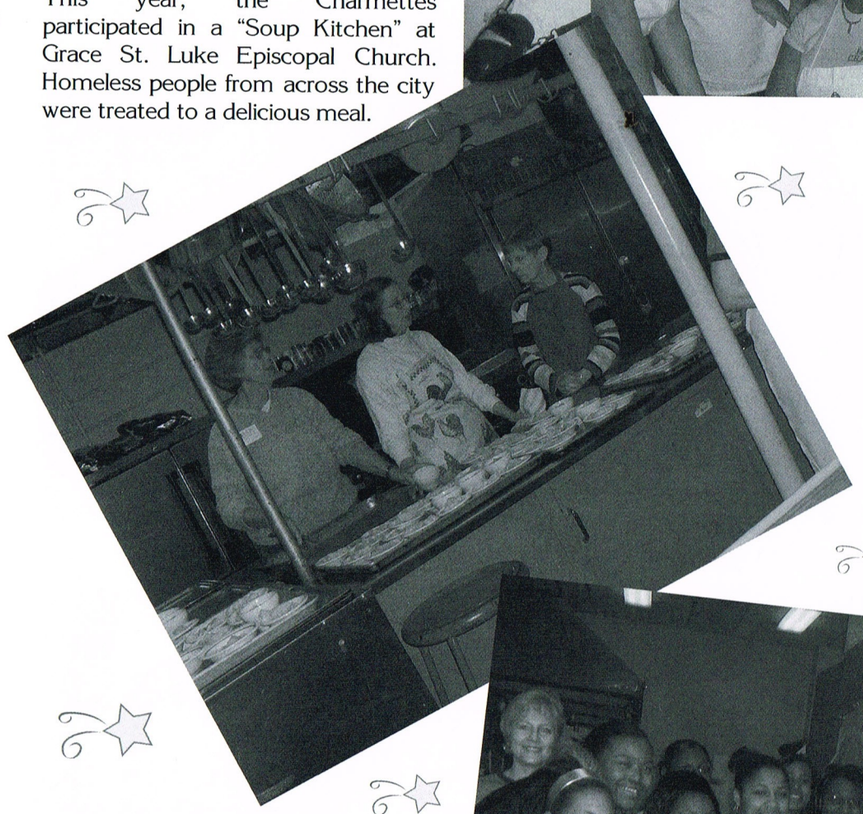
ORGANIZATIONS



CHARMETTES

The Charmettes is a student leadersip organization that cultivates high school girls into self-confident young ladies who understand the significance of sustaining lasting friendships, exhibiting servant leadership, and encouraging individual/collective achievement through academics and community service.

This year, the Charmettes participated in a "Soup Kitchen" at Grace St. Luke Episcopal Church. Homeless people from across the city were treated to a delicious meal.



The Charmettes and members of Grace St. Luke Episcopal Church served baked chicken, green beans with mixed vegetables, potatoes, bread, fruit, cake, lemonade, water, and/or coffee to the homeless. Although the Charmettes did not cook the food, they were an integral part of the process.

The Charmettes summarized their community service involvement by saying, "It was a wonderful and heart-touching experience. It made us realize how blessed we are."

During the months of November and December 2006, Mrs. Fisher's students collected "gently used" clothing to donate to charity. The students described their clothing by size and color in the target language of Spanish or French. The recipients of this year's clothing efforts were the Vietnam Veterans. Although students were only asked to bring one item, many students donated a bag full of clothing. Such generosity demonstrates the kindness and thoughtfulness of our student body at Melrose High School.

Love & Basketball — Tips for Success

Confidence. You must have confidence. You must believe in yourself if you expect others to believe in you.

Conditioning. You must practice physical, mental, and moral conditioning. Without proper conditioning in all areas, you will fall short of your potential.

Competitive Greatness. You must be at your best when your best is needed. It's enjoying the challenge when things become difficult, even very difficult.

Industriousness. You have to work and work hard. There is no substitute for hard work. Worthwhile things come from hard work and careful planning.

Enthusiasm. You must truly enjoy what you are doing. Your heart must be in it. Without enthusiasm, you can't work up to your full potential.

Skill. You have to know what you are doing and be able to do it quickly and properly. Skill means being able to execute all of your job, not just part of it.

Team Spirit. This means thinking of others. It means losing yourself in the group for the good of the group.

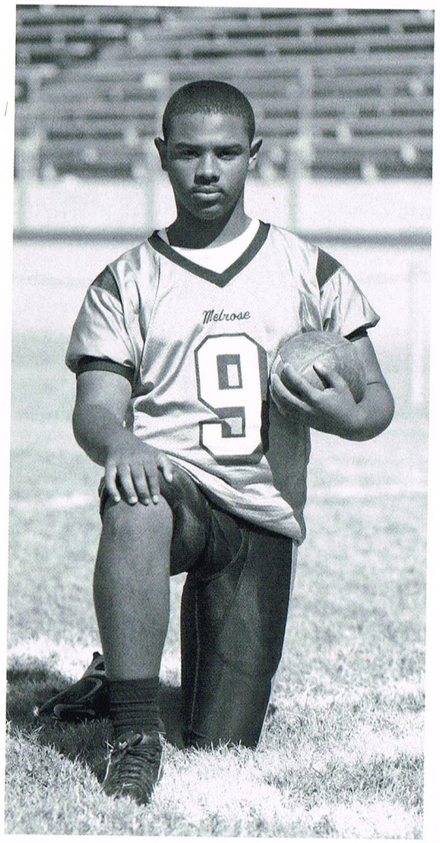
Rest In Peace

Christopher A.
"Chris"
"Pooh Bear"
Wilson, Jr.



Forever Loved
and Never Forgotten

Life is so hard at times
that dying seems like a crime

We were fellow classmates
each fall
but dying ends it all

I remember how we would laugh and play
but we can't do it now,
because you're not here today

Your smile was as bright as ever
How could such a good person die
Was it due to the weather

I enjoyed having you as a friend
It's so sad it had to come to an end

I liked playing fight games with you
Even though you would double-team me with one against two

I will see you again one day
among the Son
So rest in peace,
God's young one.

XOXO

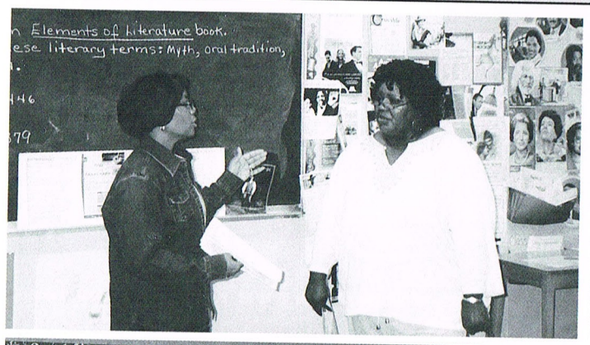
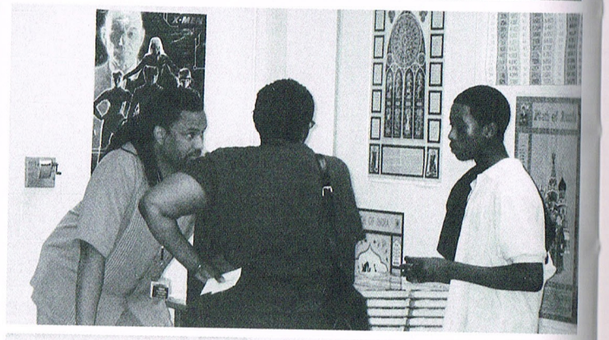
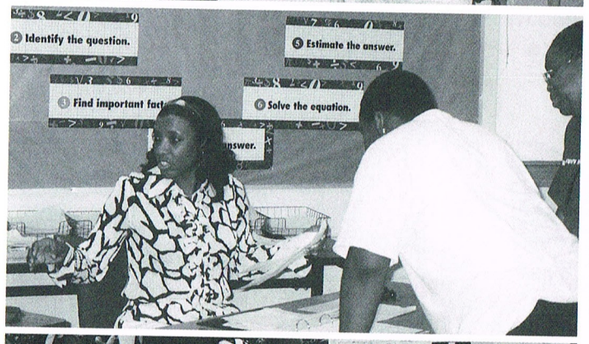
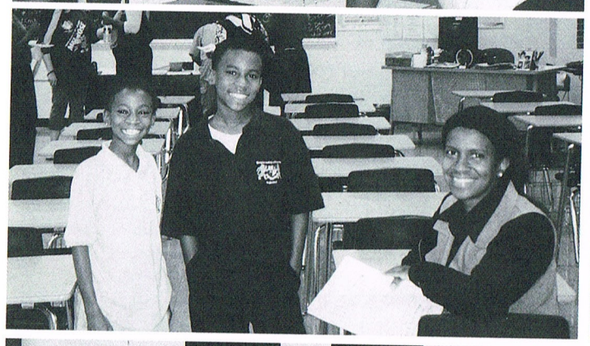
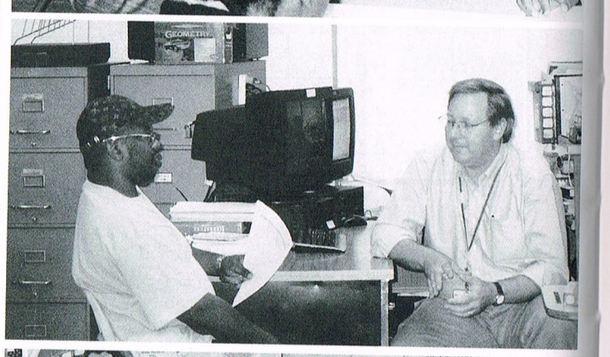
FAMILY: OUR EDUCATIONAL HOOK-UP!











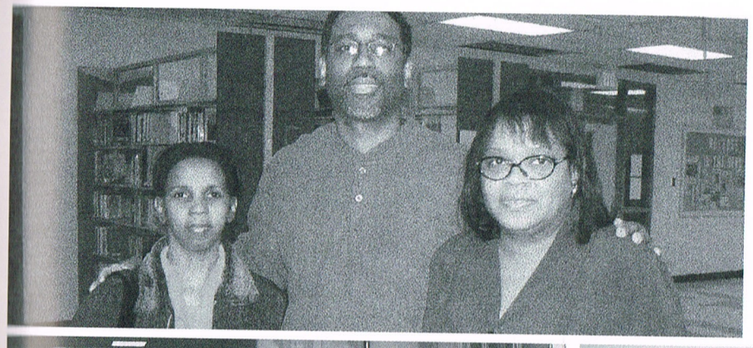
We believe that parents should share the responsibility for the support of the school's mission.

MELROSE HIGH SCHOOL: No Child Will Be Left Behind

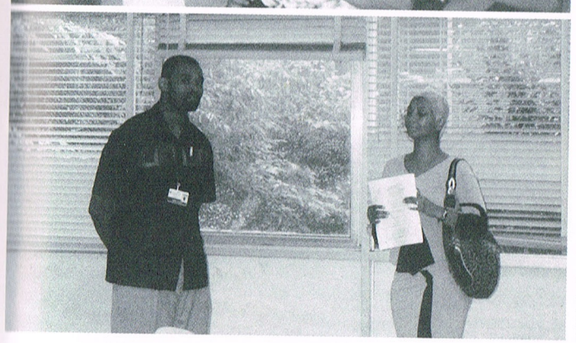
Melrose High School has one fundamental mission: to encourage lifelong learning. With the help of parents and community members, Melrose High School prepares students to meet the competitive challenges of the 21st century.

Through instructional improvements, supplemental services are provided to all students. These improvements are designed to enable students to achieve at higher levels. MCS does not discriminate in its programs or employment on the basis of race, color, national origin, handicap, disability, sex, or age.

Parents, teachers, staff, and students participate in NCLB activities throughout the school year. Our capable and energetic NCLB facilitator is Mrs. Lillian Johnson.



Our Parent-Teacher-Student Association president, Mr. Michael Carter, Sr., and Mrs. Lillian Johnson, Instructional Facilitator, share a moment with one of our senior parents.



As a team, teachers and parents can and will continue to make a difference in the lives of Melrose High School students.

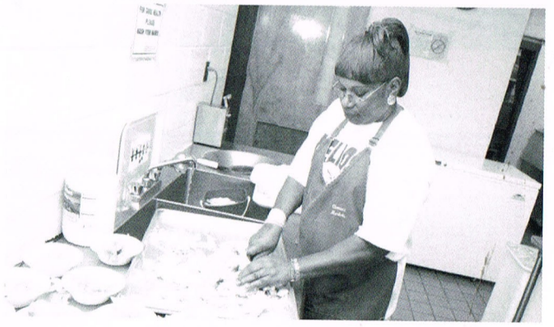
A Salute to Our Nutritional Staff

BEFORE we begin thinking about coming to school, the Nutritional Staff is on the j-o-b. From early morning breakfast to the end of our third lunch cycle and beyond, members of our Nutritional Staff are contributing to the development and progress of all Melrose High School students.

Our dedicated manager, Mrs. Eleanor Elkins, takes pride in each meal and its preparation. Under her supervision, scrumptuous and balanced meals are served in a clean and attractive environment. In fact, Melrose High School is known across the city as one of the best schools to have lunch.

Thanks to you, Mrs. Elkins and staff, for the professionalism and finesse that is placed in each morsel.

Mrs. Elkins, Manager



Our Nutritional Services Staff: We appreciate all that you do.

William Alexander "Professor" Link

WILLIAM ALEXANDER LINK, born on a farm in Haywood County in 1872, earned a degree from Fisk University and a degree in education from Northwestern in Evanston, Illinois.

He came to Memphis in 1910 and taught at Kortrecht School. He was named principal of Melrose and later of Hyde Park School. "Professor Link," as he was called, died in 1948.

Jennie Paca Graham

JENNIE PACA GRAHAM, was the daughter of Dr. Paca Wilson and Mrs. Chancy Wilson of Brownsville, Tennessee. She was the great-granddaughter of William Paca, a signer of the Declaration of Independence.

Mrs. Graham had a pioneering spirit. She was the first teacher for the Colored Children's School. She also launched the first Milk Fund in Memphis for Colored Children. She was instrumental in bringing the first National Conference of Social Work for Colored People to Memphis (1928). Her efforts also helped organize the Big Brother and Big Sister Organization and Memphis Community Center for Colored People.

For several years, Mrs. Graham taught in Shelby County. She was also the principal of Melrose School. She organized the school's first P.T.A. and was instrumental in selecting and raising the first monies paid toward the purchase of the Dallas Street site.

Mrs. Graham died in 1960. She is the great-grandmother of Ms. Jacqueline Graham, who currently teaches English at Melrose High School.

THE THREE RULES FOR SUCCESS IN SPORTS

Rule #1: Do the best you can with what you have.

Rule #2: Do the best you can with what you have.

Rule #3: Do the best you can with what you have.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Dr. Joseph Wilson Westbrook, III was a loyal and dedicated educator at Melrose High School, where he taught physics and chemistry; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Joseph Wilson Westbrook, III was the coach who inspired other coaches by his championship legacy and attitude in football, basketball, and track; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Joseph Wilson Westbrook, III was the first African-American educator to be appointed to a district-level position in the Memphis City Schools and the first African-American president of the Tennessee Education Association; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Joseph Wilson Westbrook, III was a leader, a visionary, a mentor, a role model, and a positive influence in the lives of countless men, women, boys, and girls; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Joseph Wilson Westbrook, III established a scholarship fund to assist Melrose High School graduates who are interested in attending LeMoyne-Owen College:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LAVAUGHN BRIDGES, principal of Melrose High School, and on behalf of the Melrose High School family, do hereby proclaim Friday, January 19, 2007, as DR. JOSEPH WILSON WESTBROOK, III DAY at Melrose High School and furthermore call upon citizens of Orange Mound to observe this day and join us at our Fall Athletic Program which will honor Dr. Westbrook on this day. We also dedicate our 2007-2008 football season in honor of DR. JOSEPH WILSON WESTBROOK, III.

LaVaughn Bridges
Principal, Melrose High School

Dr. Joseph Westbrook:
A Visionary and Pillar of Melrose High School and the Orange Mound Community

Senior basketball players, cheerleaders, and dancers were recognized.
Family members were present to applaud their contributions and wish them success in their future endeavors.

Never do anything to compromise your integrity.
Anything worth achieving is worth an honorable and honest effort.
There are no short cuts to becoming a champion.
You will never take any trophies or medals with you when you leave this life, but your character will be with you always.
Be true to yourself, and keep in perspective the fact that even if you can't be the world's best athlete in your chosen sport every day...
you can be your best person every day.

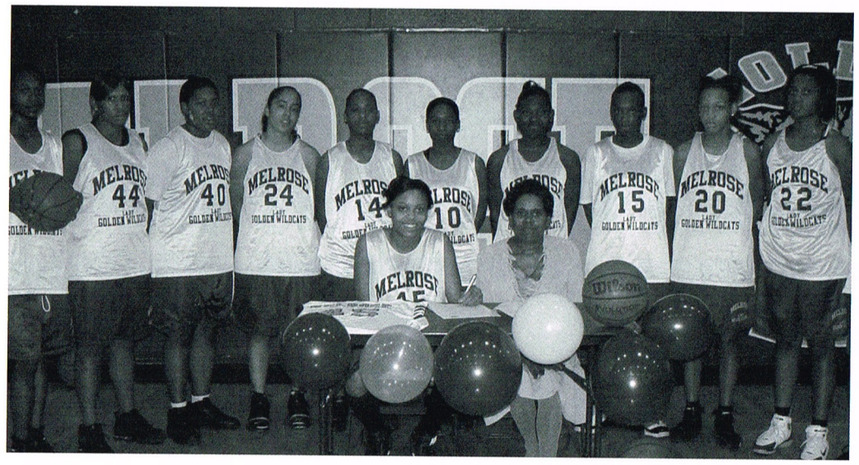
Basketball standout Tanjala Wynn signs her name on the dotted line for a basketball scholarship to Murry State University in Murray, Kentucky.
In addition to applying her skills on the court, she plans to major in Communications.
You go, girl!



Success will come to those who wait,
as long as they work while they wait.

Austin Howell and Shaney Lett are 2007 Governor's School Alternates.
Austin is interested in studying Classical Vocal Music at Middle Tennessee State University.
Shaney is interested in IT Leadership at Tennessee Technology Institute.

Did YOU KNOW?

Christopher Nash and Alondra Hunt were Melrose High School's D.A.R.E. representatives.
D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) is an MCS component that is designed to help students lead healthy and productive lifestyles.

Chelsi Bullard
was a 2006 prep school student.
Chelsi attended Phillips Exeter in New Hampshire. The follow-up documentation indicated that Chelsi was an outstanding student with unlimited potential for success.

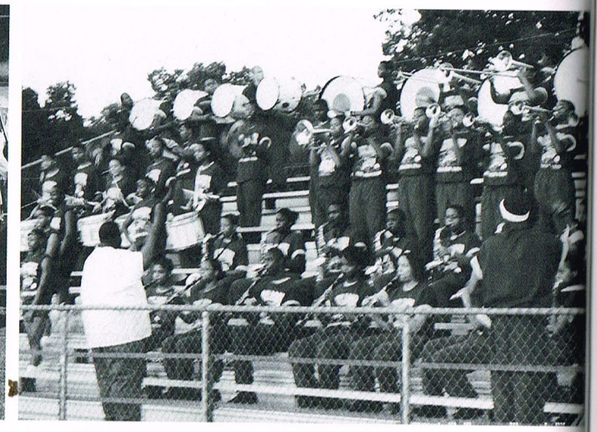
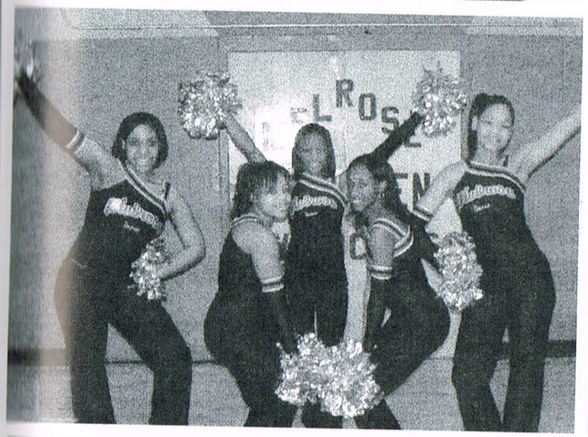
GOLDEN WILDCAT BAND _____ PRACTICE MAKES YOU G-O-O-D!

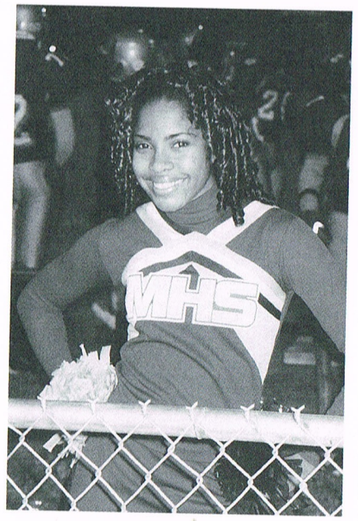


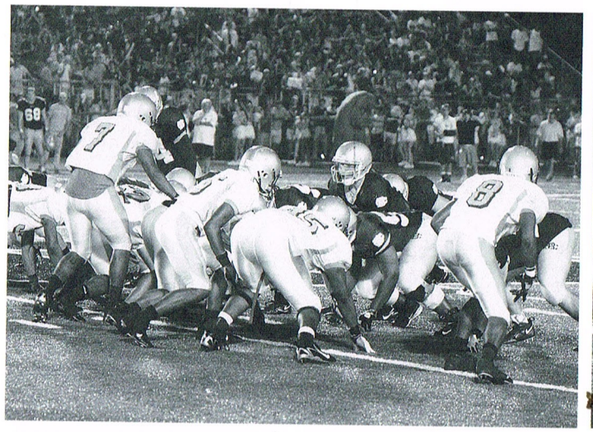
The Melrose High School Band was invited to participate in the Dr. Seuss Birthday and Reading Celebration at the Memphis-Shelby County Library on March 2, 2007.

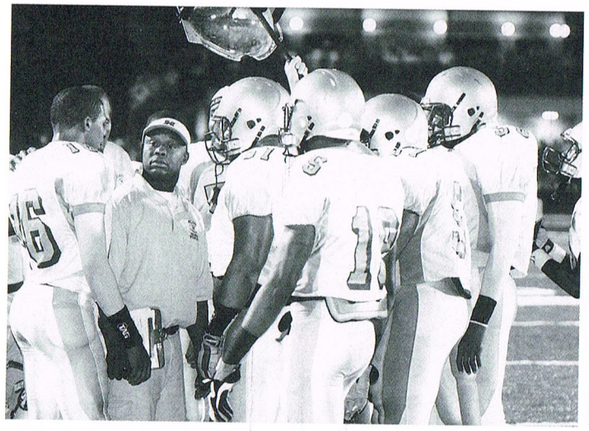
CHEERLEADERS * DANCERS _____ MELROSE: OUR SCHOOL OF CHOICE!

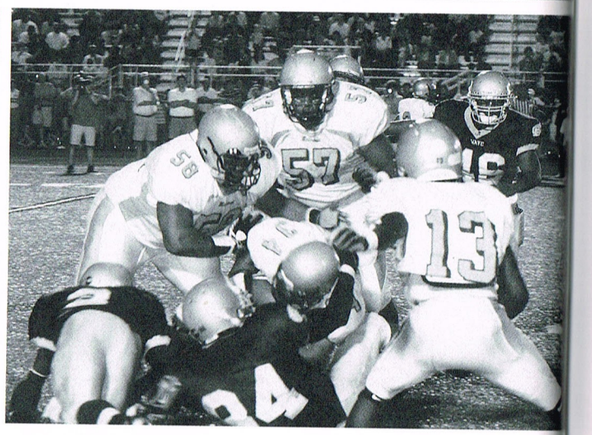


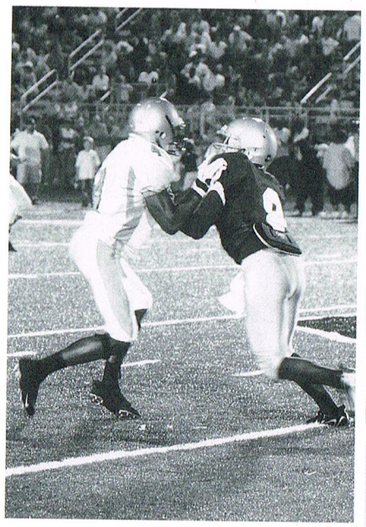
Mr. Broadway,
The band is on the other page.
You are "misdirected."
(Get it: mis-DIRECTed)







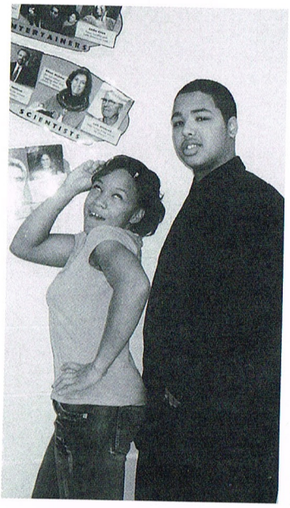


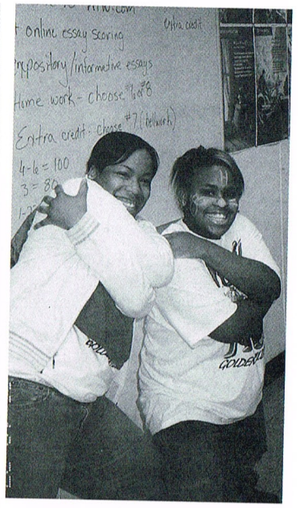


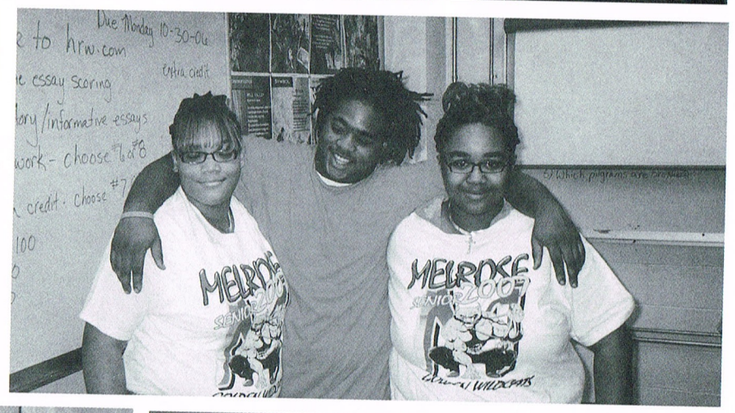
Defensive Coach Matthews emphasizes the need to stay focused and play the game like the champions you are.

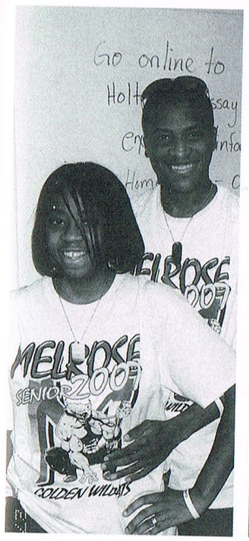
SENIORITIS!

I will remember the time...









You have everything you need to achieve your goals.

Like Nike said, "Just do it!"

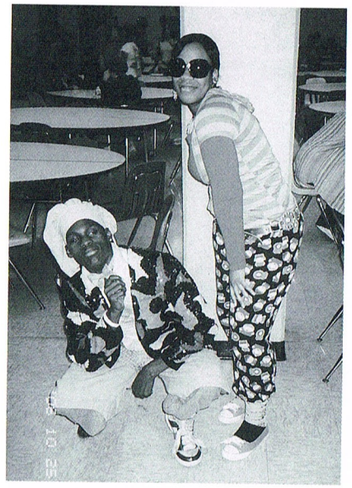
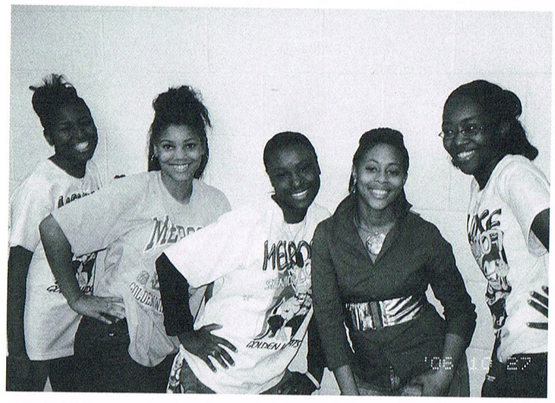
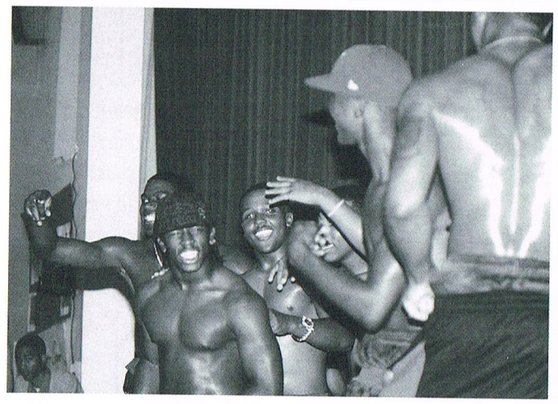
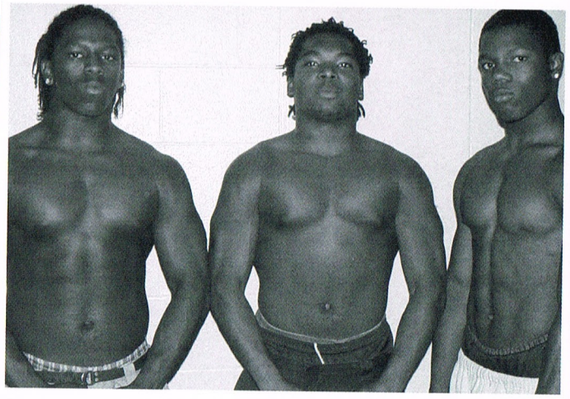
SENIORITIS!

I will remember the time...

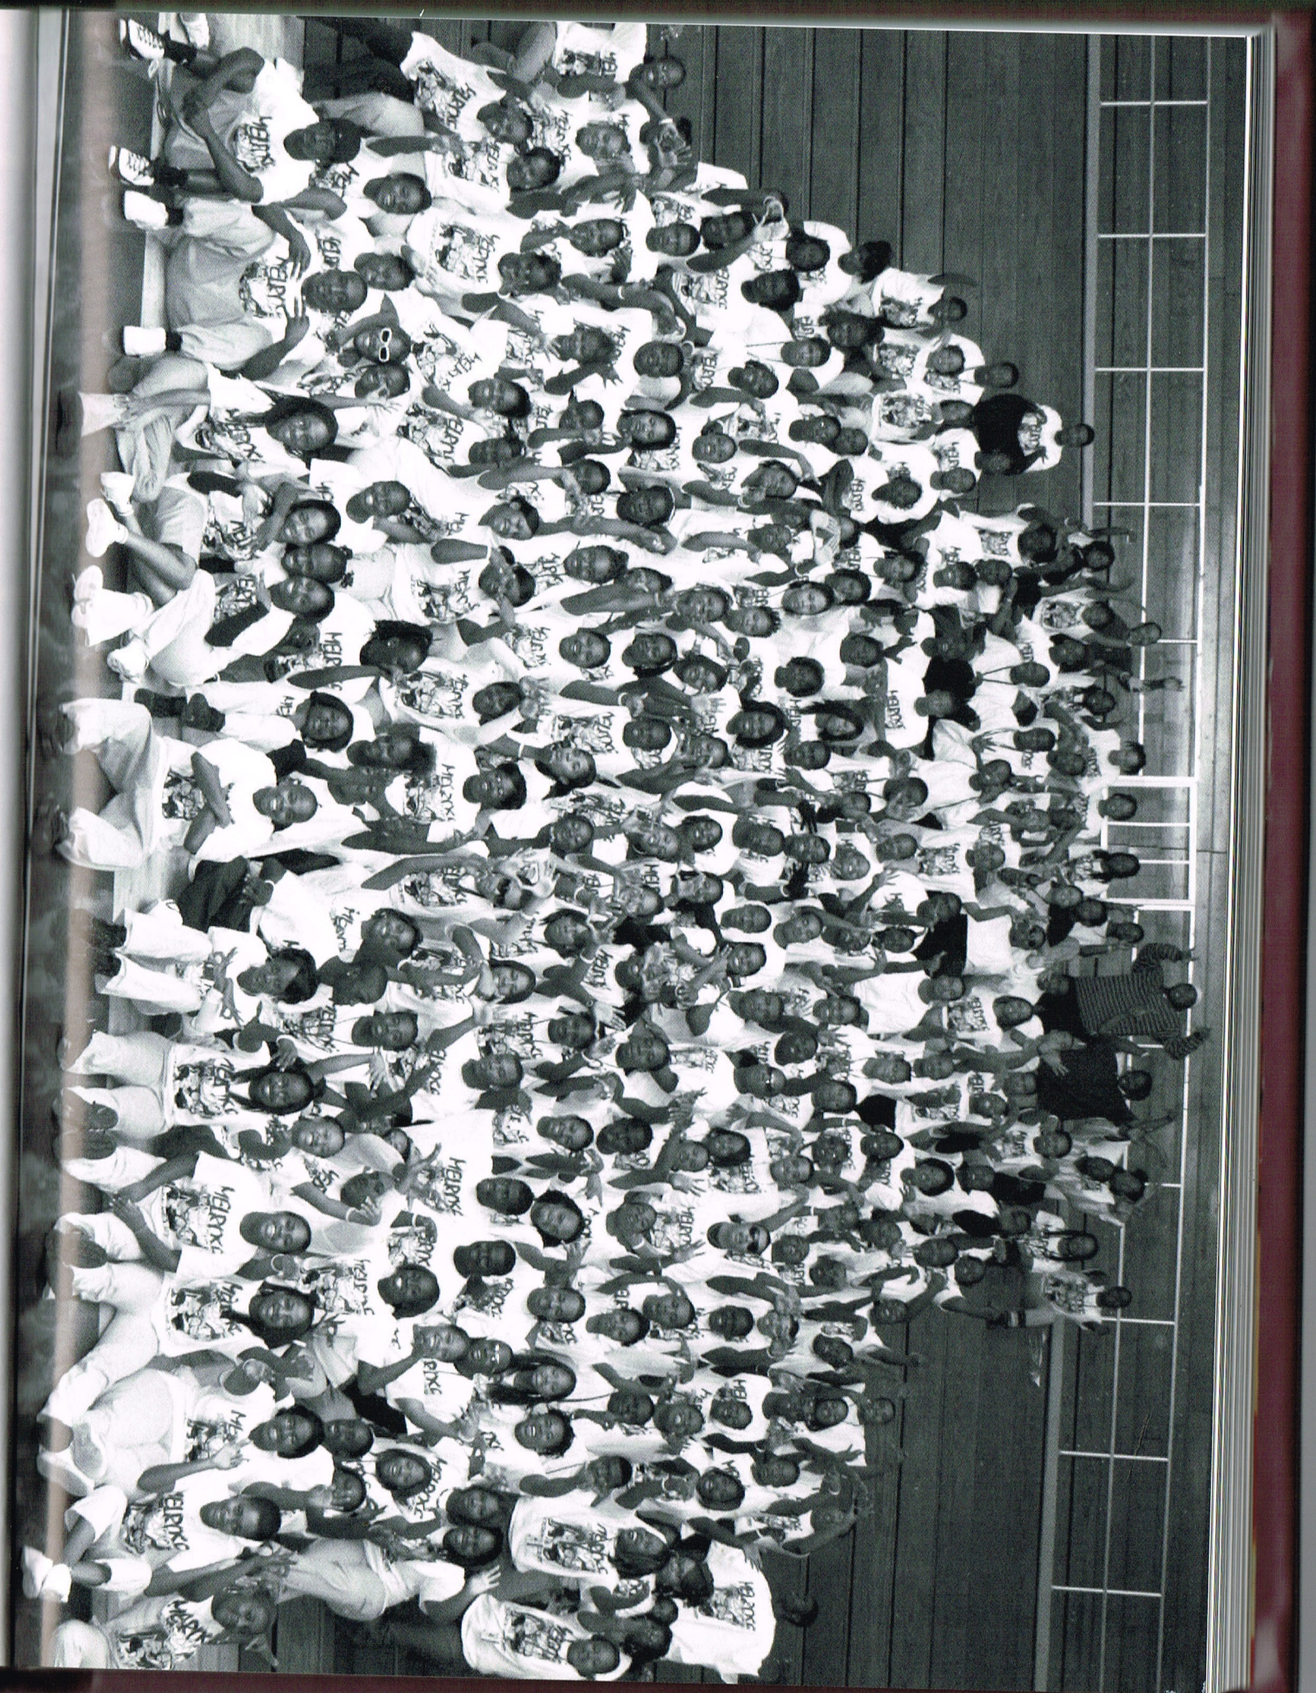








Our scholarly male student-athletes love to showcase the agility, dexterity, and conditioning they have achieved as a result of strenuous, diligent, and intensive physical and mental training. You go, guys!



I'm Determined To Be Somebody, Someday

The present conditions and dark circumstance
May make it appear that I have not a chance;
The odds may be against me, this fact I admit,
I haven't much to boast of just a little faith and grit;
In spite of the things that stand in my way,
I'M DETERMINED TO BE SOMEBODY, SOMEDAY.

There's no royal blood a'coursing in my veins,
No great family background for me remains;
I haven't had a chance as others have had,
My living conditions have been kind'a bad;
But, it makes no difference what folks think or say,
I'M DETERMINED TO BE SOMEBODY, SOMEDAY.

Some may think that I have made a poor start,
Well, may be I have but I'll handle that part;
At the end of each round I'll be on my feet,
For there's something in me that's hard to beat;
The fight may be tough, but I'm in it to stay,
For, I'M DETERMINED TO BE SOMEBODY, SOMEDAY.

There's really somewhere I would like to go,
There's truly some things that I would like to know;
There's certainly some things that I'd like to see,
And something special I'd like to be;
Let others do as they will or may,
But, as for me, I'VE JUST GOT TO BE SOMEBODY, SOMEDAY.

As a member of a once down-trodden race,
To the courts of Heaven, I've appealed my case;
I know that Jehovah is the judge on the bench,
Though men may curse, deride and lynch;
My blood will cry from the ground and say,
"Though you slay me, I'LL BE SOMEBODY, SOMEDAY!"

My head may be bloody and my skin may be black,
But nothing shall throw me off the track;
I'll climb the ladder, round by round,
Until my feet strike higher ground;
And when I do, just remember what I say,
I'M DETERMINED TO BE SOMEBODY, SOMEDAY.

Follow
your dream.

Dreams
by
Langston Hughes

Hold fast to dreams
For if dreams die
Life is a broken-winged bird
That cannot fly.

Hold fast to dreams
For when dreams go
Life is a barren field
Frozen with snow.

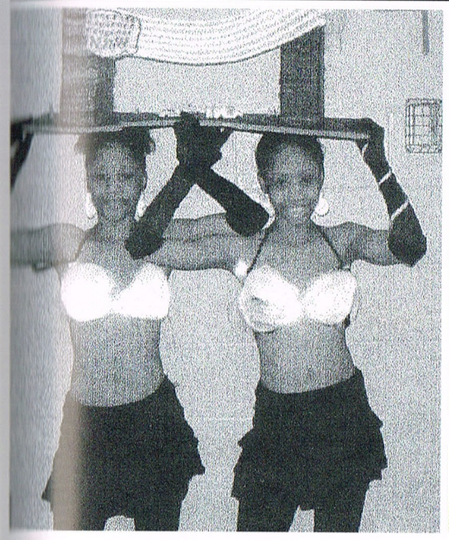
Volleyball standout Rachel Walton signs her name on the dotted line as her new coach (standing) and mother (seated) witness this inaugural event.

By accepting this all-expense paid scholarship to Crichton College in Memphis, Tennessee, Rachel becomes THE FIRST Melrose High School graduate to receive a volleyball scholarship.

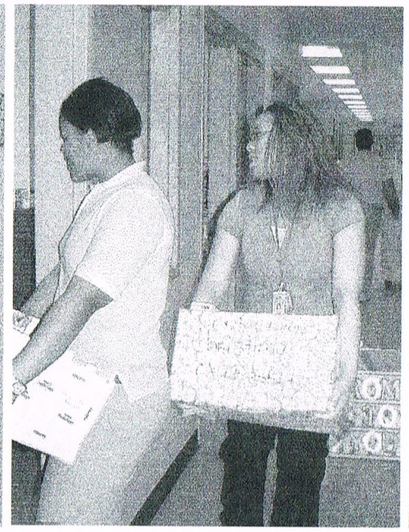
You go, girl!

Rachel and her mother share the joy with members of the renown Melrose High School Volleyball Coaching Staff, Coach Angela Long and Coach Reginald Johnson.

If it is to be, it is up to me.



Participants in the 2007 City-Wide Hair Show Competition dazzled the audience.



Boxes of food were donated for our brothers and sisters in need.

On your mark. Get set. Go-ne to graduate this year.

Think about it: There was a time in the history of the United States when people of color (Negroes, African-Americans, Blacks) were forbidden to read or to learn how to read. It was a law - official and enforced! If such credence is given to this seemingly simple activity, PERHAPS its value is immense and should be done A LOT! Reading IS fundamental.

LIFE LESSONS

The journey of a thousand miles begins with one step.

We cannot tell what may happen to us in the strange medley of life.
But we can decide what happens in us
–how we take it, what we do with it– and that is what really counts in the end.
How to take the raw stuff of life and make it a thing of worth and beauty –that is the test of living.

The marksman hits the target partly by pulling, partly by letting go.
The boatsman reaches the landing partly b pulling, partly by letting to.

Courage is the power of being mastered by and possessed with an idea.

What is COOL?

as defined by the GOLDEN WILDCAT COOL COMMITTEE

COOL is respecting self and others.

COOL is knowing, showing, and going that extra mile.

COOL is graduating from high school and doing something positive with your life.

The personification of "cool" is demonstrated by three of our coolest Golden Wildcats - Emilio, Erika, and Patrick.

TO MISS

SCHEHERAZARDE

MICHELLE

RODDIE, JUNIOR

You are a very special part of my Life. You are truly loved by me.

I am very proud of all of the accomplishments that you have earned and what you have did in the church, at the various schools you have attended and the Special Program that you participated in this past Summer.

Set your goals high and remember that with sincerity, honest hard work and with our God as the head of your life, you will be a special -SUCCESSFUL- participant in this world.

SUCCESS CAN BE YOURS - SO GO OUT THERE AND ATTAIN IT.

YOUR GRANDMOTHER
Mrs. Mary "YaYa" Roddie

Congratulations, Scheherazarde Michelle Roddie, Jr.!

SCHEHERAZARDE MICHELLE RODDIE, JUNIOR

(aka MYYA)

On September 29, 1989 I received a most wonderful blessing in the form of a daughter - YOU. I felt truly special having such a special gift put into my care. You have given me many days of joy, pleasure and love; and yes some headaches also. But love makes it all worth while.

You have made me VERY PROUD.

You have worked diligently in our church, serving as the Sunday School Secretary, doing some acting rolls in various programs held there, choreographer of the Praise Teams, singing in the Youth Choir, Participating in the Shelby County S.S. and N.B.C. Congress where you serve as the Secretary in the Youth Department, attended the National Baptist S.S. & N.B.C. Congress participating in various courses, selected as a member of the Pantomime and Dance team, performing on the National Level and speaking on the Local Level at various sessions.

You have been an honor roll student from the 1st grade through this, your Senior Year. You have been a member of the various Majorette Squads, presently captain of the Melrose Golden Girls Dance Team, a member of the Softball team-playing 1st base, Secretary of the Senior Class, elected President of the National Honor Society Chapter at the school, and you have been listed among Who's Who, Nationally, for the last two years.

You are a hard working young lady and I truly love you. I believe that with your enthusiasm, your knowledge of much information and your desire to succeed in life, that you will have nothing but success.

Keep up the Good Work and always remember,
"PUT GOD FIRST".

With Much Love - Your Mother,
Mrs. Scheherazarde Roddie-McNeal

You work here with our Youth and you do not mind volunteering to be helpful in other areas.

You represented us in the Local, District and on the national level in the National Sunday School and Nurture for Baptist Training Convention. You are the perfect example of young people that have made up in their minds what they want to do with their lives. Keep up the good work and Our Lord will continue to keep you in his care.

Congratulations, Khiira-Kharess!

Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness, that most frightens us. We ask ourselves, who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God; your playing small doesn't serve the world. There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us. It's not just in some of us; it's in everyone. And as we let our light shine, we unconscioiusly give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others.

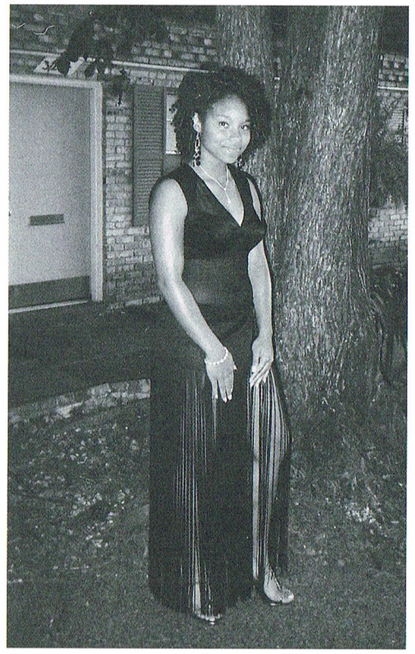
Congratulations, Monique Asia-Laurae Smith!



You are my heart.
I've watched you grow into a beautiful young lady.
I am so very proud of you.
I could not have asked for another.

You have come a long way
and you have done well.
I know you will do your best in the near future, too.

I love you so very much.
Remember, put God first and you will go far.

Always and forever,
MAMA

Congratulations to My Daughter, Erika S. Mosby!

I knew you could do it.
I'm so proud of you.
I hope all of your dreams
come true.

You have been a good daughter. From the 1st grade to the 12th,
you have never given me
any problems; and, I thank you for that.

When you leave for college, stay in the church and put God first -and you will do good.

I love you.
