CLASS HISTORY

As we graduates of '54 and '55 look back through the years, we realize that we have come a long way. It seems as if it were just yesterday when we were Freshmen. We were awed, anxious, and also ambitious.

We were very happy when students from other schools joined us. Because of the large number of students, the ninth grade increased to seven divisions. We became members of the different organizations of the school.

The next year we were happy to be considered as Sophomores. Our school improved. We then realized that many of us were capable of becoming athletes and leaders. We proved that we had many hidden talents.

As athletes we had James Smith, Richard Woods, Herman O'neil, Carl Betts, James Brooks, Criven Dean, George Harris, John Buckner, Earnest Holmes, Cleophus Hudson. Those displaying leadership were not as the athletes.

New students joined us this year. Doris Carson from St. Anthony and Emily Flemming from Pine Street High School, became members of the Sophomore class.

When we entered the Junior Class we really got down to business. Our homeroom teachers and advisors were Mrs. Reid, Miss Flowers, Mr. West and Mr. Westbrooks. After selecting the advisors, we selected the Junior class officers. They were as follows;

President----------Benjamin Truitt
Vice President----------Cleveland DeWittt
Secretary---------- Rose Marie Keel
Ass't Secretary---------- Betty Jean Hamilton
Treasurer---------- Herman Dean
Business Manager---------- Herman O'Neil

Other class members completed the various committees.

It was obvious that the Junior class was making history. We participated in many school and civic affairs.

This year we were not only the "City Champs" but also "State Champs". Our football team was the talk of the city, state and country. We honored the football players with a banquet.

The Melrose Glee Club and Band appeared on television and words cannot express how marvelous the program was. We received many letters and telegrams from friends and parents.

Nine classmates were inducted into the National Honor Society. They were: Mozella Davis, Mae Eunice Cruther, George Harris, Benjamin Truitt, Cleveland De Witt, Claibourne Smith, Robert Webb, Marcellus Woods, and LaFerre Harris. This was a great experience for the Juniors.

In May we went to the "Junior-Senior Prom." This will forever remain in our memories. for it was a glorious affair.

Claibourne Smith was chosen by the Student Council to represent us at the National Student Council Convention in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Benjamin Truitt represented Melrose at the Boy's State Convention in Nashville, Tennessee.

At last we were Seniors. It was a day that we all had anticipated. We were more than glad to have the same teachers that we had last year, with the exception of Mr. West who was no longer a 12th grade teacher.

Senior class officers were elected. They were as follows:

President----------James Brooks
Vice President---------- George Harris
Secretary---------- Marble Jackson
Ass't Secretary---------- Loistine Jones
Treasurer---------- George Scott
Business Manager---------- Frank Pittmon
Chaplin---------- Mozella Davis

This year we had as many students to join us as we did in our Freshman year The same as last year, we were "City Champs" and "State Champs." George Harris was captain of the team with Herman O'Neil as Co-captain. The leadership of these two enabled us to accomplish .our goal, which was to R-E-P-E-A-T.

Richard Woods and Herman O'Neil was chosen as Mr. Gridiron Greats. Barbara Anderson was chosen as the Football Queen, with Emma Parker as one of her attendants.

This year Eleanor Bryant and Mable Jackson became members of the National Honor society.

In our class there was a number of charming young ladies who were candidates and attendants in such contests as the Nursery Bowl Queen and Football Queen. They were: Barbara Jo Woods, Bernice Wilson, Emma Parker, Loistine Jones, Katheryne Cox, Faye Edwards, and Barbara Anderson.

We were more than proud when Barbara Anderson was chosen as the Nursery Bowl Queen.

This class was the first class to set a ring tradition, have a picture of the new gym on the graduation invitations.

Seniors Displaying Leadership Ability.

We have crossed the bay, and now a great ocean lies before us. We must chart on our course to travel the ocean safely. In the charting of this course must go the continued interest of Melrose in the class and its continued and growing interest in its school.

It will be the class task to suceed and achieve. For Melrose can be known in no better way than by the distinction achieved by its noble sons and daughters.

Opportunities for services and positions of leadership await this class.

CLASS WILL

We, the tenth class of Melrose High School, being of perfect mental and physical health, do hereby bequeath to the faculty, the gratitude for guidance and loving devotion throughout the years. To the school we leave our love and the hope that it will continue to prepare life's youth for a bigger and a better world. To the freshmen, we leave the hope of better things for the future and the will and determination that it takes to suceed. To the sophmores, the true spirit of becoming upper classmen and to the Juniors, we leave our most treasured possessions and our sincere wishes that these possessions will be accepted in the spirit in which we give them

CLASS PROPHECY

After I had made my arrival in New York to go on board the Queen Marie Cruiser, I talked with Captain Johnie La Grone about the various occupations which were held by our graduates

Our first stop was in London, England, where I boarded a cab which was owned by Herbert Moody. It took me to La Overture Hotel, which was owned by Theodore Payne. His clerk was Lula Mae Person.

After a soothing rest, my guide took me to that exclusive night club, owned by Alex Hunt. I was delighted to hear the soothing music of Leonard Jones and his Rhymetts, featuring Evelyn Shelton as the professional dancer and Robert Webb as the clarinet soloist.

Traveling from there, I ate in the lavish De Arthur Restaurant owned by John Buckner. The meal had been planned by Hattie Hines. Emily Fleming was a guest in this restaurant. She appeared in a musical recital the next day.

The next morning after waking from a good night's sleep, my servant told me I had a guest, Willie Blackmon, Tour Agency, to take me sight-seeing. She took me to Eden and Burr Hospital which das designed by Floyd Ford and Constructed by Alfred Newton. The Staff Members were Dr. Timothy Mull and Dr. Faye Edwards. The Supervisor of Nurses was Mae Crutcher, her associates were Catheryn Jones, Emma Parker and Kathleen Wilson, the laboratory technician was Willie Allen.

Cleophus Husdon and Cleveland De Witt operated a well equipped with museum in the city which was called Toussiant Museum. Those who were observing the relics were Ivory Johnson, Bettye Dickerson, Paul Butler and Mandine Stott.

After an interesting trip, I ate lunch in the De Cavalier which was owned by Mary Truitt. Meals were planned by Rose Smith and Helen Townsend. The food was very platable.

Traveling from there, I enjoyed a wonderful forum led by Agnes Jones at the Open Air Park. The forum consisted of Harold Gunn, Cozette McVay, Bernice Wilson and Ellen Bridgeforth. The topic for discussion was ''What The Future Holds For Me.''

When that evening sun had just gone behind its lining, I enjoyed a musical concert given at the De Martinas. The musicians who were giving this performance were Eddie Horton on saxophone, Bobby Reese on the drums, James Hazely on the trombone and Barbara Woods as the ballet dancer.

I visited the House of Parliment, there I was greeted by Prime Minister, James Brooks in whose company was his secretary, Loretta Shields. The place was magnificent.

I sighted the Criven Dean Car Incorporation owned by Criven Dean. His engineers were Don Tate, Norman Ervin, La Farre Harris, Roosevelt Archie and Benjamin Truitt. His cars were created with a steering wheel in the rear seat.

In the largest Science Building, I saw famous people as Carl Betts; research scientist, Gladys Dortch; chemist, Frank Pittmon and Claibourne Smith; nucelar physicists and George Harris; research physicist. They were manufacturing the most dangerous bomb ever discovered by man.

The Children's Hospital for cerebral palsy was designed by Joe Richmond and constructed by Zedrick Butler. The pediatrican was Dr. Joe Perkins, his associations were Dr. Thearthur Rankins, Dr. Marcellus Woods and Dr. James Rubins. The Supervisor of nurses was Bessie Wallace and assisting her were Mary Shields, Laura Lyons, Texana Eavens, Birdie Hearns and Pauline Watson. The dentist was Herman Dean. Laboratory techicians were Lorrine Carter and Virginia Wilson. President of this hospital was Louis Woodall, his Trustees were Bettye Hamilton, Patrica Howard and Peggy Jo Hawkins.

I visited a large crimnal court in which a case was in session. Judge Ernest Holmes was presiding. The attorney was Margaret Brown. The crimnal was Eleanor Bryant.

My strenous exercise called for a rest period. The mail clerk, Tommy Garrison, phone me that a special delivery would be delivered by Lincolm Deberry. The delivery stated that I would be an honored guest in Paris for the coming day.

When I boarded the plane I met the pilot, Raymond Garner. My stewardesses were Helen Motley, Alma Johnson and Marie Foster. Waiting to greet me in Paris was my guide, Essie Hayes. She took me to the Devon Dress Shop owned by James Sesley. His secretary was Kathryne Cox. The designer of clothes was Mozella Davis. The dressmaker was Jean Bridgeforth. The models were Barbara Anderson, Geraldine Glover, Loistine Jones and Velma Cox. Hair stylists for the models were Mary Mitchell, Christine Hope, Doris Carson and Margaret Robinson. Make-up artists were Bettye Lewellyn and Shirley Spencer.

My tour ended. I boarded a plane then I saw James Smith, coach at University of Tennessee, Herman Oweil, coach at Lincoln University, Richard woods; coach at UCLA, talking about their games for the year. Greeting me after my flight was George Scott, who was Dean at the Davison and Peterson College, his secretary was Ann Bridgeforth. Conversing with us was Marble Jackson; math teacher, Corace Brown; physical education teacher, Versilence Sales; English teacher, Virginia Clower; Latin teacher, Napleon Duckett; sociology teacher and the boxing instructor was James Webb. I stayed at the Glorious Tourist Home.

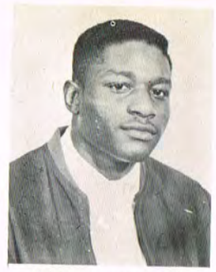

Although my tour had ended, the graduated of Melrose Senior Class of 1955 are still traveling on for their victory.

MELROSE HIGH SCHOOL BAND

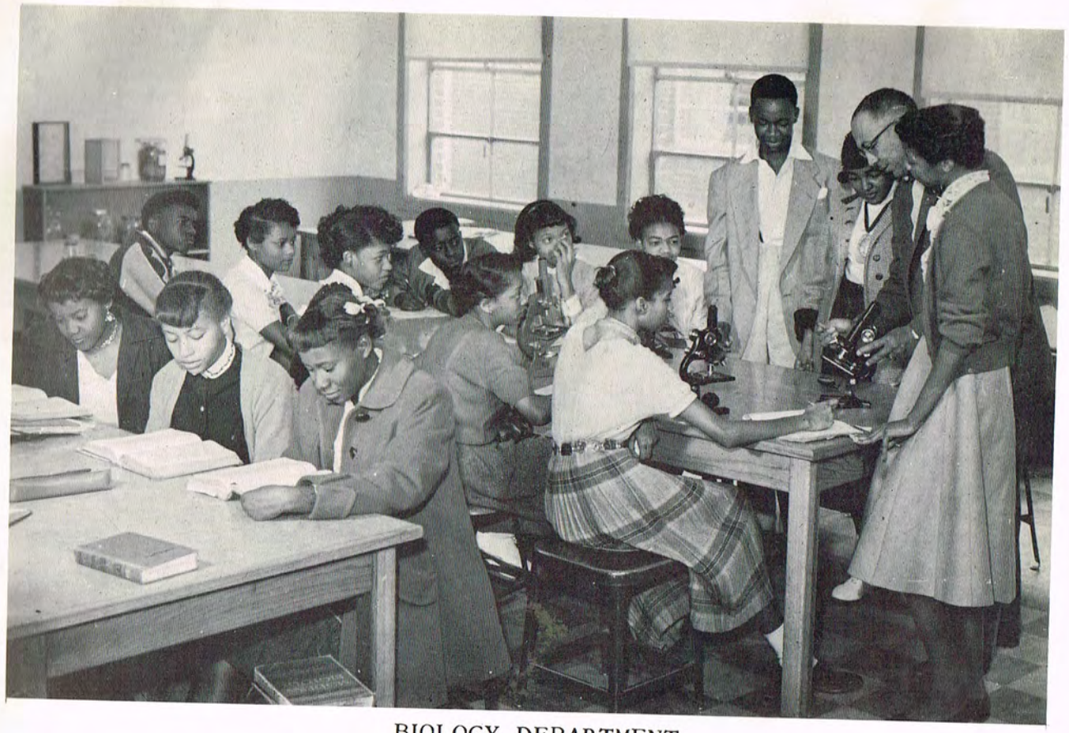

The magnificent Melrose High School Band is one of the leading bands in the city and the state. It has progressed rapidly under the direction of Mr. Richard Green and Miss Johnetta Thomas. The band is lead by Ardalia Scales. It is the most respected band in the city.

The band has captured many trophies and prized during the past years. The Melrose Band, along with many other bands, went to Arkansas State College to participate in their Homecoming Game program. Our band went to Jackson, Tennessee and represented Melrose at the West Tennessee Conference for teachers. For 2 years, straight, it has won the 1st Interstate Band Festival In Little Rock, Arkansas in '53 and '54 for marching maneuver and concert music. It has also received certificates for the drum ensemble, trumpet ensemble, clarient duet and bass horn solo. There are 54 members in the Melrose Band including the majorettes. The futurettes soon hope to become a part of the regular band.

The members of the band can play anytning from Beethoven to "Bop." They show talent regularly in many of our Chapel Programs. They have instilled enthusiatic spirit through-out the student body during our "Championship Year" of the foot-ball season.

The officers of the band for the year of 1954–55 are:

President----------Leonard Jones
Vice-President---------- Bobby Reese
Secretary---------- Fredia Manry
Asst. Secretary---------- Ardalia Scales
Treasurer---------- Odie Keel
Chaplain---------- Lillian Harden
Business Mgr.---------- Freddie Green
