SEVENTY-SIX GRADS OF MELROSE HIGH

I'm speaking of '76 Grads: I hope you'll
all know,
They started out as babes, a long, long,
time ago.
Their school years have been exciting,
from the beginning to the end,
But, now it's over Seniors; a new life
must now begin.

The first year was full of fun,
Teachers were sweet as honey,
But once you got the swing of it,
They yelled, "Don't do that Sonny!"

Third grade was considered easy,
When you knew how to read and write,
But, tell me, what became of you,
After those noonday fights?

Learning was harder now,
The fourth year was going fast,
You asked yourself the question,
How in the world am I going to last?

As you passed on to the fifth,
Small Stars were gleaming in your eye,
These were signs from Cupid,
To wake up and look towards the sky.

The sixth grade was even better,
You knew what you were doing then,
As you remembered the first year,
The days of way back when.

In the seventh, you had passed halfway,
But, still counting the years to come,
When you'd be sitting in a classroom,
Yawning, saying, ho, hum, hum.

In the ninth grade you looked forward
to the day,
When you'd be in Senior High,
All your former teachers,
Would be sending you gladly with a sigh.

As a sophomore you were getting closer,
To the year you wanted to see,
The year when you'd be a boaster,
While leaving the prison with glee.

You almost had it made,
Your Junior year in school,
When you had leisure time,
To fiddle, faddle, and fool.

Now you have come to your Senior year,
The year of dances and proms,
But the day of most importance to you,
Is the day that your graduation comes.

Well, now you know how your lives began,
How you've ventured, from the beginning
to the end,
So there you have it ladies and lads,
The Melrose High School '76 Grads.

Melrose Graduates

It's up to you.

If you're a senior, you'll soon be graduating into a whole new world of experience. You can make it if you want to. The Army can help. In fact, the Army has a program called "Project ahead" that will enable you to get valuable college credit for your military training.

Depending on your motivation, you can receive as much as 2 years or more of college credit with the Army paying up to 75% of the cost. And at the same time you'll be earning good pay, doing a challenging job.

There are other important benefits to consider, too. Your Army Representative can fill you in on all the details. Then you make the decision.

Graduates of 1975

Congratulations to you on the achievement of this milestone in your "education". You must bear in mind, however, that education is a continuous process that does not end with your acceptance of a diploma - but continuous throughout life.

We hope and trust that at Melrose you have gained some of the basic skills and an abundance of the desire to sustain you in a life of learning and serving.

Best wishes to you for your continued success and achievement in future endeavors.

Melvin K. Cooley

Principal

Dear Members of the Class of 1976,

To develop outstanding liberally educated young men and women is the FIRST purpose of Melrose High School--in fact, its reason for being. I therefore have only great expectations for you as citizens, as successful men and women in your chosen fields.

In looking over the list of the members of this class, I was grateful to discover that I know many of you personally--something of your talents, and something of what you've meant to Melrose. Those of you who sang in the choir, played on the athletic teams, or who served on one of the student government committees will be sorely missed.

I am, of course, immensely proud of those who received awards or scholarships. Each of you, by your performances can open doors for future students.

Through the years, I will pray for each of you. May your accomplishments in the years ahead be equal to your wonderful opportunities.

LaVaughn Bridges

Assistant Principal

To the Senior Class:

In a short while you will be taking your place in society. Some of you will become successful and influential and others will not be as fortunate. This is life and has always been that way. Regardless of where you end up, remember you and only you are the masters of your own destiny.

I think Edgar A. Guest, in "It Couldn't Be Done", describes success very well:

Somebody said that it couldn't be done,
But he with a chuckle replied,
That "maybe it couldn't," but he would be the one
Who wouldn't say so till he'd tried.

So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin
On his face. If he worried he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.

Seniors, I hope each and everyone of you has a meaningful life ahead of you. I have enjoyed being with you and am looking forward to seeing you again.

Donald D. Tillilie

Acting Assistant Principal

Graduates:

The opportunity for a high school education remains one of the greatest challenges, youth will ever face. To accept honestly this challenge, and face the basic problems inherent in it, is the way to establish a foundation upon which good living is achieved.

I sincerely hope the memories you have recorded at Melrose will serve to enhance the years which lie ahead.

May God bless and keep you.

To The Senior Class Of 1976:

Since I came to Melrose, three years ago, I have been engaged in many projects. These projects have shown me how to work with other people and more importantly how to work as a team.

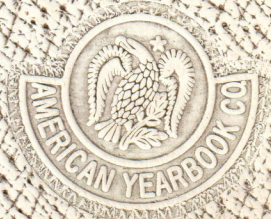

One of the most demanding projects has been that of Editor-in-Chief of this annual. Although the staff has been small, I feel that they are dedicated. Many times when the job seemed to be too big, it was the energy of the staff that kept us going. I would like to take this opportunity to thank them for all that they have done.

To Lorian Hood, Rhonda Scales, Randy Stoker and Sheeree Wirt; thank you all for the times we have had together and the tremendous work you have done. I hope that as we leave Melrose the bonds we have made will not be broken by the time or distance. I hope that the lessons we have learned about working with others will truely help us serve with pride and humility.
