Reflecting over the years
We watched you day
after day
Waiting for this joyful moment
For which there is no pay.
This is the epoch of
a new dawn
Your future is unknown
From kindergarten, to graduation
My how time has flown.

A MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR AND STAFF

In writing the final page of this yearbook, the following statements are true.

As its editor, I have enjoyed the hard work and appreciated the experience. To me, the unity, the cooperation and the support of the staff cannot be surpassed.

It is my hope that the seniors and other interested persons will accept this book in the same manner in which it was created, that is with love and concern.

As a staff, we wish the 1978 Melrose Golden Wildcat Yearbook to serve a useful and memorable purpose in your future. In fact, the culmination of this book has been realized through your cooperation. Thank you.

Along with the staff, I wish to thank each and every person who helped us strive toward any success we have accomplished.

However, we must make a confession. Despite efforts to the contrary, there were times when we goofed and we goofed and we goofed!!! They were "candid" mistakes and infallible we are not. We wanted to please you. Hopefully, in some small way we have met our goal.

May your future be the fulfillment of your dreams.

God bless.

Pamela Jacobs,
Editor-in-Chief
