The End of An Era

1999

FROM THE CHIEF:
Principal LaVaughn Bridges

Melrose High School is a comprehensive learning center that provides the best of three educational worlds: a quality college-preparatory program, a well-balanced general educational program, and a challenging vocational education program. In addition to developing the productive capacity of our students, we equally emphasize the personal growth and development of all students and their families.

On behalf of the Melrose High School faculty and staff, I wish each graduate a productive and happy future. Your years of effort, persistence, and Golden Wildcat pride have finally paid off.

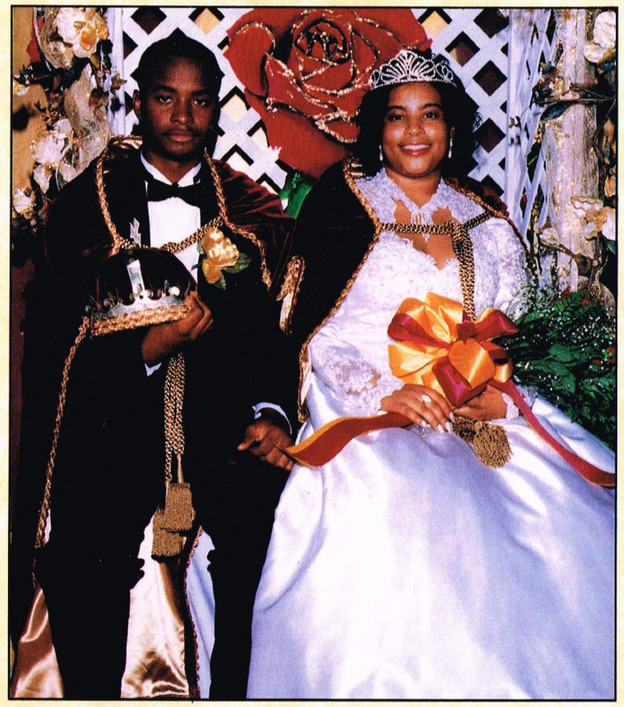

As your life continues to unfold, remember–

THE THREE RULES FOR SUCCESS

Rule #1: Do the best you can with what you have.
Rule #2: Do the best you can with what you have.
Rule #3: Do the best you can with what you have.

Congratulations, Class of '99!

MR. & MISS MELROSE
Nicholas Eason & Cynthia Anthony

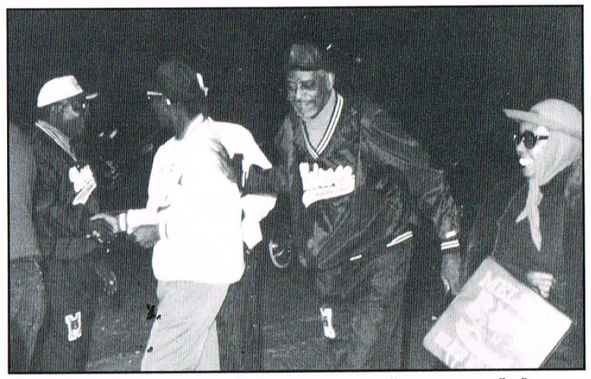

Nicholas Eason is the son of Margarette Crockett. His hobbies include playing the drums and basketball. As a senior, he was a Drum Major for the Melrose High School Marching Band. Aside from school activities, Nicholas attends True Liberty Baptist Church and plans to become a computer engineer.

Cynthia Anthony is the daughter of George Ella and James Anthony. Her hobbies include acting, singing, and playing the clarinet. She was a member of the French Club, Marching and Concert Bands, Charmettes, Student Council, and the Junior Civitan Club. Aside from school activities, Cynthia attends New Jerusalem COGIC and plans to become a registered nurse.

Mr. & Miss Melrose 1998-99

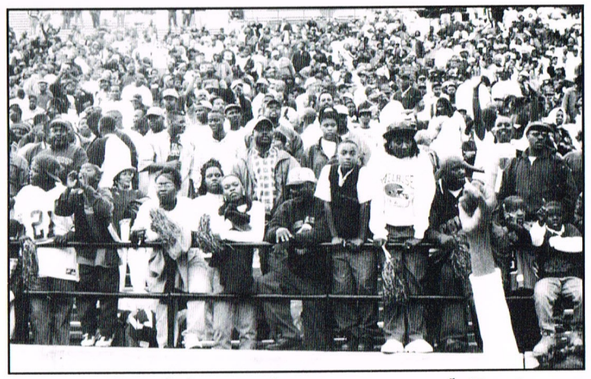

A Tradition of Commitment, Support, and Excellence

Since its humble beginnings in the late 1800's, Melrose High School has been the pride of the Orange Mound community. From its Park Avenue location to its present site, Melrose continues to be the school of choice for generations of Orange Mound families.

The Orange Mound community shows much love at Golden Wildcat events.

The strong alliance between the school and community is evidenced by the number of businesses, organizations, and churches that actively support the school's mission. Last year various community groups awarded more than $10,000 to graduates. In addition to scholarships and other incentives, parents and community members serve on the Site-Based Leadership Council and numerous other school-based committees.

Our loyal fans and supporters rank No. 1 in local high school football game attendance.

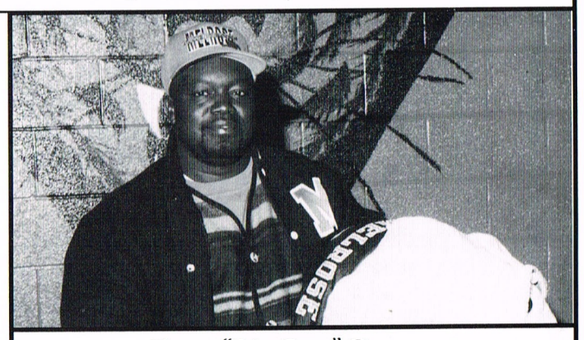

To Our Loyal Fans & Supporters:

Thank You!

Just like the U.S. postal system, the fans and supporters of Melrose High School deliver in rain, hail, sleet, or snow.

On behalf of the entire student body, the Class of '99 says "Thank You" for the enthusiasm and encouragement.

It is the End Of An Era; but, the Golden Wildcat tradition of pride and humility lives on.

Terry "Big Dog" Danner

If you attended ANY Golden Wildcat football game, you saw and heard Big Dog. At every game, Big Dog was a one-man, spirit-filled cheering squad.

Woof! Woof! Big Dog is in the house!

Ms. Frances T. Barnes

In 1993, we entered Melrose as seventh graders. That was also the year that we first met Ms. Barnes. Over the years, we have come to know her as a dedicated educator, a conscientious organizer, and a proactive leader.

In addition to her classes, Ms. Barnes is the coach of our "state-bound" volleyball, softball, and girls' cross country teams. She is also the Golden Wildcat yearbook advisor, a sponsor of student field trips, and a viable resource for other activities. Her involvement with Melrose, though, does not stop here. As a Golden Wildcat alumnus, Ms. Barnes participates in a number of school and community activities.

By the end of our seventh grade year, we considered Ms. Barnes to be talented, cooperative, and efficient. Our sentiments have not changed. We proudly dedicate the pages of the 1999 Golden Wildcat to Ms. Frances Table Barnes -serving with pride and humility.

The Class of 1999

* HISTORY *

As we approach the end of our "student" association with Melrose High School, we fondly recollect the years and experiences that brought us to this moment in time.

As seventh graders, we entered Melrose High School with a huge burst of energy. Although we struggled very hard, we were only seventh graders. This, of course, meant that we didn't have much say-so in things. We were able, though, to elect our own grade queens. Tina Freeman was Miss Seventh Grade and Monica Williams was her alternate.

During our eighth grade year, we began to feel more comfortable with our surroundings. Lawanda Lofties was Miss Eighth Grade and Cynthia Anthony was her alternate.

By the time we became freshmen, we were bona fide Golden Wildcats. Desiree Murphy was Miss Freshman and Candice Dickerson was her alternate.

As sophomores, our school-wide participation and contributions had increased significantly; however, our role was not of leadership, but of support. Mr. and Miss Sophomore were Nicholas Eason and Monsharee Denman. Their alternates were Antoine Luellen and Cynthia Anthony.

With our junior year came a stark realization: our days at Melrose were going fast. It was actually time to think ahead– to start planning for our future. Mr. and Miss Junior were Jeromy Tuggle and Trisha Middlebrooks. Their alternates were Patrick Martin and Latasha Grandberry. Shantrece Williams was Miss Back-To-School Bowl. Her alternate was Cynthia Anthony. This intriguing year was climaxed with the junior/senior prom at the Adams Mark Hotel. The theme was "Make It Last Forever."

Our senior year began on August 24, 1998. We were so proud that we had made it - so proud to be Melrose High School seniors. As seventh graders, we looked forward to this day, and... here it was. Our senior year was highlighted by challenging classes, test preparations, and one financial crisis after another. But, despite any and all occurrences, the real meaning of being a senior was only months away: graduation.

As time for our final good-byes approached, we felt a glow of anticipation. Surprisingly, we also felt a twinge of sadness. The virtues of patience, courtesy, humility, ambition, and pride had been drilled into us year after year. As seniors, we began to understand, embrace, and demonstrate these important life skills.

The end of an era is fast approaching, and so is our sweet high school experience. As members of the Melrose High School Class of 1999, we pledge to enter the new millennium with confidence, knowledge, and a desire to make a contribution. We further pledge to serve with Golden Wildcat pride and humility.

Dear Melrose High, we love and cherish thee.

CLASS POEM

Written by Sherronda Harper

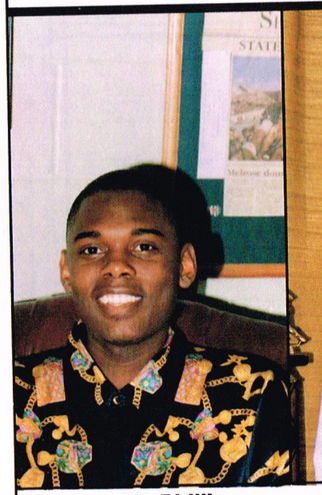

The End of An Era

For twelve long years we waited for the day, when we would walk down that long pathway.
We will hold our heads way up high;
until they almost reach the sky - knowing that this is our last try at being students of the great Melrose High.

As we sit and wonder what's to come,
we think of the times we had fun.
From the football team, who won the state,
to the track team, who's really great.
The walk across the stage,
where that special gift is waiting,
will let us know that we've done it:
we are actually graduating.

The Class of '99
is the "The End of An Era," we say;
well, just sit back and relax;
it's our turn to lead the way.
Some of us will go on to be doctors, maybe lawyers -who knows;
but, the Class of '99 without a doubt will always, always be bold.

The time has come when we must leave the place that feels like home - to face the world, a challenging world, like adults, for we have grown.
The Class of '99 is definitely the best.
No brag, no boast - you'll see.
We have made a pact and won't turn back - to be all that we can be.

From the Senior Class President / Yearbook Editor

Darrius Phillips

On behalf of the Senior Class, I salute the faculty and staff of Melrose High School. With a deep sense of pride and humility, you have admirably provided top-notch academic and extracurricular services. Although we may not have expressed it, we do appreciate the common thread that is clearly embedded in the Golden Wildcat tradition: the advancement of learning.

As this exciting era comes to an end, we challenge the Class of 2000 to maintain the integrity of our alma mater and to conscientiously lead the student body into the new millennium. We, further, challenge all Golden Wildcat students to "hang on in there" and NEVER give up.

Dear Melrose High, we love and cherish thee.

Don't Be Afraid Of Pressure

Tanika Tuggle, Class of '99

An old legend says that birds were created without wings; but before long, they were given wings and didn't know where to put them. They tried picking up the wings in their beaks, but found them to be too heavy. They tried picking them up with their claws, but found them to be too large. Finally, one of the birds managed to get the wings hoisted onto its shoulders. It was now possible to carry them.

To the amazement of the birds, the wings began to grow. They also began to attach themselves to the bodies of the birds. One of the birds began to flap his wings and others followed his example. Before long, one of the birds took off and began to soar in the air above!

What had once been a heavy burden now became the very thing that enabled the birds to go where they could never go before... and at the same time, truly fulfill the destiny of their creation.

The duties and responsibilities you consider burdens today may be part of your destiny. They may be the means by which your life is lifted up and prepared for the goals you are willing to fulfill. Don't be afraid of pressure. Manage it.

Anyway

Presented by Mrs. Constance Woods

People are unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered.
Love them anyway.

If you are successful, you win false friends and true enemies.
Succeed anyway.

If you do good, people will accuse you of selfish ulterior motives.
Do good anyway.

Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable.
Be honest and frank anyway.

The good you do today will be forgotten tomorrow.
Do good anyway.

People favor underdogs, but follow only top dogs.
Fight for some underdogs anyway.

What you spend years building may be destroyed overnight.
Build anyway.

People really need help, but may attack you if you help them.
Help people anyway.

Give the world the best you have
and you'll get kicked in the teeth.
Give the world the best you've got anyway!

Point of View

Fashions by Melissa Williams
When it comes to fashions, you must coordinate. Without coordination, your outfit may be too loud or tacky. On the other hand, it can look plain or regular. Remember: to look great, you must coordinate.

Why Can't We All Just Get Along? by Alicia Williams
Talk about animosity! As we know, there are a few young students who become invo2lved in gangs. There are also those who yield to the meaner side of themselves; and, to add to this drama, we also have adults who are full of themselves. It is my belief that we will get along better when we communicate better. If we take the time to actually "listen" to the other person, we may begin to understand the real problem. In order to lay a solid foundation for tomorrow's generation, we must effectively communicate today.

Research Papers by Monsharee Denman
I really can't believe that I'm saying this, but writing research papers is actually a good thing. Not only does it help to hone writing skills; it is also an excellent college preparation tool. As I understand it, college is about writing, writing, and more writing. Some of this writing will be in the form of research papers. So, from one rocket scientist to another: I plan to go to and excel in college. Writing research papers in high school will prove to be an asset.

YEARBOOK STAFF

A Talented Senior Class by Gina Holley
The Class of '99 has got it going on! This year's Senior Showcase clearly proved this point. From our own Janet Jackson to our own Kelley Price, we have much talent in the house! Look for great things from these and other members of the Class of '99.

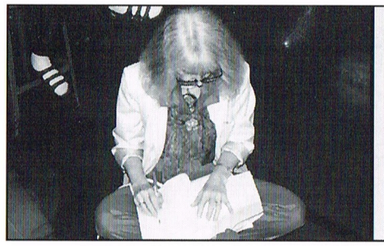

Point of View

Athletes Are Paid Too Much by Cynthia Anthony
Although professional basketball and football players do not directly touch our daily lives, many people aggressively support their million dollar salaries. In addition, many of us pay large sums of money to attend crowded and loud game arenas. We spend megabucks on athletic memorabilia, brand name tennis, athletic clothing, and other keepsakes. But, the people who touch our lives every day - sometimes several times a day — receive salaries that are light years away from those of athletes. I'm talking about the teachers, teacher aides, doctors, and nurses. These people often work long, stressful hours with little or no positive feedback — no standing ovations, no commercial endorsements, nothing. Why are we content to pay astronomical sums to those who entertain us instead of those who educate us? Why do we feel justified in paying strangers to amuse us rather than those in our environ who strive to strengthen our minds and our body? If all of the teachers and medical professionals began choosing to become professional athletes, who would help the children? If salaries are indication of the esteem and respect we have for people, we should entrust our children's development to athletes. Their salaries say that they are extremely intelligent, talented, creative, and worthy. At some point, we need to ensure that we have extremely intelligent, talented, creative, and worthy people working with our children. Obviously, a practical approach is to significantly increase their salaries.

Be yourself

but be your best self!

Dare to be different and follow your own star . . .
and don't be afraid to be happy.

Enjoy what is beautiful,
love with all your heart and soul.
Believe that those you love, love you.

When you are faced with a decision,
make that decision as wisely as possible
then forget it.
The moment of absolute certainty never arrives.

Above all, remember that God helps those who help themselves.

Act is if everything depended upon you,
and pray as if everything
depended upon God.

Congratulations & Best Wishes to My Daughter, Tanika Andrea Tuggle

T - This a very exciting time;
a cause for celebration.

A - A very important milestone - your high school graduation.

N - Now, there's an old saying -
"Nothing fails in life but a try."

I - In order to succeed in life you can't let opportunity pass you by.

K - Keep a positive frame of mind;
work to achieve your goals, too.

A - Always remember, Tanika that I'm very proud of you!

With Love,
Your Mother, LaSondra

Congratulations To Our Sweet "Poonie!"

Ashley Roxanne Stout,
You are our beautiful dreamer.
Continue to pursue your hopes and dreams.
Hold fast to the light within and your dreams will soon become reality.

We Love You,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations To My Daughter, Tremaine!

Thunder is good.
Thunder is impressive;
but, it is the lightning
that does the work.
— Mark Twain —

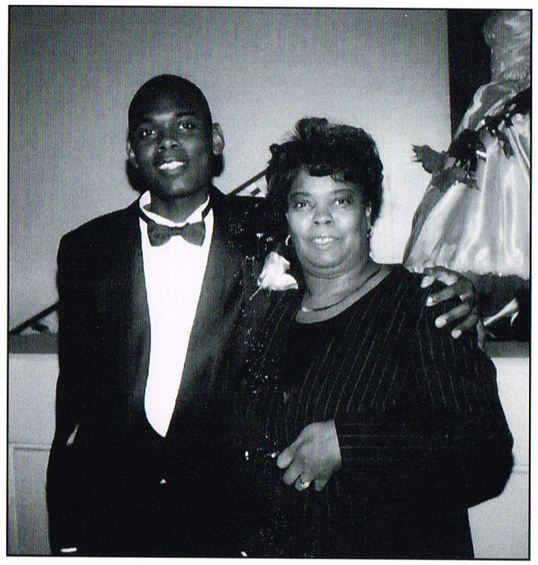

On that cold January evening when I felt you move for the first time, I knew that God had given me someone very special. The picture above confirms this truth. I can see the lightning in your smile and stance. Remember, Tremaine, to keep God in your life and you'll always succeed. Your high school years have come to an end and your college years will soon begin. I know that you will achieve everything that you go after. You are my Baby Doll, Pretty Baby, Woo Woo, Boo Boo Kitty, God's Gift to me, my daughter, and my friend.

Your Loving Mother

Congratulations and Best Wishes, To My Son!

Darrius DeWayne Phillips

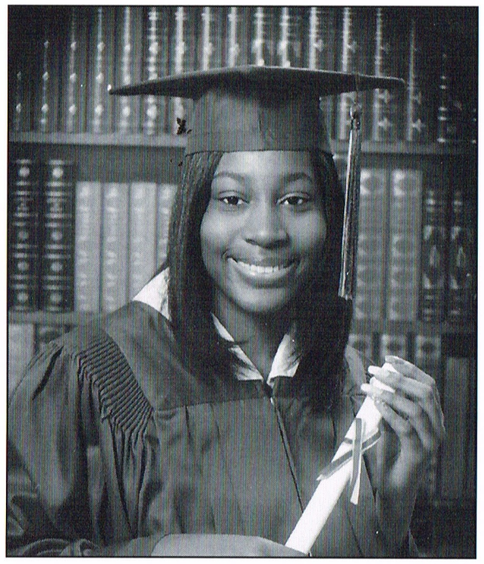

You have made me a proud mother many times in the past; but, this very special achievement is tops. Not only are you going forward as a handsome young man — you are also pressing forward as a handsome and intelligent young man. Take God with you, Darrius, as you grow into manhood. The two of you are an impressive and unstoppable pair.

Loving You,
Your Mom, Mary Phillips
