MS. JUANITA SULLIVAN

A Melrose High School alumna who continues to serve with pride and humility

Ms. Juanita Sullivan

For approximately 11 years, Ms. Juanita Sullivan has made every effort to assist the students and staff of Melrose High School. In her capacity as a custodial helper, she takes pride in her work and lends a helping hand wherever and whenever she can.

Ms. Sullivan began her employment with Memphis City Schools as a member of Sheffield High's cafeteria staff in April 1992. Since that time, she has worked at several schools. According to Ms. Sullivan, "Melrose stands out because it is more family-oriented, has a close-knit staff, and has strong community ties."

As a Melrose grad herself, Ms. Sullivan loves "being at home" and having the opportunity to encourage young people. On any given day, she can be seen advising students to do the right things and urging them to take advantage of their educational opportunities and experiences.

Ms. Sullivan has two daughters, Stacie and Stephanie Spencer, and is the proud grandmother of Jonathan, Joseph, Edward, EMaya, Thomas, T'Maya, and Ethan.

With pride, humility, and respect, we dedicate the pages of the 2008 Golden Wildcat Yearbook to Ms. Juanita Sullivan, a willing worker and committed alumna.

From the CHIEF'S DESK

I challenge the Class of 2008 and underclassmen to be the best of whatever you are. In the words of Douglas Malloch:

*If you can't be a highway,
then just be a trail,
If you can't be the sun, be a star;
It isn't by size that you win
or you fail-*

Be the best of whatever you are.

Heads up, Golden Wildcats! Plan your work and work your plan. On behalf of the Melrose High School faculty and staff, we hope all of your dreams come true.

Principal LaVaughn Bridges

ASSISTANTS PRINCIPALS . . . CHIEFS IN-THE-MAKING

The Class of 2008!

We smiled and we frowned
as we walked through those maroon and gold gates.
We never thought in a million years
that we would be the ones to graduate.

It took us time...
many laughs and many cries.
We did what we had to do
and kept our eyes on the golden prize.

Many hated each other.
Some were best of friends;
but no matter what would happen,
the Class of 2008 rode it out until the end.

So as we stand here today
knowing we're about to separate,
no class -above or below-
will be remembered like

The Class of 2008!

YEARBOOK STAFF!

ADVISERS:
Ms. Frances Barnes
Ms. Jacquelyn Graham

On the pages of the 2008 Golden Wildcat yearbook, we tried to recapture the lively and, yet, focused spirit that makes MelROSE the school that it is. As you glean through the pages, we hope you enjoy our collection of faces and places. We also hope you get a sense of what it's like to be a Melrose Golden Wildcat.

Ms. Frances Barnes and Ms. Jacquelyn Graham take a moment to consider layouts for clubs and organizations.

Mr. David Johnson

Throughout the centuries
there were men
and women
who took first steps down new roads.
They were armed with nothing
but their own vision.
Don't be afraid.
You CAN make a difference.

Mr. Perry, Mrs. Morrison, and Mr. Johnson review

SPRIT WEEK: A Time to Remember!

Dress-Up Day * Nerd Day * Tacky Day * Sports Day * Twin Day
With pride and humility

Ms. C, Ms. Kilpatrick, and Ms. Langhorn show our girls what it means to be a lady.

Homecoming Week: Academically & Psychologically Engaging!

SURPRISE, SURPRISE!

We

Black History: A Celebration of Culture!

Marla and Chris opened the program.
Jasmine and Mario served as our capable M.C.'s.

The choir and an ensemble "lifted every voice" to the strength and tenacity of our culture.

Jameika, Donisha, Kameycia, and Porcscha elevated our minds with a graceful liturgical dance.

Jeremy sang in the choir and remembered Dr. Herbert W. Brewster.

Brian and Amisha demonstrate their charm, poise, and salsa skills.

Donnel, London, and Jeremiah joined us and eloquently delivered speeches of encouragement and hope.

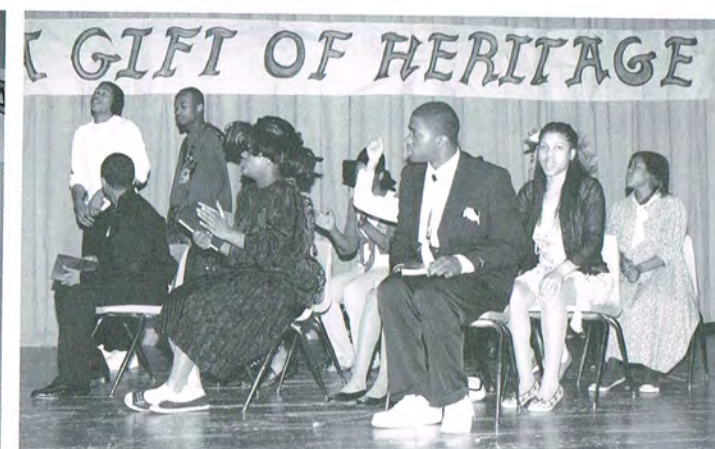

Mrs. Gill, Mr. Johnson, Ms. Lewis, Ms. Langhorn, Mrs. Heaston, Ms. Morris, and Mrs. Coleman adorned the stage with their colorful and elegant ethnic attire.

The Theater Department treated us to an entertaining skit and dance production.

*Lift
every voice!*

Presentations were made to Black History contest winners.

State Representative G. A. Hardaway and alumnus Olympian Rochelle Stevens encouraged students to strive for excellence in all aspects of life.

Ms. Barnes wore kente, kente, and more kente.

Congratulations To Tiara Macklin, Class of 2008!

The time has come for new adventures,
new people, and life-changing events.
Your decisions and your judgments from this time forward can and will have a tremendous impact on your future progress.
Change nothing about your personality,
but always improve on who you are.
Maintain the drive for excellence and reach for the stars.
Keep God, family, and friends foremost in your life.
Take nothing for granted, nor take it at face value.
Always investigate where you're heading,
and the obstacles ahead.
Keep God first and your successes will forever multiply.

Good Luck & Do Your Thang!
